John P. Powers.

JOHN PATRICK POWERS was born in Oneida, N. Y., July 22, 1855. His father was Patrick Powers and his mother Mary Dunlay. The Powers family moved to Troy twenty-one years ago and here John has ever since made his home. He was educated at the Brothers' Academy and was then apprenticed to learn the trade of a compositor in the office of the Troy Press. Having learned the trade he worked for a time on the Standard. Eleven years ago he quit the "case" and became book-keeper in the Press counting room. For three years he served as a clerk in the office of the State Board of Arbitration. For three years he was the efficient and enterprising manager of Rand's Opera House. He has been connected with a number of theatrical ventures. At present he is treasurer of the Griswold Opera House. He was a member of the Y. M. F. M. T. A. B. Society for twelve years. He is a member of the Edward Murphy, Jr., Association. Mr. Powers is married and has two bright children. His wife was Miss Mary McDonnell.
