

GALLATIN COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY MINUTES

May 9, 2015

The Gallatin County Genealogical Society met at 11:00 a.m. in the large meeting room at the Bozeman Public Library. There were 20 people in attendance. Mary Beth Green was introduced as a guest at the meeting.

Tricia Thompson explained how to access North Carolina Bible Records in the 5 minute database segment.

Secretary's Report: Katherine Attebury moved that the minutes from the April meeting be approved. Jeri Devine seconded, and the motion was passed.

Treasurer's Report: Norma Ardeson reported that the Society has $882.28.

Project Manager's Report: Tricia Thompson reported that there are now 110,700 indexed records on the Society's Web Site.

Membership Report: Karen Maika reported that there are currently 46 members in the Society.

Webmaster's Report: The web site has now been updated with all 110,700 indexed records.

The door prize consisting of 1 hour of research time with Tricia Thompson was won by Karen Maika.

New Business: Lindy Bunch moved to keep the current slate of officers the same for the 2015-2016 year. Dee Seitel seconded, and the motion was passed.

Officers are as follows:

President: Bonnie Jackson

Vice President: Karen Maika

Treasurer: Norma Ardeson

Secretary: Linda Gengenbacher

Project Manager: Tricia Thompson

Webmaster: Jenn Vieth

State Liaison: Carol Elliott

The meetings for the coming year will be at the Library, except for the November meeting. Before adjourning the meeting to enjoy cake and punch to celebrate the 3rd Birthday of the Society, everyone present had the opportunity to share some personal genealogy success stories.

Respectfully Submitted, Linda Gengenbacher, Secretary
