Charles H. F. Cary.

CHARLES H. F. CARY, son of James and Mary Cary, was born in this city Feb. 6, 1866, in the house No. 19 Hill Street. Mr. Cary has always lived in Troy. At the Christian Brothers' Academy he received a splendid education. April 29, 1886, he was admitted to partnership with his father in the undertaking business. Their warerooms are located at No. 227 Fourth Street. While in no way abandoning his interest in the undertaking business, Mr. Cary embarked in the retail boot and shoe trade at No. 231 Fourth Street on July 29, 1889. In both his business ventures Mr. Cary has achieved conspicuous success. He is a member of the Edward Murphy, Jr., Association, and is the marshal of that organization. On February 11, 1889, he was married to Miss Kittie Welch, an accomplished young lady, who has been to him a wise counselor and conservative guide.
