The map is a section of modern day Yancey Co., NC. The purple box marks the location of the 200 acres of Henry “Harry” Hensley and Barbara Angel’s property on Bald Mountain Creek in the Cane River area. The star marks the location of the Hensley Cemetery in Bee Log where Henry “Harry” Hensley’s marker is placed. The green diamond in the upper left corner on the Tennessee side represents the location where William A. Hensley and family moved to in the late 1840’s along with his mother Barbara Angel-Hensley and sister Zania, and marks the location of the Old Hensley Cemetery where they are interred.

Source of map: Polaris Cartography, Yancey County Chamber of Commerce.