

Upcoming Local History & Genealogy Programs

(All programs at Louisville Free Public Library are FREE and held at the Main Library, 301 York Street, Louisville, KY.

<http://www.lfpl.org/genealogy.html>

- May 19 Getting Started in Genealogy Online: 6:00 – 8:30PM
Learn basic and FREE online resources you can use to uncover your family roots. No registration is required.
- June 16 Advanced Genealogy Resources Online: 6:00PM – 8:30.
Learn more advanced search techniques to locate those elusive ancestors! No registration is required.
- July 9 Researching your American Civil War Ancestors: 9:30AM – 11:00
Military Services records, reports, pension applications and regimental histories are just a few of the resources you can consult to learn about your Civil War ancestor.
- Aug. 18 History of Women’s Suffrage in Louisville: 6:00 – 9:00PM
Centennial Room. See the 2015 acclaimed movie Suffragette (starring Helena Bonham Carter, Meryl Streep, Brendan Gleeson and Anne-Marie Duff) followed by lecture of the history of Women’s Suffrage in Louisville by noted speaker Marsha Weinstein.
- Aug. 27 Genealogy Day @The Library: 9:30AM – 5:00PM
The library’s signature conference for those interested in local and family history. No registration is required.

See opposite side for more details!

Genealogy Day @The Library

Saturday, Aug. 27, 2016

9:00 AM

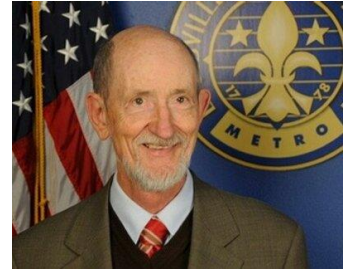

Doors Open!!

9:30 – 9:45

Opening Remarks

9:45 – 10:30

Louisville And Its Place In 18th and 19th Century Westward Expansion, Mr. Tom Owen, Archivist and Louisville Metro Councilman (Auditorium –South Wing)

10:45 – 12:00

Introduction to Genealogy Research by Joe Hardesty, MLS, PLCGS, Kentucky History and Genealogy Librarian, LFPL, (KHR Area, Second floor).

German Research 101 - Getting Across the Pond, by Joanne Pry Howard, (Centennial Room – Basement)

12:00 – 1:30

Lunch / Research Time!

1:30 - 2:30PM

Burial customs of 19th and 20th century America. By Philip DiBlasi, Staff Archaeologist, University of Louisville, (KHR Area, Second Floor)

“Stuff” Is Still a Good Technical Term: Using & Preserving Family Documents & Photographs by Lynne Hollingsworth (Computer Learning Center - Second Floor)

Reading German Protestant Church Records, by Joanne Pry Howard, (Centennial Room – Basement)

2:45 - 3:45PM

Embattled Capital, Frankfort Kentucky in the Civil War, by James Prichard, (KHR Area, Second floor)

“Never Lost, But Bewildered for Three Days”: How Maps Could Have Helped Daniel Boone and Do Assist Researchers, by Lynne Hollingsworth (Computer Learning Center - Second Floor)

The Big House Becomes a School House. by Juanita White and LaVerne Dunning (Centennial Room - Basement)

4:00 – 4:45ish

Roundtable Sharing of Genealogical Tips and Success Stories. (Centennial Room - Basement)

More information can be found at: <http://www.lfpl.org/pdf/GenealogyDay2016.pdf>