

Westwood Country Club Membership in 1922

In 1908, a group of businessmen calling themselves "The Westwood Club" longed for a challenging course on Cleveland's west side, where they could "put on our comfortable togs and play a round of golf, or, when we like, put on our best clothes and have a real party." This group of founding fathers included John Zangerle, Mortimer J. Weber, John Crider, John Hinz, Robert Reid, and John Kerlin.

The Westwood Country Club Co. was incorporated on December 13, 1914.
22625 Detroit Road, Rocky River, Ohio

The original golf course property was completely redesigned by Major Charles Hugh Alison, one of the foremost golf course architects of the day. The course was finished in June 1926 and used for the first time in the State Tournament of that year. What began as a dream among a handful of golfers 100 Years ago is today considered one of the finest country clubs in northeast Ohio.
