Tanya Kirk

Well the year is half over and while we continue to adapt our lives to this 'new reality' it makes for very little news on the Society's doings.

However, if you were wondering, the church has not yet opened up its hall for rental or meetings so it will be a while yet before we can make any announcements regarding the next meeting. Since the average age of our membership puts many of us in the high risk category this is probably just as well.

Most of you will be aware that the State Archives has reopened and so it is possible to make appointments to head in for some research time.

Archives Bookings: https://www.records.nsw.gov.au/archives/plan-your-visit?mc_cid=31f39c2e92&mc_eid=%5bUNIQID%5d&mc_cid=31f39c2e92&mc_eid=a6eb0f3841

Unfortunately the Library is still closed for research purposes unless you have online access from home.

Who Are We?

Unfortunately, no one has sent me any contributions for this segment so I guess it won't be continuing. However I am still happy to include you if you send me a brief bio piece. (tanya2fbr@gmail.com)

Online Research

The National Archives in London (<https://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk>) are making digital records available on their website free of charge for as long as the Kew site is closed to visitors.

Explorer's Tree Magazine

Thank you to Rhonda, John and Ian for our recent edition. I'm sure we've all found the range of reading interesting. Don't forget that the Explorers Tree couldn't happen without some effort on our part as well. Keep those written pieces flowing in to Rhonda. rwflowers@optusnet.com.au

Just for Fun
