

THE SILENT CITY OF THE DEAD

List of Interments Made at Lowville Rural Cemetery

Since Its Dedication, October 9, 1867.

James L. Leonard bought a part of the land which comprises Lowville Rural cemetery and gave the same by will to the association. A meeting for legal organization of the association was appointed for the evening of January 26, 1867, but a little before the hour fixed for business Mr. Leonard died. It was at first thought best to postpone the meeting, but on further reflection it was decided to honor his memory, at that solemn hour, by carrying into effect a measure that he had so much cherished in life. To the land presented by Mr. Leonard (about eleven acres) the association has added ten acres bought from Charles S. Rice, three and one-half acres bought from George Jackson, and a small piece bought from Morris D. Moore.

Those present at the first meeting for organization were DeWitt C. West, Rev. John Bailey, Ellida S. Merrell, Norman Gowdy, Rutson Rea, Hiram S. Lanpher, W. Hudson Stephens, James V. Miller, DeWitt C. Finch, Cornelius E. Stephens, Henry Hartford, John Conover, Isaac Puffer, Dr. Franklin B. Hough, Louis Scott, Charles D. Adams, William Haswell, Henry E. Turner, Frank B. Moore.

Articles of incorporation were filed January 28, 1867, the first trustees being: Dr. Franklin B. Hough, Charles D. Adams, Dr. J. Carroll House, Elida S. Merrell, DeWitt C. West, Hiram S. Lanpher, Charles H. Curtis, Norman Gowdy, John Dolg, George D. Brown, Rutson Rea, Charles D. Boshart. Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. Franklin B. Hough; treasurer, Rutson Rea; secretary, Dr. J. Carroll House.

The cemetery was dedicated October 9, 1867, the Rev. John B. Foot delivering the principal address. Following is a list of interments made since that date, the same being compiled from the cemetery association book of records, which gives the date of interment, but not the date of death. There appears to be a break in the records from 1873 to 1884, but we give the complete list as recorded, the same including removals from other cemeteries:
