Dear Uncle

Enclosed, as directed, is your note against Davis. I have made an order in favor of Mr Lingley, the bearer, which you will accept if you please. This you will find count for the balance due me by examining the statement herein written.

Mr Lingley, will also present you an order or demand against Joseph for goods sold him. These appear to be necessary and there is now doubt, but payment is fairly and honestly due.

Nothing worthy of particular note hath occurred since you left us. There are a few small debts due from Joseph at present not ascertained wherever certain evidence can be obtained I will give you notice.

Yours
E T Warren
