

Wed April 13

Beautiful day. The sun rose bright and clear and shone in our room making everything appear cheerful. The Dr. is a good jolly fellow and I think knows his business. The first train crossed today on the new bridge across the Tennessee.

Thurs. April 14

J. W. Trago brought my gun blanket this A.M. John Swalt and George Stewart were here to see me this P.M.

Fri. April 15

Sat. April 16

This has been a bustling day here. 11 patients were sent from this ward to Chattanooga. 11 remain.

Sab. April 17

Mon. April 18

3rd Brigade started for Murfreesboro.

Tues. April 19

Got a friend to write home for me. Patients are coming in daily. Mostly convalescent. Troops are marching through here and a great many cannot keep up. The 4th Army Corp has moved from here towards Chattanooga.

Wed. April 20

So some convalescents were sent to their Regts. today.

Thurs. April 21

Fri. April 22

This morning 5 of us were sent from Loudon to Chattanooga on hospital train. Arrived at dusk but did not get off until morning.

Sat. April 23

We were brought to Hospital No. 1 which is situated on a high and commanding hill.

Sun. April 24

Wrote a few lines home. Also one to Mr. F. Gladden.

Mon. April 25

Tues. April 26

Wed. April 27

Got a letter written to Lieut. T.R. Smith.

Thurs April 28

Fri. April 29

Sat. April 30

Sun. May 1

Mon. May 2