Membership Application

Located in the historic Parker Depot Store, the Goffstown Historical Society holds an extensive collection of artifacts, documents, and photographs commemorating the history of Goffstown. The Society offers a series of programs, lectures, and events that celebrate Goffstown's past, and the museum is open to the public on Saturday afternoons in the summer and fall months.

Members of the Society receive special notification of all events, semiannual newsletters, and the Annual Yearbook. Meetings are held on the third Monday of the month in April, May, June, September, and October. The membership year runs from April to March.
