

ALBERT OSBORN BARNES

Was born November 26, 1843, at Deersville, Harrison County, Ohio. Is the son of Dr. James P. Barnes and Eliza Houser Barnes, and the last survivor of a family of ten children. Attended village school till 15. Clerk-ed in store till 16, began teaching and continued till 1870. After two years of outdoor employment, resumed teaching and taught ten years in Freeport, read law and was admitted to the Bar in 1882. Moved to Cadiz in 1883, and has ever since resided here actively engaged in the practice of law. Is at present City Solicitor. Has always been an active Democrat, strong and popular with his party, who have honored him with nominations for such high offices as the Judge of Probate, Common Pleas and Circuit Judge and member of Congress. The "Judge" has always received unusually large votes, but his party being in the minority, he has never filled the high positions for which he is so ably qualified.

JUDGE JOHN B. WORLEY

Is a native of the county, son of Daniel and Mary (Goodwin) Worley, and was born on a farm in Athens township, February 4, 1863. Educated in the district school. Taught for a while and worked on the farm. Graduated from Franklin College and taught for one year. Then spent the summer of '88 in Kansas. Began the study of law under Judge Walter G. Shotwell and was admitted to the Bar in June, 1891. Began practice in Zanesville, but returned to Cadiz after a year, and has lived here ever since. Elected Mayor in 1896; appointed referee in bankruptcy for Harrison County in 1898; resigned to accept the office of Probate Judge, to which he was elected in 1899. Served two terms and then formed a partnership with Hon. David A. Hollingsworth, Ex-Attorney General, and now a member of Congress. Judge Worley stands high as lawyer and jurist. Is an ardent Republican, an elder in the United Presbyterian church, and regarded as one of the high minded, progressive citizens of Harrison county.

PRESTON M. SHARP, D. D. S.

This gentleman is one of the most successful and popular dentists of Cadiz. He is a native of the county, son of Dr. W. T. and Elizabeth Sharp. His education was obtained in the Cadiz public schools and in the New York College of Dentistry, graduating therefrom in 1887 with degree of D. D. S. Practiced one year in New York City, then returned to Cadiz and ever since has been here enjoying a large practice and the confidence of the community. Doctor Sharp married Ada Louise Crew and four children, George Preston, Helen Crew, William T. and Virginia Carnahan, bless the union. Dr. Sharp takes an interest in the affairs of the city. Has served on the School Board and is prominent as a Mason, as well as in the social and religious life of the town.

W. C. NICOLLS

Contractor and Builder of All Kinds of Concrete and Cement Work.

This gentleman is a native of Bloomington, Ill., where he was born November 28, 1877. He located in Springfield, Ill., and engaged in the constructing and cement business. During his residence there he constructed many of the pretty concrete homes of that city, as well as doing a large amount of other work. He is now located in Cadiz and prepared to do all kinds of cement work. He will be glad to furnish estimates for foundations, sidewalks, driveways, hitching posts, cellar floors, artistic porch or portico work, steps, etc. Mr. Nicolls is an expert in his line and make prices as low as is consistent with first-class work.

HON. SAMUEL B. MCGAVRAN, M. D.

The subject of this sketch may easily be ranked among the leading physicians of the county, and is today one of its most prominent and public spirited citizens. He is the son of William H. and Elizabeth (Brown) McGavran and was born near Conotton, Harrison County, November 25, 1847. His early education was obtained in the district schools and in Hagerstown Academy. Having to rely mainly on his own resources, he taught school five years to secure funds to defray a college course. He then entered Scio, graduated in 1869, and began the study of Medicine. In 1870 he entered Cleveland, (Ohio) Medical College, and in 1872 graduated with the degree of Doctor of Medicine, and with such high honors as to win the valedictorian of his class. He began practice in Bowers-ton and continued with great success till December, 1882, when he removed to Cadiz. He enjoys a large practice as well as the confidence of the community, both as physician and citizen.

HON. R. H. MINTER

Born in Hopedale, Ohio, January 3, 1870, admitted to the Bar in 1894, commenced to practice law in Cadiz, Ohio, 1896; married Elizabeth Stewart of Sewickley, Pa., 1901, and was elected a member of the House of Representatives from Harrison County in 1905, and served in the regular session of 1906. He is still practicing law at Cadiz.

Doctor McGavran is among the first to advance every enterprise for the benefit of the town and county, and has endeared himself to the people because of his many acts of charity and philanthropy. August, 1872, he married Miss Jennie E. Johnson, of Carroll County, and four children, Mary (Mrs. C. H. Judkins), Charles, Francis and George, bless the union. Doctor McGavran is a staunch Republican. In 1882 and again in 1883, he represented the county in the legislature. He served on many of the committees with great fidelity and his work was highly commended. He has served on the pension board. Is a member and elder of the First Presbyterian church and a man of many and varied attainments beyond his knowledge of materia medica. His "History of Harrison County," published on the occasion of the laying

FRANK H. ATKINSON

This gentleman is a native of the county and as early as 1865 had a drug store in Cadiz, and it is now more than twenty years since he also opened a grocery store. Since that time he has carried on this business with marked success, gaining a reputation of having the "Quality" store of Cadiz. About one year and a half ago he again embarked in the drug business, opening a first class pharmacy adjoining the grocery, and both now occupy ample quarters in the Harrison National Bank building. Mr. Atkinson's previous experience as a druggist entitles him to be classed in the ranks of the expert pharmacists. His knowledge enables him to know the best and purest drugs and where to obtain them. He is a careful and exact compounder and the prescription department is in able hands. Mr. Atkinson's stores are among the attractive places of the city and no better quality of goods are to be found.

of the corner stone of the new court house in 1894, is a work in which much valuable information is put into a small compass. It shows, however, painstaking research and great fidelity to facts, as well as betraying the doctor's fine literary ability.

RUPERT R. BEETHAM

Attorney-at-Law and Postmaster of Cadiz

Is a native of Trumbull County Ohio, the son of Rev. John B. and Mary Beetham, and was born in Greensburg in 1877. Educated in public school and graduated from Cant (Ohio) High School. Attended College and then entered the law department of the Ohio State University, graduating in 1900. Mr. Beetham first came to Cadiz in 1897, to school in Short Creek and at law. On leaving the university located in Cadiz and began the tice of law. Was appointed post-ter in 1906. Under his administration the new postoffice has been built city free delivery inaugurated 1900 he was married to Miss McLaughlin, daughter of Hon. S. K. McLaughlin. One daughter, Mary Isabella, and two sons, Samuel K. and Rupert R., bless the union. Mr. Beetham is an ardent Republican and an active, public spirited citizen.