THE NAME AND FAMILY OF McCALLUM OR McCOLLUM

The name of McCALLUM or McCOLLUM is derived from the Scottish Mac, meaning "son of", and Columba, which, according to some writers, means "a dove". It is said that the early Picts, upon being converted to Christianity by one Columba, a missionary, were called MacColumba or "sons of Columba" by their heathen neighbors. How nearly correct is this theory cannot be definitely determined.

In ancient British and early American records the name is found in the various forms of M(a)cColumba, M(a)cColum, M(a)cCollum, M(a)cCallam, M(a)cCalum, M(a)cCallum, M(a)cCollam, M(a)cCollom, M(a)cCollem, M(a)cCullam, M(a)cCullem, M(a)cCullom M(a)cCullum, and others, of which the two spellings mentioned at the beginning of this article are those most frequently used in America today, although many of the others are still occasionally found.

Luy Mac con, the 113th Monarch of Ireland, was the father of Aongus or Aeneas, Fothach Argthach, Fothac Cairpeach, Duach, and Fothac Canaan. The last of these is called the progenitor of the MacCalums, Earls of Argyle, Scotland.

In the early seventeenth century one MacCallum (Christian name unknown), of Scotland, married Rose, daughter of Teigé O'Neill, hereditary Prince of Ulster, Ireland; but the records of this line are not complete.

Many branches of the family migrated from Scotland to Ireland in the early seventeenth century; and among those of the name who came to America were many descendants of these Scotch-Irish lines.

One of the first of the Scotch-Irish settlers was Alexander McCollom or McCollum, who came from Londonderry, Ireland, to America in 1730 and settled at Londonderry, N. H. He brought with him his wife, Janet, by whom he was the father of Alexander, Thomas, Jean, Robert, Archibald, John, and Janet.

Alexander, eldest son of the immigrant of that name, settled at New Boston, N.H., and was married in 1731 to Elizabeth McMurphy. Their children were Jennet, Jean, John, Elizabeth, and Alexander.

Of the two last-mentioned brothers, John died unmarried; while Alexander was married in 1734 to Mary Patterson, who gave him fourteen children, John, Elizabeth, Robert, Rodney, Alexander, Fanny, Elbridge, Mary, Milton, Haskell, Clarissa, George, and two others, who died in infancy.

Robert, son of the immigrant Alexander, remained in Londonderry, N.H., and married Mary Beattie in 1767. Their children were Archibald, Alexander (died young), William, Jenny, another Alexander, Fanny, Robert, John, Lydia, Jonathan, Elizabeth, and Martha.

Sometime before the year 1760 one Patrick McCollem or McCollum settled in Rockbridge County, Va. He left issue there of at least four children, James, Margaret, John, and Catharine, but the name of his wife is not known.

Of the children of the immigrant Patrick, James' records have not been found; Margaret married Isaac Fencher in 1785; John married Jane McNabb in 1785; and Catharine married a Mr. McClure about 1784. These records are, however, only fragmentary.

In 1763 Archibald McCollum came from Argyleshire, Scotland, to America and settled near Charleston, S.C. He brought with him his wife (name unknown) and three children, George, John and Archibald Jr. The father returned to Scotland in 1775, taking his youngest son

Of the last-mentioned brothers, Reuben married Sally Miller, by whom he was the father of Areatus, Eveline, Andrew, George, John, and Hosa; Andrew was the father of at least two children, but their names are not in evidence; Daniel was married to Lidda Gould, of Cherry Valley, N.Y., and had issue by her of Adeali, Charley, William, and a daughter, whose name is not known; James married Lucy Flint and settled at Milford, N.Y., where he left issue of Eveline, Eliza, James, Nancy, Cordilia, Frederick, Sally, and Mary; Alexander left at least two children, one of whom was named Hiram, but his records are not complete; and David was the father by his wife, Mary Thompson, of William, Angeline, Mary Jane, James, and Pikeland. The last-mentioned David removed with his family to Indiana in the early nineteenth century.

One Daniel McCollam or McCollum, who is said to have been of Scotch-Irish descent, came from Ireland to New Jersey. He removed about 1770 to a place near Brown's Mountain, in Pocahontas County, W. Va.; and is called the father of Jacob, Daniel, William, Rebecca, Mary, and Sarah of that place.

Of the last-mentioned brothers, Jacob removed to Illinois, but probably left no issue; Daniel married Anna

Sharp and settled in Missouri, where he left issue of four daughters, Mary, Jane, Rachel, and Nancy; and William married Sally Drinnan, by whom he was the father of John, Lawrence, William, Isaac, James, Sarah, Susan, Nancy, Matilda, Rebecca, and Ruth.

David McCollum, who may have been a descendant of one of the before-mentioned lines, was married in 1775 to Margaret Moore, of Trurp, in Colchester County, Nova Scotia. They were the parents of Phebe Ann, Thomas, David, Margaret, Hugh, Janet, Edward, James, and Robert.

Of the last-mentioned brothers, Thomas left issue by his wife, Janet Logan, of two sons and five daughters (names not available); David married Mary Archibald, by whom he was the father of a son named Johnson, as well as of five other sons and six daughters; Hugh married Lucy Smith, by whom he had five children; Edward married Deborah Wright, who gave him five sons and a daughter; James married Mary Moore, but it is not known whether he left issue; and Robert married Mary Moore, by whom he had six children, two of whom were sons.

Sometime before 1787 John McCallum came from Scotland to Warren, Me. He married Mary Miller about that date and was the father by her of John, Rebecca, Archibald, Andrew (died unmarried), Mary, Rebecca, Alexander, Duncan, William, and Elizabeth.

John, eldest son of the immigrant John McCallum, married Elizabeth Boggs, but probably died without issue.

Archibald, second son of the immigrant John McCallum, married Rebecca Underwood, by whom he was the father of Mary Jane, Margaret, Alexander, Andrew, John, Catharine, James, and Bradbury.

Alexander, son of the immigrant John McCallum, left issue by his wife, Mehitable Jones, of Martha, George, Nelson, Abbie, and Edwin.

Duncan, son of the immigrant John McCallum, married Paulina Counce, by whom he was the father of William, Harriet, Mary, Judson, and Charles.

William, youngest son of the immigrant John McCallum, married Olive Jones, who gave him two sons, Levi and William.

Dunkin or Duncan McCollum, a seaman, was married shortly before 1793 to Ruby Strong, of Marlborough, Conn. He had two sons, Erastus and Julius, but was drowned at sea in 1796.

The descendants of these lines have been known, in general, for their perseverance, literary and scientific interests, love of home and country, and strength of mind and body.

Among those of the name who served in the War of the Revolution were Lieutenant Robert McCallum, McCullam, or McCollom, of Pennsylvania; James McCallam, of Pennsylvania; John McCallom or McCallum, of Pennsylvania; Ephraim, James, John, Michael, Thomas, and Alexander McCollom or McCollum, of Pennsylvania; Thomas McCollum, of Virginia; William McCollum(s), of Virginia; John, Thomas, and William McCallum (also recorded as McCollom and McCollem), of Virginia; John McCollum or McCollam, of New Jersey; Hugh and Duncan McCollum, of New Jersey; Francis McCallam, of Massachusetts; John McCollom, of Massachusetts; Daniel and John McCollom, of New York; and many others as well.

Alexander, Thomas, Robert, John, George, Archibald, James, Daniel, Andrew, Jacob, David, Edward, Charles, and William are some of the Christian names preferred by the family for its male progeny.

A few of the many members of the family who have been prominent in America in more recent years are:

Daniel Craig McCallum (1815-1878), of Scotland and New York, soldier and military engineer.

J. Brewster McCollum (nineteenth century), of Pennsylvania, lawyer and jurist, associate justice of the State supreme court of Pennsylvania in 188-.

The Name and Family of McCallum or McCollum [A00177-9]

Douglas McCallum (nineteenth century), of New York, author and educator.

George Alexander MacCallum (b. 1843), of Washington, D.C., scientist and author.

William George MacCallum (b. 1874), of Michigan, Pennsylvania, and New York, Physician and surgeon.

Elmer Verner McCollum (b. 1879), of Maryland, biological chemist and author.

Burton McCollum (b. 1880), of Washington, D.C., electrical engineer and author.

Lee Charles McCollum (latter nineteenth and early twentieth centuries), of California, soldier, author, and poet.

James Dow McCallum (b. 1892), of New York, editor.

Elizabeth Pauline MacCallum (twentieth century), of New York, author and historian.

John Archibald MacCallum (twentieth century), of New York, writer.

The coat of arms of the ancient family of M(a)cCallum or McCollum of Scotland is described in heraldic terms as follows (Burke, Encyclopaedia of Heraldry, 1844):

Arms.--"Azure, three cinquefoils argent."

Crest.--"A castle argent, masoned sable."

Motto.--"In ardua tendit."

- 7 There was a Duncan McVicker in the Bedford County census in 1790, his family consisting of 2 males over 16, 5 males under 16, and 3 females. There was also a Duncan McVicar in Mifflin County having a family of one male over 16 and 3 females. There is a possibility the Mifflin County man may have been the son of Duncan, Sr.
- 8 It is possible there may have been two Duncan McVickers in Pennsylvania as there is an act of assembly, dated March 11, 1811, and signed by Governor Simon Snyder, granting a gratuity of $40.00 to Duncan McVicker, a Revolutionary soldier. This evidently was never claimed, and on the books of the State Treasurer appears the statement "supposed to be dead."
- 9 There is a warrant for a survey to Duncan McVicker for 250 acres of land in 1794 in Huntingdon County. It is possible this may have been the land upon which he originally settled as Huntingdon County was taken from Bedford County in 1788. There is a warrant for 150 acres in Bedford County in 1843; we presume this is a re-survey. You could secure information relative to the land grant from the Land Office, Department of Internal Affairs, Harrisburg. (See letter, Mar. 8, 1935). Bedford was originally a part of Cumberland County and Mifflin County was a part of Bedford County until 1789. The tract of 250 acres (Duncan McVicker received warrant #211 in Huntingdon County applying for 250 acres dated Jan. 6, 1794, on which a survey for 371 acres 71 perches was returned. The land is situated in Barree Township on the waters of Stony Creek, Huntingdon County. The post office in this township is Manor Hill, Pa. (See letter for warrant dated Dec. 22, 1843, for land in Apler Township, Bedford County, the post office being Schellsburg borough.)

We assume that Mary Prudence McMullin was married at age of 18 years as girls were married young then. We have the date of her death, 1833, from grandpa and from the fact that grandpa was 5 or 6 years old. Counting her 18 at marriage and two years between each child it brings her death 1832 and her marriage 1805. However, she died in the spring (past 1832) as they were moving from the west to the east, by wagon. She had been sick for a long time and wanted to move back to her old home. The weather was damp, rainy, muddy all the way they had gone--pointing to spring and the time that people move. Before they had travelled the distance she became worse and they stopped at a son's house in Indiana (about half the way) where she died. (Above line is incorrect, as she died at the home of her daughter, Maria Randolph, whose husband was Peter Randolph, sister and brother-in-law of Father, N. W. McVicker, at Salem (in now West) Virginia.--J.R.McVicker) These dates bring her to the age of 46 at death. Description of her long sickness, time of year of death point to T.B. and to the age we have computed also. (Information as to sickness from grandpa, N.W.McV.)

We assume that Joseph also was 18 years old at marriage and Mabel Broliar has approximate information as to his death, time, etc., time of remarriage after his first wife's death, etc.

Documentary evidence relied upon by me:

1 Record made by J. R. McVicker from personal statements made by his father, N. W. McVicker, to him, from recollections of the said N. W. McVicker and recorded by the said J. R. McVicker at the time said statements were made to him.

2 Letters and correspondence in the possession of my Uncle J. R. McVicker, written to him and received by him from various descendants of Captain McVicker and relatives of my Grandfather, N. W. McVicker.

Mrs. Don Harper (Wilma Beard)
Elkins, West Virginia

Dear Mrs. Harper:

Your two letters of Feb 9 received with pleasure. I am now sending a list of the addresses of the children of John Henry McVicker

John Henry McVicker, born January 6, 1855, died Feb 17, 1895, married, Oct 24, 1872, Mary Jane Vest, born Feb 18, 1851, died Mar 18, 1914, at Buffalo, Oklahoma

The birth dates and addresses of their children are now as follows:

Joel Henry McVicker, born June 10, 1874: Letter received by J.R. McVicker dated Oct 11 1955 from ~~EVER~~ Mrs. Cora McVicker Livingston, Joel's divorced wife, says: "Well, Uncle James, Joel is at Alva, Okla., he is in a home down there just for men, has been there over a year I guess I told you that he and his last wife had separated, then she passed away over two years ago but Joel just does not know anyone and he has had a stroke if I understand it right, what I can hear is that one side is all paralyzed and from his hips down can't control his bowels at all, when his daughter was down there she said he was strapped in a chair. Of course you know he had five children by his first wife. Signed by ^{Mrs.} Cora McVicker Livingston, Box 191, Ashland, Kansas. Cora collaborated with me in getting up the list of their children and she writes and keeps me posted about Joel Henry McVicker. I do not know the address of the Home where Joel McVicker is living but perhaps Cora could obtain that."

Clarence Evert McVicker (he says it is Evert and not Everett). His daughter, Mrs. Ruby (McVicker) Hahn, passed away at Freeport, Illinois, where she had lived. Clarence Evert (they used to call him Caddy) has his address at Route #2, Box 45, Tillamook, Oregon. He was born Aug 20, 1877

Mrs. Ida Belle McVicker Warren was born May 12, 1880. Her address is at Bankelman, Nebraska. I know she will appreciate hearing from you. She is very lonely, very patient.

Mrs. Millie Luella McVicker Mears was born May 18, 1893. She is crippled, stays in a wheel chair a good deal. Her husband John ~~Mr.~~ H. Mears died during the past year. Her home address is Route 1, Hunnewell, Kansas. However she has extensively visited at a daughter's home who lives in Kansas City but whether there or not at present I do not know.

Mrs. Laura Katherine McVicker Burkhart, receives her mail at General Delivery, Postoffice, Fort Morgan, Colorado. She was born June 22, 1895. There is a large family of them, interesting people. Her ~~xxxxxxx~~ relative (dau. in law) corresponds for her a good deal. She is Mrs. ~~xxxx~~ Earl Burkhart 3540 South Downing, Englewood, Colorado.

Charles Franklin McVicker born Oct 24, 1889, is a barber by profession at Buffalo, Oklahoma.

If you wish any further information, just inquire by letter and I will write. I will write soon again taking up phases I think you wish.
Sincerely yours,

Sht 3, John Henry McVicker [A00186]

JOHN HENRY McVICKER

Duncan McVicker (1739-1818) at the age of 18 years in 1757 with three brothers went from Glasgow, Scotland, to the North of Ireland from which they soon after came to the Province of New Jersey. Duncan McVicker married Nancy McCollum and they had seven sons and it seems two or three daughters. The names of the sons were: Duncan McVicker Jr., John McVicker, James McVicker (1768-1852), Joseph McVicker, Alexander McVicker, Daniel McVicker, and David McVicker. Duncan McVicker served as an officer (Lieutenant and Acting Captain) in the Second Regiment of the Sussex County New Jersey Militia in the Revolutionary War. Soon after the war he went with his seven sons and daughters to Bedford County, Pennsylvania, where he died on January 19, 1818, aged 79 years, at the home of his son, Alexander McVicker (1775-1852) with whom he lived on a farm. He is buried in the cemetery a little way west of Schellsburg, Bedford County, Pennsylvania, where a substantial monument has been erected to his memory and that of her family by a great great granddaughter. Among his seven sons was Joseph McVicker (1776-1854) who married Mary Prudence McMullin, and they had twelve children—six sons and six daughters. The daughters of Joseph McVicker (1776-1854) were: Pernelia McVicker, who married Josephus Protzman; Elizabeth Ann McVicker, who married Colmore Pope; Jane McVicker, who married Tillman Wolverton; Lucinda McVicker, who married Corbly Garard, and later a widow married J.E. Long; Mariah McVicker, who married Peter Fitz Randolph; Mary ("Polly" or "Pop") McVicker, who married John Morgan. The sons of Joseph McVicker (1776-1854) were: Aaron McVicker; Daniel McVicker; David McVicker; James McVicker ~~1776-1854~~; William McVicker (died at his farm home near Newcastle, Henry County, Indiana); Norvel Wilson McVicker (1827-1925) (died at his home at Sigourney, Keokuk County, Ia.), who was the youngest of the 12 children of Joseph McVicker. Norvel Wilson McVicker was born near Morgantown, West Virginia, Sept. 8, 1827, died at the home of his son, Harry S. McVicker, at Sigourney, Iowa, April 2, 1925.

Norvel Wilson McVicker married his first wife, Mary Bryant (born Feb. 10, 1831, died Nov. 14, 1857), at Newcastle, Henry County, Indiana, the date of their marriage being on August 3, 1848. They moved to Urbana, Illinois, where she died and is buried there. She bore him three children: Margaret Lucinda McVicker (1849-1920), who married David Clinton Bevard; John Henry McVicker (1853-1895); and Elizabeth Jane McVicker (1856-1925), who married James Hall Morrison.

The line of John Henry McVicker (1853-1895) follows hereinafter:

John Henry McVicker [A00189-2]

JOHN HENRY McVICKER

John Henry McVicker, born Jan. 6, 1853, died Feb. 17, 1895

Church at Winchester, Kansas, the sermon being preached by Rev. Warrnice, the burial being in the U. P. Cemetery, Winchester, Kansas, December 24, 1935.

The following stanza was read at the services for each of the two children:

"This lovely bud so young and fair, called hence to early doom,
Just came to show how sweet a flower in Paradise could bloom.
E'er sin could harm or sorrow jade, Death came with friendly care,
This opening bud to Heaven conveyed, and bade it blossom there."

Joel Henry McVicker carried mail on a rural route for 12 years. He bought walnut timber for 12 years. He farmed and proved up on a claim in Okla. He moved his family from Neb. to Okla. Joe and Cora and family moved from Buffalo, Okla., to Liberal, Kansas; from there to Cololador Springs, then back to Ashland, Kansas. Joe began buying walnut timber at Council Grove, Kansas, going from there to Woodard, Okla.

Joel Henry McVicker married (April 5, 1920) (at Woodard, Okla.) Cora Grace Foster Holch Bell. She had two children by former marriages. By her first marriage to a son, Nolan Allen Holch, b. Aug. 7, 1913, at Willard, Okla. He graduated from the Ashland (Kansas) High School in 1934, carried high honors in athletics in high school. JOHN HENRY McVICKER

Duncan McVicker (1739-1818), the great grandfather of John Henry McVicker, at the age of 18 years in 1757 with three brothers went from Glasgow, Scotland, to the North of Ireland from which they soon after came to the Province of New Jersey. Duncan McVicker married Nancy McCollum called Annie Laurie of full name Annie Laurie McCollum, and they had ~~been~~ seven sons and three daughters in New Jersey. The names of the sons were: James McVicker (1766-1832), settled at Morgantown (W) Virginia, Joseph McVicker, ~~settled at Morgantown (W) Virginia~~ (1770-1854), settled at Morgantown, (W) Virginia, Duncan McVicker Jr., ~~settled in Hiffilin County, Pa.~~ settled in Hiffilin County, Pa., John McVicker, settled in Virginia, Daniel McVicker, David McVicker, and Alexander McVicker, all three of whom settled in Bedford County, Pa., although Daniel may have later moved into Virginia. The three daughters were: Mary ("Polly") McVicker, married Thomas McBride of Hampshire County, Virginia, in 1797; ~~and two others whose names are not known.~~ With his seven sons and family Duncan McVicker came from New Jersey to Bedford County, Pa., shortly after the war of the Revolution, his wife evidently having died in New Jersey. Duncan McVicker served as a Lieutenant and Captain in the War of the Revolution in the Second Regiment of Sussex County ~~Pa~~ New Jersey Militia. He also evidently served under Washington at Valley Forge as a Captain and Paymaster. In his declining years he lived with his son Alexander McVicker at his son's farm home near Schellsburg, Bedford County. He died at the age of 79 years and is buried in the Schellsburg Cemetery, a handsome monument having been erected to his memory in 1925 by his great grand daughter, Miss Ida Beaman Hamaker.

Among his seven sons was Joseph McVicker (1770-1854) who married Mary Prudence McCallin, and they had 12 children--six sons and six daughters. The daughters of Joseph McVicker (1770-1854) were: Fernelia McVicker who married Josephus Protsman; Elizabeth Ann McVicker who married Colman Pope; Jane McVicker who married Tillman Wolverton; Lucinda McVicker who married Corby Gerard; and later as a widow married J. E. Long; Mariah McVicker who married Peter Fitz Randolph; Mary ("Polly" or "Pop") McVicker who married John Morgan. The sons of Joseph McVicker ~~were~~ (1770-1854) Aaron McVicker; Daniel McVicker; David McVicker; James McVicker; William McVicker (died at his farm home 7 or 8 miles North of New Castle, Indiana); Norvel Wilson McVicker, born near Morgantown West Virginia, Sept 8, 1887, died at the home of his son, Harry S. McVicker, Sigourney, Iowa, April 2, 1928.

Norvel Wilson McVicker married his first wife, Mary Bryant (1851-1857) at New Castle Henry County, Indiana, on ~~March 1853~~ 1853. They moved to Urbana, Illinois, where she died and is buried there. She bore him three children: Margaret Lucinda McVicker (1849-1920) who married David Clinton Bevard; John Henry McVicker (1853-1895); and Elizabeth Jane McVicker (1856, who married James Hall Morrison.

The line of John Henry McVicker (1853-1895), follows hereinafter

*Mary Jane Vest McVicker died Mar. 16 1913 (or 1914)
She was buried at Buffalo, Oklahoma.*

McVicker

*Charles Henry ~~McVicker~~ (Apr 10, 1922-Aug 1, 1982) passed away in the evening at home at 7:30 o'clock, and his funeral was held at the home, the sermon being preached by Rev. Cressy, the burial being in Highland Cemetery, Ashland, Kansas.

*Mabel Grace McVicker (Oct 2, 1933--Dec 22, 1985), passed away at Bell Memorial Hospital in ~~Wichita~~ City, Kansas, at 8:20 o'clock in the evening, and her funeral was held at the M. E. Church in Winchester, Kansas, the sermon being preached by Rev. Warrance, the burial being in the U. P. Cemetery, Winchester, Kansas, December 24, 1985.

The following stanza was read at the services for each of the two children:

"This lovely bud so young and fair, called hence to early doom
Just came to show how sweet a flower in Paradise could bloom
E'er sin could harm or sorrow fade, Death came with friendly care
This opening had to Heaven conveyed and bade it blossom there."

Joel Henry McVicker married (April 5, 1920) (at Woodard, Okla.) Cora Grace Foster Melch Bell. She had two children by former marriages. By her first marriage to Mr. ~~Walter~~ Melch a son, Melan Allen Melch, b. Aug 7, 1915, at Willard, Okla. Col. George T. Vickers, Counsellor at Law,

Jersey City, New Jersey.

Dear Col. Vickers:

Dear Colonel Vickers:

Your letter of August 1 in reply to my request regarding my great grandfather, Capt. Duncan McVicker (1739-1818) is much appreciated.

I note the difference in spelling our names, your name having been furnished me by Judge F. V. Watson as I first addressed you. I am interested to note that you are a former Iowan and that surprises me as I was already believing that you are a descendant from a former line of McVickers of New Jersey.

It is further interesting that you have a summer home in Sussex County and I should be greatly obliged to you for making inquiry at Newton. In this connection I will state that I have the names of two as the wife of Capt. Duncan McVicker:

Nancy McCollum as given me by descendants of his son James McVicker;
Annie Baurie as given me by descendants of his son Alexander McVicker.

I have the further name of Jean McConnell as given me by a party who found the information in an old will, but I doubt if the Duncan McVicker referred to is the same person as my great grandfather, Capt. Duncan McVicker, because of other collateral information which to me indicates that there must have been several other McVickers there, and likely more than one Duncan McVicker.

There is strong indication that his wife was Nancy McCollum. There appear to have been several persons by the name of McCollum in New Jersey in his time, especially, Jacob McCollum who lived on a farm in what is now set off as Hampton and who was a member of the State Legislature in 1778, of the County Committee of Safety in 1775 in Sussex County. Besides there were McCollums in the vicinity of Basking Ridge in Morris County I believe, and in New Jersey in those times were some of the 5 brothers: Alexander McCollum, John McCollum, Reuben McCollum, Daniel McCollum, and James McCollum (although I have proof that she was not descended from James but perhaps from some one of the other four, being claimed to be a member of that family at any rate).

It would be almost miraculous if I could get the names of his sons (and daughters if there were any).

Thanking you, I am, Sincerely yours,

James R. McVicker

Dear Mr. Mac Vicar

In answer to your letter I am not aware of any Mac Vicar Clan Society. I forwarded your letter to His Grace the Duke of Argyll. He has answered "that when he comes home he will look up any notes he may have on the subject." He also says, "There is no book about the Mac Vicars as such, and you would only by long search in such Public records of Scotland as the government have printed and which every good library possesses find mention here and there of persons of the name." My great-grandfather resided at Kilmorie Inveraray. A distant relative of mine died at Stormagachan a few years ago. (Duncan Mac Vicar) His son is still at Stormagachan) another relative Neil Mac Vicar also died a few years ago in Inveraray. My mother used to tell us that we were the 16th

I prefer to say I am the last in our family of which many stories are still current among the natives. He then married under the other system but his son is in deeds referred to as a Natural son as Parents were not supposed to be able to have lawful children.

Originally as far I can discover the name from which the Clan descended that is the Spongen had nothing to do with the office of Vicar in the Church sense of the word but it was derived from an early Christian name BICOR in the feminine case his sons would become BHICOR pronounced V hence VICOR etc.
I found an early reference to them and the Clan Arthur being attacked and drowned in a sea fight on Lochawe by the Campbells of Garraawe. The Mac Arthurs were of the same early race as the Campbells all being of the early Clan O' Duibhne pronounced O' Duin which in Gaelic is well known to be the original name of my family. The Macbractans or Mac Braughtans were also of this stock.

I have a notice in an early book of Annals of the 8th or 9th Century of ART the son of BICOR having been slain by a stone by a Welshman viz a Briton of some kind These races all dwell about Lochawe and I have no doubt that the Macbractans were of the same descent as the Mac Arthurs, and those of the Campbells. For when you find clans living far apart & continuing in close juxtaposition it nearly always implies a common origin however remote.

I am glad to hear you are looking into your own descent from the Duncan Macicker who went from Glasgow, as he must have been from my district for it is only about there that this Clan seems to have been fairly numerous.

Some of them who were priests in the middle ages often wrote & witnessed as our Chaplains the Charters granted by my ancestors.

I will on my return to Scotland send you some Notes of the Clan Belfry as one of its Bells is dedicated to S Malen & the Clan vicar as their patron.

Yours very Faithfully

JRM -> Duke of Argyll [A00198]

November 2, 1938

The Duke of Argyll,
House of Lords,
London, England.

Dear Sir:

Your kind letter to me of July 13, 1938, has been much appreciated. In that letter you give me a very interesting account of the origin of the McVicker clan in Scotland.

I have been for some time working out the genealogy of Capt. Duncan McVicker (1739-1818) who went from Glasgow, Scotland, to New Jersey with three brothers by way of the North of Ireland in 1787. I do not expect to be able to trace family connections of Duncan McVicker (1739-1818) with his relatives in Scotland when he left there, but what I wish to do is to secure accounts such as you gave me and all information I can as a background for my use in eventually writing an introductory sketch of the origin of the McVicker family or clan in Scotland, and other interesting facts. This sketch will be of a general nature, but as enriched with material as I can secure.

There are many branches of McVicker families in the United States and in Canada. The name is variously spelled (MacVicar, McVicar, McVicker). It would be hard to trace any direct family connections of many of the branches, but I am very interested in your statement that "when you find clans living far back and continuing in close juxtaposition it nearly always implies a common origin however remote." I am also interested in your statement that as Duncan McVicker went from Scotland "so he must have been from my District for it is only about there that this clan seems to have been fairly numerous." Again you say: "Those of them who were priests in the Middle Ages often wrote and witnessed as our chaplains the charters granted by my ancestors."

All of these points and others in your letter are very interesting. I would be very glad if you would kindly write me again, as planned upon your return to Scotland, giving me the further notes which you expected to write out for me, and especially the notes relating to the dedication of the Glen Salfry one of whose "halls is dedicated to S Malcoln and the Glen Vicar as their patron."

Again thanking you for your interest and kindness, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Problems of 2 sons of Duncan McVicker [A00200]

PROBLEM OF THE 2 SONS OF CAPT. DUNCAN McVICKER: DUNCAN McVICKER Jr. & JOHN McVICKER
 There seems a dearth of data as to these two in Bedford County (Penna.) after 1789
 If pending searches in Bedford County do not identify these two as living there up to the year 1800, it would seem a fair assumption that they left Bedford County

Norvel Wilson McVicker, grandson of Capt. Duncan McVicker, on March 12, 1916, said that he thought that there was an uncle of his in Ohio (name not stated). This could well have been one of the two above named, the others of his father's brothers being otherwise accounted for. Campbell Co.(Ky.) was near Ohio.

Data Furnished by Miss Varina D. Hanna, 272 East Maxwell Street, Lexington, Kentucky:

"I found these notes in Frankfort yesterday -- I am hoping they will be of service to you"-- (in letter postmarked Lexington, Ky., Sep 2, 1936)-- Kenton County (Ky.) formed from Campbell Co.(Ky.) 1840 Duncan McVicker, 1795, 1799, 1802, 1806, 1800, 1805 & 1806, had 50 acres of land on Willow Run, Campbell Co.

Commissioners Book of Campbell County (July 20, 1795) states that James McCollum, John McCollum, and Duncan McVicker came into the state
 March 10th, 1795.

John McCollough, retail store in 1795.

James McCollum, 1800, 150 acres land on Willow Run, also same note for 1801, and 1802

James McCollum, 1807, 1808, 1812, 150 acres land on Willow Run, 6 blacks

James McCollum, 1813, 170 acres land on Crusers Creek

James McCollum, 1814, 270 acres land on Willow Run

James McCollum, 1815, 270 acres land on Pleasant Creek

John McCollum, 1801, 1802, 100 acres, D. Cousers Cr.

John McCollum, 1808, 1807, 1811 & 1812, 150 acres, Banks of Licking

Sammuel McCollum, 1811, 150 acres, Banks of Licking

Thomas McCollum, 1813 & 1814, 50 acres, Crusers Cr.

John McCollum, 1814 & 1815, 150 acres, D. Cousers Cr.

Miss Hattie M. Scott, 402 Shelby Street, Frankfort, Kentucky, in a letter of May 24, ~~March~~ 1935, to James R. McVicker, says that she finds that one, John McVicker, bought some land in Kentucky in 1807 but that she got this only from an index, requiring search in the records for the particulars.

Miss Scott stated to James R. McVicker in Frankfort on September 2, 1936, that her notes show that one, John McVicker, probably owned 1500 acres land in Kentucky, bought at different times.

COLLINS: HISTORY OF KENTUCKY, Vol. II, page 424:

"Residents in 1810 within the corporate limits of Covington (Ky.) . . .

Duncan McVickar and son James . . .

Patrick Leonard and his wife Molly--always known as Capt. Molly, because of her taking the place--and fighting bravely as an artilleryman in one of the battles of the Revolution--of her first husband, who was killed in the battle."

(The above appears in first paragraph, page 424, relating to the History of Kenton County, Kentucky, in Vol. II of the above named Collins' History of Kentucky.)(1874)

Conclusion: The difficulty at this stage is that of any ~~link~~ identification. It is not yet certain that Duncan McVicker Jr. and John McVicker, one or both, left Bedford County, Penna. Also the given name Duncan seems a very common one among the Scotch, so no special importance can be attached to it as showing relationship of the people whose surname is McVicker, not much more so at any rate, as in the case of the name John. But if no trace is found of Duncan McVicker Jr. and John McVicker, the sons of the Captain, in Bedford County, Penna., it seems a likely place to search for their history may be in Kentucky.

Dear Mr. Tillotson:

I wish to thank you for your second letter, dated July 21, and I have promptly written to the Personnel Department of the Los Angeles Examiner, as you suggest, and requesting the addresses of my Nephew William S. Middleton's four daughters.

I agree with Mrs. Tillotson that this William Middleton is the same William S. Middleton, her uncle, as all points agree .

May I ask you further questions as follows:

1 Did Cornelia (McVicker) Middleton have only the following named children:
(1) Clyde Norval Middleton (1879-1902)
(2) Jesse Roy Middleton (1884-1922)
(3) Frank Edwin Middleton (1881-1937)
(4) William S. Middleton Jr. (1890-) ? Yes

2 Did Clyde Norval Middleton (deceased) have but two sons, as follows:
(1) Frank Edwin Middleton (1899-)
(2) Clyde Henry Middleton (1901-) ? Are these two both living, and can you suggest their addresses? Do not know

3 Is this correct, that Jesse Roy Middleton (deceased) married Ina Renker but had no issue? Do not know

4 I think this is correct, that Frank Edwin Middleton (deceased) married Wilhelmina Caroline Mayer and that they had only the one daughter, Maxine Marie Middleton (1910-) who married J.C. Tillotson. ? Yes

5 As I have it, William S. Middleton, Jr. (1890-) married Gracie LaVern Henderson, and they had children as follows:
(1) Eleanor Louise Middleton (1920-)
(2) Winifred LaVern Middleton (1926-)
(3) Julia Arlene Middleton (1936-) And the clipping indicates
(4) Gracia Middleton ()

6 I wonder if both sons of Clyde Norval Middleton are living? Addresses, or clues to their locations?
Or if one or the other be deceased, who are the heirs? Do not know

Please pardon any repetition of former questions, and I will appreciate your kindness in furnishing information or further clues for me.

I am,

Sincerely yours,

James R. McVicker

THE MARGARET E. McVICKER PROPERTY SETTLEMENTS

Norvel W. McVicker married as his third wife Margaret E. McVicker on Sep 8, 1875 on his 48th birthday when she was 26 years of age, thus he being 22 years older. His two preceding wives had left together 5 children who all left descendants. By his ~~3d~~ marriage he had 4 children. His occupation was that of teamster. He had a very ~~severe~~ abscess in the early 80's leaving him somewhat crippled. He had ~~had~~ accidents by runaway of his team and other accidents and illnesses which considerably increased his lameness. Nevertheless he continued to work as best he could until after 1900, when his two sons; James R. and Harry S. took over the ~~support of the~~ family support. He incurred considerable indebtedness along the way of his latter labors, the last of which ^{several items} were paid off by JRM from his remuneration as Clerk of the District Court. He did the best he could in many unfavorable circumstances, and he enjoyed a secure and contented home with his son, Harry S. McVicker, all his latter years of life, and until he died in April 1923 at the age of nearly 96. Harry took him on a 6 weeks tour of his native West Virginia in 1901, and James R. and Harry S. provided him with several trips throughout the ~~xxxx~~ latter years to visit his ~~children~~ children by former marriages and who were living in Kansas. This much is by way of introduction to the questions of the McVicker Family Properties.

Margaret E. McVicker's parents died in her early age and when she was 18 she came from her native ~~Waverly~~ Fayette County, Pennsylvania home to Iowa, where she had relatives in Muscatine, Keokuk, Washington and Butler Counties. She worked for several years at the millinery trade in places nearby her relatives and in 1875 she ~~was~~ married Norvel W. McVicker at Muscatine, Iowa. Her parents were well-to-do thrifty people and she had inherited enough resources with which to buy a home. So in 1876 she bought a property at Wilton Junction, Iowa, where the family lived until she later sold this place in 1898. ~~xxxxxxx~~ She was an excellent manager and upon ~~xxxx~~ the moving of the family to Sigourney in 1888 she planned to secure a home. Norvel W. McVicker was unable to assist in the financing of this. She began by degrees, buying 4 lots in Hogin's Addition to Sigourney, buying and moving a two room building thereon and adding another room, and not being able to mortgage the Wilton place for much financial assistance, nor to receive adequate rental for it throughout the years as it frequently stood vacant. Whereas, she paid $625.00 for ~~the~~ Wilton places in 1876, she finally sold it for about $208.00 as the actual proceeds of the sale. ~~Thisxxxxxxx~~ Of this sum she placed $200 in certificates of deposits which she entrusted to her cousin George Keefover, of near Keswick, Iowa for safe keeping until the return of James R. McVicker from military service. Upon his return from military service in 1899, ~~xxxx~~ the $200 in certificates of deposit were turned over to him, and on February 17, 1900, he cashed the said certificates receiving interest $8.00, thus bringing the Wilton property receipts total to $208.00. Against this sum was chargeable a ~~mortgage~~ note and mortgage amounting to $54 which JRM had paid Frank Bacon of Wilton in 1897, and medical accounts of Margaret E. McVicker of $14 to ~~JRM~~ Drs. Johnson & Pfannebecker and $75 to Dr. F.A. Strawbridge, which medical bills were paid ~~xxx~~ in full by JRM on . A further $10 TCD in favor of Margaret M. McV not proceeds of the Wilton property ~~xxxxxxx~~ is added bringing the total amount of the Cash personal Estate up to the sum of $218.00.

Margaret E. (Hill) McVicker Property Settlements (typed) [A00207-2]

Setting off the payment of the note and mortgage of F. Bacon of $54 added to the sum of the two medical accounts ~~xxxxxx~~ ~~xxxxxx~~ for services rendered to Margaret E. McVicker by Drs Johnson & Pfannebecker and Dr. F. A. Strawbridge, $89 in all, altogether amounts to $143.00, leaving only the sum of $75.00 as at all properly distributable to the 4 children as her heirs. Against this strictly distributable sum of $75.00 it is found that altogether $245 was in relativity paid to the three children of Margaret E. McVicker other than himself, and that he received no part of the cash Estate of Margaret E. McVicker or of the Wilton property real estate other than the reimbursement of the amount paid by him ~~xx~~ on account of the note and mortgage of Frank Bacon, amounting to $54. There was in fact paid by him to the three children as the heirs of Margaret E. McVicker, cash money, gifts, and advancements, as follows, at different times, and of motives only to be ~~xxxx~~ generous and to clear this matter up for all time and eternity, as well as for encouragement to each of them.

AND IN EXCESS OF,
STATEMENT OF SUMS PAID AS GIFTS SUBSTITUTED FOR MERE STRICT DISTRIBUTION

Dr ³	Total sum of cash personal property of Estate of Margaret E. McVicker	$218.00
Cr.	Credited by application to reimbursement for payment of Frank Bacon (Wilton, Iowa) note and mtg	54.00
Cr.	Credited by settlement payment of medical bill of Margaret E. McVicker due Drs. Johnson & Pfannebecker	14.00
Cr.	Credited by settlement payment of medical bill of Dr. F. A. Strawbridge	*75.00
	strictly	143.00
	Balance distributable $75.00 as of the personal Estate
	Amounts actually distributed by way of Gifts:
	To Harry S. McVicker	$120.00
	To Mabel A. Prolliar	75.00
	To Maude Hill McVicker	50.00
	Total to the 3 heirs	$245.00
	Amount to JRM as heir	NOTHING.

There was distrib'd to them considerably more than the whole cash pers'l estate--and retained y JRM othing.

It cannot be objected that the payment to HSM for return and deed of the 2 lots to him is not part of said personal estate--because there was no basis for deed said lots to him, no agreement to do so, no understanding to do so, but was done voluntarily after the whole property was quit claimed to JRM, but there was understanding that said two lots if disposed of by Harry should be sold to JRM at $50 each which was later done and when done payment of $1000 was made to Harry by JRM out of pocket.

No part of the other payments to the three was owed but were gifts by way of recouping them for any entitlement that they might have had for distribution of any sum, no matter how small such sum. In truth and in fact the 3 received not one fourths of $75, but altogether $170 in excess of any strict entitlements., ~~xxxx~~ ^{due} to them

Should equity or due fairness have gone any farther than to overpay them, help support them, and besides make further smaller gifts to them?

Capt. DUNCAN McVICKER (1739-1818)

The contiguity of ^{family and the} the descendants of James McCollum (1725-1800) and of James McVicker (1768-1852, son of Capt. Duncan McVicker, 1739-1818) living in the same vicinity in Monongalia County, West Virginia, since the latter part of the eighteenth century, lends strength to the mutual claim of ^{these families} these families originating so very long ago that there was a relationship through a marriage, ^{as a matter} ~~presumably~~ that of Capt. Duncan McVicker to Nancy McCollum. The marriage ^{affirmed} must have been in New Jersey long before. Just how Nancy McCollum was related to James McCollum would seem to have been through ^{his} his brothers in New Jersey. Probably, Nancy McCollum was a niece of James McCollum. How much of history ^{is} must be relied upon ^{based upon} based upon tradition and oral transmission in the circumstances of the ^{scarcity} scarcity and the ^{undiscoverability} undiscoverability of a written record; The name, Annie Laurie, may be the Christian name of Nancy McCollum, for which Nancy was a substituted name, like Betsy for Elizabeth, but this again is ^{speculative} speculative. In both ^{the cases} the names of Annie Laurie and of Jean McConnell, we are beset by names without indicia of family corroboration. ^{They stand as a question} to the record, but neither has left a mark in the family relationships ^{or recollections}. The name Annie Laurie stands as the certificate of a ^{completed} completed personal research in New Jersey but it would seem that it cannot be retraced or has not been after diligent effort. It is ^{therefore} therefore also open to the question as to whether the same ^{person} person Duncan McVicker is involved. The name Jean McConnell stands upon the authority of an indisputable and a verifiable record, but it is at once open to the question just stated.

The name Nancy McCollum has not been positively traced in records in New Jersey, but all indicia of relationships attend it. It has been long and positively claimed. The claim originates far back and naturally. Even tradition may be the best evidence of the record in such case. The matter of so many similar ^{given names} family names is significant. If challengeable, it seems not to be disproved and its force is cumulative by the indicia of relationships. It has been accepted long before any question arose, and it seems for far more than a century. For its rejection it would seem to require positive evidence disproving it. Tradition itself may be a record superior to an ^{unexplained} unexplained question based on a written record, for the written record must be clear, identifiable in its particulars and plainly verifiable. Otherwise, it may relate in its entirety to something else.

The writer holds no brief or preference for the name and would be glad to have evidence brought forth in all completeness. With all the facts as found, however, the great preponderance and establishment now is in the name of Nancy McCollum ^{as the} first and the one wife of ^{Capt. Duncan McVicker (1739-1818)} Capt. Duncan McVicker lived during the latter years of his life with the family of his son, Alexander McVicker (1773-1852) ^{in the home of the son on a farm near} Schellsburg, Bedford County, Pa. ^{His} grandson, Duncan McVicker (1799-1879) ^{has} transmitted the accounts related to him by the Captain, through his own grandson, Dr. Winters Duncan Hamaker (b. 1859), ^{as to the writer as previously stated.}

At one time earlier than this period of his living with the family of Alexander McVicker, Capt. Duncan McVicker was a resident on what was later known as the Baker farm in Harrison Township, Bedford County, Pennsylvania.

The writer has been made the custodian of the Family Bible of Alexander McVicker (1773-1852) through the family decision of Dr. Winters Duncan Hamaker and his son, Dr. Charles Townsend McVicker, of Pasadena, California. In the entries of this Family Bible record of Alexander McVicker (1773-1852), there is found, evidently in the handwriting of Alexander McVicker, the entry of ^{decease} ~~decease~~ as follows: "My Father, Duncan McVicker departed this life on Munday Morning the 19th of January 1818 Aged Seventy Nine years."

Capt. Duncan McVicker (1739-1818), sht 3 [A00208-2]

*3- Supplement
Capt. DUNCAN McVICKER (1739-1818)

- additional notes*

Nancy McCollum as the name of Capt. Duncan McVicker's wife, has been long, positively, and it seems continuously affirmed as an undisputed fact among descendants of the West Virginia branch of the family. Its currency has prevailed through several generations, claiming an origin in the first generation. The claim has received acceptance among the descendants and in the community of the early ~~relatives~~ progenitors of both the McVicker and the McCollum families, in West Virginia and in a region therein wherein as early as 1800 or before two sons of Duncan McVicker & the McC family established their residence and whose descendants have continued in an unbroken line among its citizens to this day.

All that is said by this writer is not in furtherance of any claim above another, but only in affirmation of the reasons for a reasonable belief. If other and additional evidence can be found, its application will be gladly welcomed by the writer. Facts cannot be foreclosed by reason of their former absence when they are newly discovered. But after long and fruitless search in an endeavor to eliminate or clear up conflicting theories the writer is called upon to state the preponderance in establishment of the seeming fact.

And thus the claim of Nancy McCollum ~~stands out clearly~~ as being the wife of Duncan McVicker stands out clearly over seeming inexplicable and irreconcilable conflict by the preponderance of the facts and reasons in its behalf. When we attempt (essay) the reconstruction of the historical facts in a family genealogy we are limited by the paucity of the record available, and while in this situation if we can only see through a gladd darkly nevertheless we should perhaps state what we think it is that we seem to see.

The writer holds no belief or preference for the name and would be glad to have evidence brought forth in all completeness. With all the facts as found, however, the great preponderance and establishment now in the name of Nancy McCollum (1739-1818) is the fact that she was the wife of Capt. Duncan McVicker during the latter years of his life with the family of his son, Alexander McVicker (1775-1832) in the home of the son on a farm near Shepherdstown, Bedford County, Pa. The grandson, Duncan McVicker (1798-1879) transmitted the accounts related to him by the Captain to his own grandson, Dr. Winters Duncan Hamaker (b. 1838), as to the writer. It is stated that at one time earlier than this period of his living with the family of Alexander McVicker, Capt. Duncan McVicker was a resident on what was later known as the Baker farm in Harrison Township, Bedford County, Pennsylvania.

The writer has been made the custodian of the Family Bible of Alexander McVicker (1775-1832) through the family donation of Dr. Winters Duncan Hamaker and his son, Dr. Charles Townsend Hamaker, of Pasadena, California. In the entries of this Family Bible record of Alexander McVicker (1775-1832), there is found a verbatim in the handwriting of Alexander McVicker, the entry of December as follows: "My father, Duncan McVicker, departed this life on Monday Morning the 18th of January 1818 Aged Seventy Nine years."

Capt. DUNCAN McVICKER (1739-1818)

The records and certificates of the Adjutant General of New Jersey show that Duncan McVicker was a Lieutenant (and acting Captain) in Col. Aaron Hankinson's Second Regiment Sussex County New Jersey Militia in the Continental service during the Revolutionary War.

Stryker's Official Register of the Officers and Men of New Jersey in the Revolutionary War (page 401) published 1872 shows Duncan McVicker as a Captain. Whether he was actually commissioned as a Captain or not in the New Jersey forces, it is testified that Duncan McVicker was a paymaster in Washington's army, James Madison McVicker (1808-1880) having often stated that his father James McVicker (1739-1832) often told him of seeing Duncan McVicker paying off the soldiers. ~~These records pertaining to his service in the Continental service were destroyed.~~ That Duncan McVicker served under Washington at Valley Forge is shown by the testimony of his grandson (Duncan McVicker 1799-1879) with whom he lived in his latter years in the same home on the farm of Alexander McVicker near Schellsburg, Bedford County, Pa., and which testimony has been transmitted to the writer by the grandson of the latter Duncan McVicker (Dr. Sisters Duncan Haacker, b. 1859) who lived in intimate contact with this grandfather (Duncan McVicker, 1799-1879) in the town of Schellsburg, Pennsylvania, during the first twenty years of his own life and well and distinctly remembers the frequent accounts related to him by his grandfather who was the grandson of Capt. Duncan McVicker. These accounts have been thus relayed to the writer in numerous letters and sketches written for him by Dr. Sisters Duncan Haacker. ~~It seems clear that there is a part of the service of Capt. Duncan McVicker in the Revolution not shown in the records of the Adjutant General of New Jersey which is not verified by the official records of the Government at Washington and explainable by the fact that when the British burned the Capitol at Washington during the War of 1812, very many of the records perished, doubtless including records of the Revolutionary War as well as those of the first census of the United States pertaining to several of the states including New Jersey.~~

Shortly after the close of the Revolution, Capt. Duncan McVicker with seven sons and probably three daughters since it is likely that his wife was deceased before the family removed from New Jersey, went from New Jersey to Bedford County, Pa. The U. S. Census for Bedford County Pennsylvania in 1790 shows the family of Duncan McVicker as consisting of 2 males over 16, 5 males under 16, and 3 females (probably daughters unless after all his wife be included). It is assumed that one of the 2 males over 16 includes Duncan McVicker as head of the family. Probably at that time one son was of age and away from home and so not of that particular enumeration. The militia enrollment of Loudon Berry Township, Bedford County, Pa., January 23, 1790 (Pa. Archives, 8th Series, Vol. III, pages 25-26) lists the following ~~inhabitants~~ inhabitants as "subject to the militia laws of this State": Duncan McVicker, Duncan McVicker Jr., John McVicker, James McVicker. In 1799, the ~~other~~ other sons were probably under the militia-subjected age, that is, Alexander McVicker (1773-1832), Joseph McVicker (1778-1864), Daniel McVicker, and David McVicker (died 1835).

Some of the brothers of James McCallum (1725-1800) are thought to have lived in the locality of Basking Ridge, in the North of Somerset County, New Jersey. There are some ten McCallum burials in a cemetery at Basking Ridge, ranging from the year 1790 to the year 1835. James McCallum, after his service in the Revolution and that of his son, Ensign Daniel McCallum (1794-1842), with him settled in Monongalia County, Virginia in a locality now in Preston County, having gone there from York County, Pa., where they lived subsequent to the time it is said that James McCallum lived in New Jersey after having previously lived in North Carolina. For these facts we are indebted to Judge John Marshall Hagens, (excepting those as to the burials at Basking Ridge) set out in his work, "McCallum."

Capt. Duncan McVicker lived the latter years of his life with the family of his son, Alexander McVicker (1773-1832), in the home of this son on a farm near Schellsburg, Bedford County, Pa. Alexander McVicker's wife was Jane (Taylor) McVicker (1774-1854) to whom he was married on August 29, 1797. Their children were: John McVicker (1798-1866), appointed Sheriff of Bedford County on October 2, 1842; Duncan McVicker (1799-1879), a resident and Justice of the Peace in Schellsburg, Bedford County, Pa.; Mary McVicker (1801-1850), who married Charles Dannaker.

The Captain's grandson, Duncan McVicker (1799-1818), was married to Salome Minnick (1814-1876) on September 15, 1836, and they had two children: Sarah Jane McVicker (1837-1922), who married Adam P. Hamaker (1851-1875); and George Alexander McVicker (1841-1886), who became City Treasurer of Des Moines, Iowa, and served as Auditor of Polk County, Iowa.

The children of Adam P. Hamaker (1851-1875) and Sarah Jane (McVicker) Hamaker (1837-1922) were: Duncan McVicker Hamaker (1858-1860); Dr. Winters Duncan Hamaker (b. 1859), graduate of Washington and Jefferson College and of the University of Pennsylvania College of Medicine and who served as a member of the Pennsylvania State Board of Medical Examiners, 1895 to 1912, and as Secretary of said Board, 1907 to 1912, and now residing at Pasadena, California, with his son, Dr. Charles Townsend Hamaker (b. 1888); and the one daughter, Ida Rosanna Hamaker (b. 1861), who made her home with her mother, Sarah Jane (McVicker) Hamaker at Washington, D. C., until the death of the latter in 1922, and has since resided there.

Dr. Winters Duncan Hamaker, great-great grandson of Capt. Duncan McVicker (1739-1818), was married to Elizabeth Gray Townsend (1861-1926) on June 2, 1887, and they had two children, sons: Dr. Charles Townsend Hamaker (b. 1888, at Meadville, Pa., graduate of the Peekskill Military Academy (N.Y.) and of the University of Pennsylvania College of Medicine, who served under the War Department of the United States and by its orders as Medical Officer in the British First Army at the Front in France, 1917-1919, and was honorably discharged in the United States 1919 with the grade of Captain, and since then has practiced medicine; Dr. Edward McVicker Hamaker (1890-1915), a young physician who died May 15, 1915; besides these two sons, another son and a daughter were born who are both deceased.

Capt. Duncan McVicker's grandson, Duncan McVicker (1799-1879), handed on the accounts told to him by the Captain (his grandfather) to his own grandson, Dr. Winters Duncan Hamaker. The two Duncans had lived in the same home, that of the younger Duncan McVicker's parents for many years until the death of the elder Duncan McVicker and when the younger Duncan McVicker (his grandson) was nearing his majority. This was the formative period in the life of the young Duncan when he was greatly interested in his grandfather's accounts of his service in the Revolutionary War. He always remembered these narrations, and he enjoyed repeating his recollections of them to his own grandson, Dr. Winters Duncan Hamaker, who by the singular circumstances also lived in close contact with his grandfather Duncan McVicker (1799-1879) for the like formative period until 1879 when the grandfather died. Thus during the first twenty years of his own life Dr. Winters Duncan Hamaker enjoyed the very interesting experience of having retold to him the recollections of a Revolutionary soldier by his grandfather as personally told to that grandfather by his own grandfather who was the soldier himself.

At one time which was earlier than this period of his living with the family of his son Alexander McVicker, Capt. Duncan McVicker, from New Jersey, was an early resident of what is now the Baker farm in Harrison Township, Bedford County, Pa. (History of Bedford County Pennsylvania, 1884, page 362). Harrison Township was formed from a part of Napier Township in 1842; Napier Township was organized from a part of Bedford Township in 1812. Bedford Township was originally very extensive.
