

Match text

KOROIT.

Mrs. Michael Hennessy, an old and highly respected resident of the district, died at the residence of her nieces, the Misses Lane, High-street, Koroit, on Wednesday, 22nd October. For over 30 years the deceased had, with her husband, owned and occupied a farm at Crossley, and up to the time of her illness had actively attended to her household duties. The late Mrs. Hennessy was of a kindly disposition, and her death is much regretted. She arrived in Australia from County Clare, Ireland, about 56 years ago, and was the youngest, and the last to come to Australia, of five sisters, three of whom—the late Mrs. James Downey, Mrs. Michael Lane, and Mrs. John Ryan—predeceased her. The only surviving sister is Mrs. John Quirk, late of Killarney, and now of Geelong. Prior to taking up her residence at Crossley, the late Mrs. Hennessy, with her husband, resided for some years at Moore's farm, Southern Cross. She leaves no family. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband, who is some years older, and to a large extent an invalid. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated on Friday morning by the Rev. S. O'Rourke, after which the funeral left for the Tower Hill Cemetery. The Rev. E. Galligan officiated at the graveside.

LANCEFIELD.

On Wednesday, 22nd inst., the altar boys of St. Mary's, Kyneton, accom-

KOROIT.

Mrs. Michael Hennessy, an old and highly respected resident of the district, died at the residence of her nieces, the Misses Lane, High-street, Koroit, on Wednesday, 22nd October. For over 30 years the deceased had, with her husband, owned and occupied a farm at Crossley, and up to the time of her illness had actively attended to her household duties. The late Mrs. Hennessy was of a kindly disposition, and her death is much regretted. She arrived in Australia from County Clare, Ireland, about 56 years ago, and was the youngest, and the last to come to Australia, of five sisters, three of whom—the late Mrs. James Downey, Mrs. Michael Lane, and Mrs. John Ryan—predeceased her. The only surviving sister is Mrs. John Quirk, late of Killarney, and now of Geelong. Prior to taking up her residence at Crossley, the late Mrs. Hennessy, with her husband, resided for some years at Moore's farm, Southern Cross. She leaves no family. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband, who is some years older, and to a large extent an invalid. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated on Friday morning by the Rev. S. O'Rourke, after which the funeral left for the Tower Hill Cemetery. The Rev. E. Galligan officiated at the graveside.