Death Announcements (D to G), London Times

Garnett	George	News has been received from Georgetown, British Guiana, of the death of Mr. George Garnett, C.M.G. Mr. Garnett, who was born at Seaforth, Lancashire, in 1859, was educated at Wellington college, and received a business training with the Liverpool firm of Brown, Shipley, and Co. He later became a partner in the firms of Alex. Garnett and Co. of Liverpool, and Gernett and Co., of Georgetown, Demerara. On going out to British Guiana he soon made his mark in the Colony. He was elected Financial Representative for Demerara in 1901 and member of the Court of Policy five years later, rising eventually to the responsible position of member of the Executive Council. He was chairman of the local directorate of the Demerara Railway company and of the British Guiana Medical Assurance Company, and deputy-chairman of Sprostone (Limited), and the oldest member of the Central Board of health, now the Local Government board. Mr. Garnett was largely interested in the balata and rice industries in the colony. He represented the colony on the occasion of the Coronation of King George.	1913	Apr	15
