

THE FAMILYSEARCH PROGRAM: ITS USES AND MEANING – UNEDITED VERSION
by Scott Andrew Bartley

- I. Introduction
- II. Search Records – Advanced Search
  - A. Ancestral File (submitter)
  - B. Census (1880 and 1881)
  - C. International Genealogical Index (Lanphear and Mary Winslow in Me. examples)
  - D. Pedigree Resource File (Bartley example)
  - E. U.S. Social Security Death Index (James Bartley example)
  - F. Vital Records Index (Mexico and Scandinavia only)
  - G. Search Family History Web Sites
- III. Search Records – Library Catalog
  - A. Place (show related places; example New York – Census – Onondaga)
  - B. Surname
  - C. Title (Tree Talks)
  - D. Author
  - E. Discuss other searches
- IV. Search Records – Historical Books
  - A. Search example: “genealogical register descendants thomas flint” (2nd option)
Search: lamph* (not in index)
- V. Search Records – Record Search Pilot
  - A. Main search screen (takes a moment to load program)
  - B. Browsing – selecting record – About this Collection
Mass. Deaths example – Dwight Lamphere – note parent listings (Delight)
  - C. New York Passenger Lists (Ellis Island – Richard Bartley example)
  - D. New York Marriages – read Wiki
  - E. New York Census, 1892 (missing Onondaga) – Dresden example
- V. Questions and Answers