J.P. and Sarah came to Mills County from Bell County probably around 1879. They had a son, Thomas, born March 20, 1874. He died September 8, 1875. On September 25, 1875, a little girl, Mary, was born to them. On April 20, 1877, another little girl, Nora, was born, but died August 19, 1878. J. P., Sarah, and Mary wanted to go back to Bell County for a visit. While there, tragedy struck again. Mary developed whooping cough and died October 30, 1880. All three of these small children are buried in the Moffat Cemetery, which Irene Franklin, the Huchingson's granddaughter, was able to find on August 11, 1997. When J.P. and Sarah left Bell County to return to their home in Mills County, they had no children. But God blessed them with four more children, William Payton, Minnie, Edna, and Sadie - Irene's mother. Their home was a farm between Center City and Star, some thirteen miles east of Goldthwaite. This was the birth place of their youngest daughter, Sadie Bell Huchingson, and would also become the birth place of Sadie's daughter, Edith Irene Davis.

Mrs. C. H. Miles

Mrs. C. H. Miles died suddenly at her family home in Caradan community Thursday afternoon. She had not been ill and at the time of her death she and her husband were seated on the gallery at their home, when she suddenly expired. Only a few days ago she and Rev. Miles returned from a visit to relatives in the southern part of the state and she was apparently in good health. There was no one at the house to give assistance to the bereaved husband and he kept the silent watch for several hours alone until neighbors learned of the sad occurrence and gave help and comfort to him.

Mrs. Miles was a devout Christian and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her and her death was a great shock to the friends and neighbors of the family and carried grief to many hearts.

They have conflicting marriage information of 31 Oct 1872 and Moffat, Bell County, Texas.⁷²

Charles was listed in his father's household in the 1850 and 1860 census. Couldn't locate him on his own in the 1870 census. By the time of the 1880 census, he had been in Texas at least 8 years (He married in Texas and that's where his children were born.) He had 3 daughters. He was a farmer in Hamilton County. He was listed in Mills County, Texas, in the 1900 census. This may not have been a move because Mills was formed out of Hamilton County in 1887. He was farming and owned his farm free of any mortgage. Only his youngest two children were still at home. Charles was widowed by the time of the 1910 census. His occupation was shown as minister, preaching the gospel. His youngest son Harvey C. and the son's wife Beulah were living with him in Mills County, Texas. By the 1920 and 1930 census, Charles was living with widowed daughter Sarah Batchelor. The informant on his death certificate was son in law, E. A. Obenhaus.

Alice married Rev Calvin Madison Head,^{165,166,167,168,169,170,171} son of James Blakely Head^{173,174,175,176,177,178,179} and Asenath Catherine Baker,^{176,177,178,180} on 10 Oct 1894 in Center City, Mills County, Texas.¹⁷² Calvin was born on 13 Feb 1874 in Alvarado, Johnson County, Texas,^{181,182} died on 13 Apr 1954 in Brownwood, Brown County, Texas^{181,183} at age 80, and was buried in Center City Cemetery, Center City, Mills County, Texas.^{181,184} They had 15 children: Lela Maggie, Faira Madison, Louisa Alice, Annie Laura, Tommie Calvin, Mary Jane, Ora Ethel, Alison Asbury, Mattie Francis, Samuel Jackson, Charles Aubrey, Sadie Ozella, Edward Arnold, Woodrow Wilson, and Eldridge Truitt.

Rev. D. I. Haralson performed the marriage ceremony.

Calvin moved his family to Scurry County in the summer of 1898 along with Cannie C. Ellis. He moved back to Mills County in January 1900 and settled on the McMahan Place. At the time of the 1900 census, he was a farmer in Mills County, Texas, and rented his land. In 1902 he was baptized and united with the North Bennett Baptist Church. In 1903 he sold his place to Cannie Ellis, and bought another place 4 miles away. At the time of the 1910 census, he was a farmer in Mills County, Texas, and owned his land.

When he registered for the WWI draft on 12 Sep 1918, he was a farmer and merchant in Center City, Mills County, Texas. His nearest relative was his wife, Alice Bula (sp). He was shown as medium height and medium build. At the time of the 1920 census, he was a farmer in Mills County, Texas, and owned his land. At the time of the 1930 census, he was a retail merchant, groceries in Mills County, Texas. On the 1940 census, Calvin reported no occupation. He was still living on his farm in Center City, Mills County, Texas. The three youngest sons were still at home, Edward A., Woodrow W., and Eldridge T. (shown as George T.) His wife gave the report. The farm was listed as being worked by Edward. Woodrow had income from odd jobs.

It was a common belief in the community that a survey was made at one time and that Center City was declared the center of the State of Texas with the historical old live oak tree representing the living marker. The first post office opened June 4, 1877. Later it was combined with a grocery store. (The store was once known as "Hughes Store". Calvin Head bought the store from Tom Beck. Head sold it to R. G. Hendry.) The post office was discontinued on August 31, 1920 with Calvin Head as the last postmaster. The old live oak stands in front of the old post office building.^{170,185}

DALLAS-- On Monday, April 3, 2006, Robert Bruce Cranford left us to play ball with the Lord. Bruce was born June 19, 1961, to Aaron and Maryanne Cranford. Bruce was very active in sports growing up. He lettered in three sports in high school: football, basketball and baseball. He was a graduate of Angelo State University. On his time away from school, Bruce shared his love of sports by coaching the Grape Creek Packers. They enjoyed lots of success under his leadership. After leaving San Angelo, he settled in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. He took a job with the United States government, where he worked for 19 years at the Department of Labor. Living in the Metroplex as a single father was a perfect opportunity for Bruce to continue sharing his love of sports. With his son, Tyler, at his side, Bruce coached basketball for the YMCA. As Tyler grew older, they moved from basketball to Bruce's true love, baseball. Together, they had several winning seasons with the Arlington Travelers. For the past 22 years that Bruce had lived in the Metroplex, there was one thing that he did without fail. He made every home opener of the Texas Rangers. This year was no different. He was not able to make it in person, but the call of the "Play ball!" was so strong that he had to go in spirit. Bruce will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, Bonnie Buttolph-Cranford; son Tyler Cranford; daughters Shannon Cranford and Jena Cranford; grandmother Joyce "Mama" Arnold; father and stepmother Aaron and Marilyn Cranford; sister Stacey Shepherd and husband Jeff Shepherd; three brothers, Del Cranford, Layne Cranford and Kelly Cranford; uncle Mike "Stubby" Arnold; and aunt and uncle Janell and Dennis Burk. He had one nephew, four nieces and scores of cousins and friends. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Russell Arnold; grandparents D.A. Roe and Jean B. Roe; and his mother, Maryanne Roe Cranford. Memorial service will be at 2 p.m. Saturday, April 15, at the Northland Christian Church, 9949 McCree Road, Dallas, TX 75238. Memorial donations may be made to the Little League organization of your choice

From Elvin Head, MM-2c (1944)

Dearest Folks:

I received a letter from you today written July 8. Sure was glad to get it. I have been getting some nice letters from you quite often, but haven't had time to answer them. I have written one letter since I sent you the money and I wrote it to Mary. They gave me today to rest up so I started this morning by doing a big washing. Some rest, hah!

I received the letter from Billy that you mentioned about 3 or 4 days ago, but haven't had time to answer it. I'm sure glad he is doing all right and maybe it will be over with before he has to come over here.

I saw E. C. Hughes in New Caledonia and yelled at him and he recognized my face, but I don't think he knew quite who I was. He was working there. I was on a ship at the time.

I received a letter from Geneva Stewart with a picture of her in her graduation gown and cap. She sure has changed a lot. Favors her mother a lot, too. I told her in my last letter to tell J.D. to come out here and fish,

The people here are natives. Tonganese and some Melanians. Black head hunters, too. B:r-r

I guess I will close for now. There isn't anything I need yet. When I need something I'll holler. So long for now and good luck to all. Love always!

FindAGrave: Memorial# 49970310.

Mattie married Early Talmage Chapman,^{660,663,664} son of Robert Seymour Chapman and Sarah Elizabeth Denman, in 1925.⁶⁶⁵ Early was born on 13 Aug 1897 in Georgetown, Williamson County, Texas,^{666,667} died on 19 Jan 1964 in Waco, McLennan County, Texas^{667,668,669} at age 66, and was buried on 22 Jan 1964 in Center City Cemetery, Center City, Mills County, Texas.^{667,670} They had three children: Early Talmage, Billy Ray, and Albert Edward.

Talmage's parents were Robert Seymour Chapman and Sarah Elizabeth Denman. The family was living in Williamson County, Texas, in 1900, and in Robertson County, Texas, in 1910 and 1920, although Talmage wasn't listed with them in 1920. When he registered for the WWI draft on 24 Aug 1918, he said he was self-employed in Franklin, Robertson County, Texas. He listed his mother in Wheelock, Robertson County, Texas, as his nearest relative. His parents were in Mills County, Texas, in 1930. The 1930 census shows Talmage Chapman's occupation as salesman-medicine. He was renting his home in Mills County, Texas.

Most legal documents carry him as Talmage Chapman. Social Security card was issued in the name of Early Chapman. E.J. Chapman was used on Albert's birth record. I am convinced this was transcribed wrong and should be E. T. Chapman.--Rose Lee Wall 2009

Talmage may have gone to California with his sons after Mattie died. He returned and spent the last 19 years of his life in Waco, McLennan County, Texas. His occupation was shown as operator-owner of a grocery store on the death certificate. Mattie C. Sullins was the informant.

The California Death Index differs on the birth date by one day from the Social Security Death Index. I trust the SSDI on this.

Woodrow Wilson Head^{787,788,789,790} was born on 15 Nov 1918 in Center City, Mills County, Texas⁷⁹¹ and died on 1 Aug 2017 in Granbury, Hood County, Texas at age 98.

At the time of the 1940 census, Woodrow was living in Center City, Mills County, Texas with his parents and 2 youngest brothers. He was a common laborer with odd jobs earning $260 in the previous year. Woodrow's WWII National Guard enlistment record showed that he had 4 years of high school. He was single, without dependents. He lived in Brown County, Texas.

Excerpt from newspaper 1945:

Employed on the construction gang in Camp Bowie for some time, he entered the service June 13, 1940 and received his training at Camp Bowie. For two years and seven months he was with the 36th Division, then transferred into the Infantry of the 1st Division. Woodrow went across with the 1st and was in the European Theatre of Operations for thirty-four and one-half months.

Besides the regular experiences of sea sickness and being very crowded on the ship after sailing August 2, 1942, they had added to their troubles several air raids and submarine raids.

A veteran of four hundred days of combat, he was in on the Tunisian Campaign, the Battle of Oran, and the Invasion of Sicily, and France; thus serving with the Allied troops in the countries of Africa, Sicily, France, Germany, Czechoslovakia and Belgium. He is the holder of the E.T.O. with 8 campaign stars and the Bronze Star, which he won in Africa for meritorious action.

During the Normandy Invasion, Woodrow was in the Floating Reserve and they started to land on the beach about noon June 6 and after seven attempts they finally succeeded and lost many men by the high waters. The order came to advance on to a small village which was to be occupied by the Allied troops, so they started through the town. When they were practically through it the hidden Germans opened fire on the rear of their lines and thus they were trapped behind enemy lines. During the night they went around the town and slipped back to their lines and then started back through the village and were successful.

Landing back in the states, June 12, 1945, he received his discharge June 21, 1945, and is planning on buying a home through the G.I. Bill of Rights.

His wife, the former Miss Margaret Snodgrass of Arlington Heights, and their three year old son, Woodrow W. Head, Jr., are now residing here in the city until Mr. Head has completed his plans of a home.

He was living in Granbury, Texas, in 1984.

NORTH BENNETT

Our community was made sad when the news came forth that the Death Angel had claimed our friend and neighbor, Mr. C. C. Ellis. He certainly will be missed, as he was one of our very best citizens--one that was ever ready to upbuild the community, the church, school and everything that pertained to the good of the community. The Goldthwaite Eagle, 31 Oct 1925

IN MEMORY OF OUR DEAR BROTHER C. C. ELLIS

I came to Mills county in 1909. Shortly after I came I met my beloved friend and brother C. C. Ellis. The more I was associated with him the more I loved him. He was a consistent Christian, and always put into practice that command Christ gave when he said, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

I have worked in the field with him and I always found him to do what he believed right. In 1909 I worked his land, and during that time I had many business transactions with him and he always settled right. I never had the least occasion to disagree with him.

It was a pleasure for me to transact business for him because he was always pleasant about it. He was a man that put God first in his business and in his home. His life was an inspiration to me. I think back with pleasure to the many times he encouraged me as a young Christian and as a young minister.

C. C. Ellis was always found on the right side of every question that came up in his community, and in spite of his financial reverses in his latter days he was a progressive man.

To his dear wife and children and dear brother J. L. Ellis, I would say that through every cloud can be seen a bright side, and while his going is a loss to you it is heavens gain.

May the richest blessings be on you is my prayer.

W. T. Sparkman

It is not my pleasure to know brother Ellis but about two years. I came to Mills county in 1923 and soon after that I had the pleasure of meeting brother Ellis and I found him to be a real Christian man. It was during my first year here that he began to have his sickness, and for something like 12 months he suffered much, but so far as I have ever been able to learn he never complained.

The family he leaves is indeed a remarkable one. He had a family of a wife and 12 children, all of whom are members of the church of which he was a member. He was like Abraham of old, he commanded his children after him.

As I saw it every thing was done that could have been that he might regain his health, by the doctors who treated him and those of his family and friends.

His brother J. L. Ellis was to see him a number of times and was very much devoted to him. They were the only two of their family that lived in Texas. It was hard for brother J. L. Ellis to give up his own dearly beloved brother, but let me say to all and each of you who have sustained this great loss, that your husband, your father and brother shall rise again. He is not dead but has just fallen asleep in Jesus. He has moved from earth to heaven where God is and those of his children who proceeded him to the glory world. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Jesus said, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

There was a large crowd of loved ones and friends to assemble in the North Bennett Church for the funeral service, and the casket was literally covered with beautiful flowers, which was a token of the love and friendship they had for the deceased.

God bless you all in my prayer.

R. R. Cumbie

C. C. Ellis grew to manhood in North Carolina. He was conferted (sic) at the age of 15 years; came to Texas with his brother J. L. Ellis and located in Mills county in the fall of 1897, and I, became acquainted with him at that time. Cannie went with me and my family to Scurry county in the summer of 1898; lived with us several months, after which he came back to Mills county and was married to my wife's sister, Miss Fanny Miles. They were married on the 19th day of July 1899. I moved back to Mills county in January 1900 and settled on what was then known as the McMahan place.

Cannie and I united with the North Bennitt (sic) Baptist Church in July 1902, both being baptized the same day. We sold to Cannie a part of our home and he with his family moved in the house with us for a few months, until we could build a house. In 1903 we sold him the balance of our place and we bought another 4 miles away. I have been with him in prayer services in his home and in the homes of others; I have been with him in various kinds of church work and problems. We have been close friends since our first acquaintance. We used to visit each other. He and family would come over to our home and spend from Saturday evening to Sunday evening. Our names have been together on notes, and in all our dealings and association together I never had an unkind word from my friend and brother C. C. Ellis. Through all our dealings for 28 years if they have not been satisfactory to him the fact was never revealed to me. I was with him during his suffering and I never heard him murmur or complain at any of the Lord's dealings with him.

In the going of C. C. Ellis our loss is heavens gain. Personally, I have lost one of the best friends I ever had on earth. The church has lost one of her most devoted members, and the community one of its best citizens, the wife a loving and devoted husband, the children a fatherly father. Then let us not think of him as one who is dead but as one who lives on high and is alive for ever more. Let me say to you children as one who has a profound interest in you, heed the admonition as given by your father. Love, care for and obey your mother while you have the murmur. Live for Jesus, knowing that when this brief life is over we will live together again.

All of the above was written because of a special request on the part of J. L. Ellis, a brother of the deceased.

Excerpt from "Mills County Memories":

Edward Arnold Obenhaus was born in Colorado County, Texas, January 16, 1875. He came to central Texas as a young man, along with his mother, Temperance Jane and his stepfather Gideon Davis Flournoy. They settled in the Center City area of Mills County, where Mr. Flournoy was a farmer.

Annie Laura Miles was born February 26, 1884, in Mills County, Texas, and was the daughter of Reverend and Mrs. Charles H. Miles, early settlers in the Center City - North Bennett area. Reverend Miles was a circuit rider Baptist preacher and farmer, and was well known all over Mills County as he made his rounds of the churches either on horseback or in his buggy pulled by a gray horse named Critter.

Ed and Laura Obenhaus married January 17, 1900, by the Reverend D. I. Haralson at the bride's home near North Bennett. They lived in the Caradan community for a time, and then near Priddy where their first child, Myrtle, was born. Three weeks after Myrtle was born was cotton harvest time, so Mrs. Obenhaus took Myrtle with her to the cotton field, put her in an apple box under the wagon, where she slept as her mother helped pick the cotton. After another move to Caradan, the family settled on a farm three miles east of Goldthwaite in the Liberty community. There was a combination School and church there. Nine other children were born into the Obenhaus family. In addition to Myrtle, there was Gus, Ernest, Atara, Belva, Opal, Ruth, Pat, Lollie and Bobbie. The school at Liberty went through the eighth grade, so the older Obenhaus children attended school there. Ruth the seventh child, remembers attending the first grade there, and maybe the second grade before being transferred to the Goldthwaite schools. The Liberty church and school disbanded sometime between 1925 and 1930. Church at Liberty was something to which we all looked forward. It was where we worshipped and got together with our neighbors. The preacher was entertained, most Sundays, at our house. We remember helping our Mother clean the Church house on Saturdays in preparation for Sunday services. Brother Milton Leach we remember as one of our good pastors.

Our home was just down the hill from the church. It was a three bedroom, living room, dining room, bath and kitchen, which was very nice for that era. Our Mother was a homemaker in every sense of the word. She kept our home as clean as it could be. The yard had to be raked every week and water carried in buckets to wash off both front porches. We had hot biscuits every day for breakfast, along with all the good things our farm produced, like bacon or ham, and eggs, and plenty of home canned jellies and preserves. She churned the milk to make the butter, and loved going to the garden to gather the vegetables for eating and canning. She filled the pantry every summer with good things to eat in the winter. She pieced quilts and quilted them. there was never an idle moment for her, and she enjoyed it all. She sang hymns as she worked, and made lots of tea cakes and cobblers. We marvelled at the nine-one years she lived, realizing that her longevity was due in part to the fact that she went to bed early every night. She had a strong faith in Good, which gave her strength and joy. "Her children arise up and call her blessed, and her husband also." A favorite saying of her's was "pretty is as pretty does."

Ed, our Dad, was busy with the farm chores. He milked the cows, plowed the fields with his horse drawn plows, hoed the cotton and corn, built fences, planted the seed and harvested the cotton, corn and grain. He made the trip to town every Saturday to buy groceries, visit the other farmers, get the car worked on, etc. when he brought the bales of cotton to town to the gin, and collected his money, he might bring home a treat like cheese and crackers, or apples, or a block of ice for making ice cream. Dad had a good sense of humor and a deep laugh that helped us locate him in town on Saturdays. He was a deacon in the Baptist Church, and lead the singers at the Liberty Church. He served on the school board at Goldthwaite for a number of years. In his later years, after moving into Goldthwaite, he served as Justice of the Peace from about the mid-forties to the mid-fifties. He was a good provider and a strict disciplinarian, never having to tell us but once what we were to do. Dad was greatly respected by all his children and grandchildren.

We children were expected to work right along with our parents. For the boys there were chores like cutting and 9 Sep 16, 2009 10:20 PM hauling wood, picking cotton, shocking the grain, and later hauling it on the wagon to the barn, hoeing cotton and corn, and gathering the corn, digging Johnson grass and cockleburrs out of the crops, feeding horses, cows, pigs and chickens, cleaning out the chicken house, helping butcher the hogs, and many other chores that farming require. The girls helped with the house cleaning, ironing, gathering kindling for wood fires, and almost all the field work. There was not much free time, but when we did get it, we knew how to enjoy it. When working in the field, we watched every cloud with great anticipation, almost praying that it would rain so we could go to the house and pop corn and enjoy watching it rain. On days when it was too cold to work outside, we enjoyed games of 42. Sometimes there were parties on Saturday night at home with our friends. games that were popular when we were children were marbles, mumblety peg, jacks, playing with yo-yos, and the very best fun was playing with a simple rubber ball. We played keep-away, ante-over, or we had a baseball game, or simply threw the ball from one to another. There was no such things as an allowance. Once a week we might get a nickel for an ice cream cone or a candy bar, or maybe a dime to go to a movie. Our best fun was gathering around the piano and singing. Doing dishes was more fun with some music. Playing paper dolls in the cottonseed bin was fun, too. Cottonseed made a good warm place to pay, and the seeds were easy to form into furniture for our paper dolls. We were never bored.

The depression years were hard on all adults. There were sacrifices that had to be made in order to survive, but our parents made those sacrifices without complaining. We never heard our parents quarrel about anything. Everyone suffered from the depression, but we never considered ourselves as poor. Everyone was in the same boat. We had plenty to eat, a good home, and plenty of love for all.

Trips of any length were few and far between. However, the family did make a trip to Corpus Christi for fishing one time, and one time to Colorado County to visit relatives. Our parents tried to take us once a year to the river for a camp-out and fishing. The memory of the wonderful taste of fried bacon and potatoes, and fish (if any were caught) and pork and beans, all cooked outside on an open fire are still with us.

Our transportation was by horse or horse drawn buggies until 1916 when Dad bought a new Ford. Later we owned some Whippets and Overland touring cars, and one Willis that was large and plush. We loved it. Going to Sunday afternoon singings was great fun. Our brother, Gus, taught singing schools all over the county, and sometimes Ruth played for him.

Grandpa Miles would surprise us by dropping in for a few days. We would spot him as he cane down Liberty Hill in his buggy with old Critter pulling it, and run as fast as we could to ride with him. Brother L. L. Hays was our Grandpa's contemporary. Brother Hays performed the wedding ceremony for Oda Daniel and Lollie when he was eighty years of age, and probably married others in our family. Grandpa Miles performed the wedding ceremony for Lee and Myrtle Stewart, Henry and Atara Cryer, and Belva and Duard Howard.

While Brother L. L. Hays was in his nineties he rode with Oda Daniel to Abilene to visit his son, who was in the hospital. Oda asked him how Trigger Mountain, which was on Brother Hays' land, got its name. He told Oda that Welcome Chandler, a well-known pioneer in this area, was traveling through the country from Mississippi sometime during the 1850's and stopped to camp on Brown's creek at a place that was later called Bozar. During the night his horses were stolen and scattered by the Indians. The next morning Mr. Chandler started looking for his horses, and found his own saddle horse, named Trigger, on top of the hill that is now called Trigger Mountain. Welcome Chandler was one of the founders of Brownwood. Brother Hays lived to be one hundred, and was greatly loved and respected by the people of Mills County.

Our parents remembered World War I quite well, as Lee Stewart, who later married Myrtle, fought in that war. He came to Liberty to teach school, and boarded with our family. He and Myrtle fell in love and married and had six children. World Warr II was a war that we all remembered, as our brother Pat was a bombardier in the Air Force and flew thirty-nine missions over Germany. He always wondered if he was bombing some of his relatives. Two son in laws were also involved in that war, but none of them lost their lives. It was a time in our country when everyone pulled together, either as a soldier or as volunteers, to help our country.

As of February 1994, four of the Obenhaus children are still living. They are Myrtle Stewart Touchstone, Belva Howard, Ruth Howard Browning and Lollie Daniel. Descendants of Ed and Laura Obenhaus are ten children, twenty grandchildren, forty-nine great grandchildren, thirty-nine great-great grandchildren and two great-greatgreat grandchildren, making a total of one hundred twenty descendants. Our family has been greatly blessed.¹⁰⁶⁰

They were married by Rev. L. L. Hays. In the 1930 census, Harvey gave his age at marriage as 19. Beulah gave her age as 17. That would make the marriage year 1909, not 1908.

In the 1920 census Beulah's parents were reported to have been born in Texas. In the 1930 census, the father was listed as born in Texas, but the mother in Arkansas. The death certificate showed John Kirby and Mary Kauhs as her parents both born in Texas. The informant was her son Robert M. Miles.

Ex-minister Heinsohn dies at 101

Austin American-Statesman, Monday, 14 Aug 1989

Edmund Heinsohn, a former Methodist minister sometimes referred to as "the conscience of Austin" has died at the age of 101.

Services for Heinsohn, who died Saturday, will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at University United Methodist Church, with burial in Austin Memorial Park.

Heinsohn was born in 1888 in Fayetteville. His family moved to Bartlett, where he graduated as his high school's valedictorian.

In 1905, Heinsohn entered the University of Texas, where he obtained a bachelor's degree in liberal arts in 1910 and a bachelor of laws in 1912.

He practiced law in Temple from 1912 to 1921, when he decided to enter the clergy. After two years of part-time study at Southern Methodist University's Divinity School, Heinsohn was ordained by the Central Texas Methodist Conference in 1923.

In 1921 (1917 actually), he married Lollie Grimes, the sister of his law partner.

After serving congregations in Red Oak, Fort Worth and San Angelo, Heinsohn was appointed senior pastor of University United Methodist Church in Austin in 1924. He held the post until his retirement in 1950. Receiving the title of pastor emeritus that year, Heinsohn also served on the denomination's International Advisory Council.

Heinsohn's opinions often won him opponents. "Some of my best friends were men with whom I had serious differences," he said in 1979.

The former lawyer described his sermons "as an appeal for a verdict."

"I wanted people to make a decision about ideas, their thinking...not just sit there," he said.

Many of his sermons dealt with issues such as the arms race and international relations.

During World War II, Heinsohn defended the rights of conscientious objectors and opposed the U.S. government's internment of Japanese-Americans. In the 1960's, he called for the removal of racial and ethnic barriers to religious affiliation.

Heinsohn conducted funeral services for friends such as writer J. Frank Dobie, historian Walter Prescott Webb and naturalist Roy Bedichek.

Heinsohn was preceded in death by his wife and two of his daughters, Edwina and Eugenia. He is survived by two daughters, Laura Louise Heinsohn of Austin and Fay Heinsohn Woolrich of Kalamazoo, Michigan; eight granddaughters; and 13 great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Heinsohn Lectures Endowment at University United Methodist Church or to a favorite charity.

The Handbook of Texas Online - Edmund Heinsohn

HEINSOHN, EDMUND (1888-1989). Edmund Heinsohn, lawyer and Methodist minister, son of Charles and Louise (Schwecke) Heinsohn, was born in Fayetteville, Texas, on July 17, 1888. The family later moved to Bartlett, where Edmund graduated from high school in 1905. He received A.B. and LL. B. degrees in 1911 and 1912 from the University of Texas and opened a law office in Temple in 1912. He was also appointed assistant county attorney for Bell County at that time. After eleven years in the legal profession he entered the Methodist ministry, in October 1923. Following various assignments, including six years at the First Methodist Church in Georgetown, where he served at Southwestern University, he was assigned to the University Methodist Church in Austin in 1934. From 1931 to 1959 he was a trustee of Southwestern University, from which he received an honorary doctor of divinity degree in 1931. He was chairman of the board of trustees of Huston-Tillotson College, which awarded him an honorary doctor of laws degree in 1946. He was also the first alumnus to receive the J.D. degree from the University of Texas law school when that degree was first offered.

Heinsohn was a member of the Texas State Library and Historical Commission (later the Texas State Library and Archives Commission^{qv}) for twenty-five years and was twice chairman. He was a member of the Austin Town and Gown Club. He was a Lion, a Rotarian, and a Kiwanian and was selected Most Worthy Citizen of the City of Austin in 1959. Though he was the grandson of a slaveowner, Heinsohn worked to abolish segregation in the Methodist Church and the University of Texas. In 1957 his church became one of the first in Austin to accept black parishioners. He was opposed to war and was named vice president of the Methodist Commission on World Peace in 1940. He married Lollie Grimes in 1917, and they had three daughters. (Note: a fourth daughter died as an infant.) Mrs. Heinsohn died in 1979. Heinsohn preached his last sermon at the age of eighty-five in observance of the 100th anniversary of Southwestern University. He died on August 12, 1989, and was buried at Austin Memorial Park.

Edwina Heinsohn was born on 8 Oct 1930 in Williamson County, Texas,¹³³⁹ died in Nov 1964¹³⁴⁰ at age 34, and was buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Juneau, Juneau Borough, Alaska.¹³⁴¹

Edwina married Richard Knowles Heacock Jr.^{1342,1343} Richard was born on 5 Jan 1926 in Austin, Travis County, Texas¹³⁴⁴ and died on 2 Aug 2010 in Fairbanks, Fairbanks North Star Borough, Alaska¹³⁴⁴ at age 84. They had four children: Luanne, Lorelle, Linnea, and Lavonne.

Richard K. Heacock Jr. (1926-2010)

Richard Knowles Heacock Jr., oldest surviving son of Richard Knowles and Harriet Derry Heacock, died at his home in Fairbanks on Monday, Aug. 2, 2010. Dick was born in Austin, Texas on Jan. 5, 1926. He grew up with his brothers Edward, Jack and Fred in the Texas towns of Pharr, Floresville, Taft, Yoakum and Laredo before entering Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas.

In 1943, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy, trained to serve as a hospital apprentice first class and was stationed in Saipan as World War II came to an end in the Pacific. Dick was an accomplished clarinetist who won state honors and played in the Heacock Family Band for church services. Dick's marriage to Edwina Heinsohn was blessed with four wonderful daughters: Luanne, Lorelle, Linnea and Lavonne.

Dick's ministry began at the Ingleside Methodist Church across the bay from Corpus Christi. When the missionary bishop of Alaska called to invite him to serve, he and Edwina quickly accepted the appointment to serve as an associate for Anchorage First Church, then for 10 years he served as pastor for the Juneau Methodist Church at the state capitol.

Edwina suffered a fatal stroke, so Dick and his four Ls made their way back to Austin where the elder Heacocks and Heinsohns could watch the youngsters while Dick worked to put life back together. Dick took an appointment as program director with the Church Center for the United Nations, married Barbara Lovelace of Denver, and brought the family to New York. Dick and Barbara added a son to the family, Eric Austin Heacock.

After stints at the Manor, Oak Park and Fannin United Methodist churches in the Southwest Texas Conference, the bishop of Alaska once again called Dick to serve as pastor of the Fairbanks First United Methodist Church. After seven years there, he took retirement status and began a 20-year volunteer service as editor of the monthly newsletter, PREPARE. Dick was a speed reader, had a keen mind, the passion of an Old Testament prophet and used the newsletter to inform, wheedle, arouse and otherwise stimulate churches, synagogues and cathedrals in Alaska to take on public issues that demanded the conscience of the people.

Dick read four to six books each week, probed behind the issues, informed church leaders and provided voluminous reading lists to keep his public informed. His readers were among the best-informed anywhere.

Two days after he mailed his last issue of PREPARE, Dick entered the hospital ICU. Eight days later, he gave his body permission to let it go in peace. He had consulted with his doctor about end of life issues. Because of congestive heart failure, he and his doctor put their plan into effect. He used his last viable energy to complete his life work of justice for all.

A service was held Tuesday, Aug. 10, at First United Methodist Church. Arrangements were entrusted to Fairbanks Funeral Home.
