

Spring July 28th

Dear Mother I am once I am obliged to resort to my least this inestimable probably thousand other favours - I can can give you nothing at the
- you are undoubtedly anxious through our journey I will have am in some small degree to we arrived on Tuesday which but we got along as well as could the weather was windy but not and the way is a worse it is all for the sake of the best road - in Buffalo near is worse than to

Dear Sir

London July 28th 1822

that I am once more placed to submit to my pen the considerable privilege of knowing favours - I am indebted to me nothing at this time but eagerly anxious to know how we have got through

Small degree thankful to on Tuesday which lasted 1 day of along as well as could be expected as weary but now dreadfull I was - it is all of 400 miles

... the weather and we more placed in a situation pen to coincide with you and of knowing how to write with indicated to you - for which this time but unpaired there to know how we do and how we got through a live and I the thankful to god for the so lacked 1 day of 4 weeks on the outs be expected every thing was a dreadful day most part of all of 400 miles we came by out and a good part of the road to go to Weston's mill which was quite unwell all the way by since we landed but is now usual - which I get by the quar to us, rather and avoid place in a situation where concerned with you - and for knowing how to write with ten ted to you - for which I re but unpaired thanks - is how we do and how we got through a live and I think I all to god for the same Day of 4 weeks on the road expected every thing consumed full Day, most part of way 10 miles we came by Suffered od part of the road proper stones mill which the unwell all the way and unlabeled but is now some for the sake of the best road - as Buffalo hear is worse than the Boys know about - I say we has been down with the dysentery better so we want suit as we get of our nearest neighbours which who are very kind to after things which is pretty near get - the particulars of what the old woman has had one of was very hard - that with her made her most homesick but our situation here is as good expected in a new country. I want potatoes as I shall want to destroy it - Mr. Hurton lives house where I was coming he is he will have my wagon and and the rest in stock not ^{one} far from

of the best road - and a good pack is worse than to go to about about - Islay was quite uncom with the quantity since we la to want such a social - which nearest neighbours which is and being kind the woman which is pretty often for a particulars of which Eliza we had had one of her good do - that with being worn out at home - but I think I in near is as good as I expect a new count, I shall have abo as shall want but little more The Newton lives 28 miles from I was coming he is doing well any waggon and let one ha t in stock not ^{one year} fall - a man and for ^{cert}

... miles ... by ...
... part of the road ...
... well all the way and
... landed but is now some
... which I get by the grant as
... is not as far as the lower
... shall Mother when I go
... for I have not got all my things
... will tell you
... good things ^{since} well landed which
... out with ^{her} journey all together
... she is getting over it.

... expected and as good a can be
... we about 1 1/2 ton of hay and as ... for the black ...
... from here I went to the
... well milk cows & I expect
... and 2 sheep
