

James J. Duffy.

James J. Duffy.

JAMES J. DUFFY, son of James Duffy and Ellen McEncrow, was born in this city December 25, 1855. With the exception of four years, ending 1876, when he resided in St. Louis, Mr. Duffy has always resided in Troy. He was educated at the Christian Brothers' Academy. For four years he was agent for Coleman Bros., the Albany brewers. At present he is in the wholesale liquor business in this city. He is a member of the Pilsner Club, the W. S. Earl Boat Club, the A. O. H., the Emeralds, and Olympic Council, C. B. L. Mr. Duffy is married, his wife being Miss Jennie McEntire, of Brooklyn. They have three children, Nellie, aged 8; James, aged 6, and Mary, aged 4 years.

L. H. L.