FLINT GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY MEETING MINUTES

DATE: Tuesday, December 4, 2012, at 6:00 P.M. at the Historic Whaley House in Flint, Michigan.

There was no business meeting.

Society Members toured the house and enjoyed the ambiance and extensive Christmas decorations in every room. It was a festive atmosphere. David Barkey was on hand to answer all questions about the house and the Whaley family who built it and lived in it.

The dining room table was beautifully decorated and spread with desserts. Members gathered there to visit and to enjoy the delicious refreshments that had been provided by Dennis Elston, Marlo Davidson, Della Gamalski and Joyce McClintock. We thank them for making the evening such a special occasion reminiscent of Christmases from the past.

We thank Dave Barkey for hosting our Christmas meeting at the Whaley House and for sharing with us his vast knowledge of its history and the life of the very prominent family who lived in the house.

Respectfully submitted,

Norma Winters,
Secretary
