TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF THOMAS W. WILLIAMS

The following Preambles and Resolutions were passed at the late session of the Quarterly meeting Conference of the Cokesbury circuit held at Asbury, commencing on the 4th inst.:

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God in the wise dispensations of His Providence to remove from amongst us, during the present year, our beloved brother Thomas W. WILLIAMS, who has been for a number of years, identified as Class Leader and Circuit Steward; we deem it our privilege to express our views in respect to this mournful event. Therefore, 1st resolved; that in the death of Thomas W. WILLIAMS, the M.E. Church, South, has lost one of her most devoted and attached members; the Cokesbury circuit one of her most zealous class leaders and stewards, and the Itinerate Minister's, a friend indeed.

2nd; resolved; that whilst we bow with Christian resignation to the Divine decree, we are cheered by the fond hope that our loss is his infinite gain.

3rd; resolved; that as a token of our regard for the virtues of our deceased brother, the Secretary be directed to leave a blank page in the Journal with his name inscribed therein.

4th; resolved; that we affectionately tender to sister WILLIAMS our fraternal regards and sympathies in her sad bereavement.

5th; resolved; that the Secretary of this Conference transmit a copy of these resolutions to Sister Williams and to the Editors of the Southern Christian Advocate with a request that they be published. Passed by unanimous rising vote. July 4, 1846

NEWSPAPER Issue of JULY 15, 1846

In publishing the list of Volunteers from this District, the name of S.D. GILLESPIE was unintentionally omitted.

OBITUARY

Died, at Calhoun's Mills on Thursday the 11th ult., Mary Etta, daughter of M.O. and Frances TALMAN, aged 1 year, 9 months and 2 days. She was soon called to follow her little brother who died about 12 months ago.

PLANTATION FOR SALE

The subscriber offers for sale his Plantation, five miles east of Cokesbury on the Saluda River, containing Four Hundred Acres, one hundred of which is river bottom. There are two surveys of it, both joining one tract, one containing 272 acres and the other 138 acres. I will sell together or separately, as may suit the purchaser. It is well watered and very healthy. Has a tolerably good dwelling house; the outbuildings are ordinary. Isham GORREE, July 15, 1848

OBITUARIES

Died, from fever, on the 12th ult. in her 26th year, Amanda, wife of Hamilton T. MILLER, after a short illness of four days. A hearty response will be readily given by all intimate with the deceased, that she was a devoted wife, a kind and affectionate mother, and an exemplary Christian. Removed in the bloom of life, in the bright anticipations of future prospects, from a circle of numerous friends to an early tomb, a lasting impression will remain of her winning deportment, her amiable and gentle disposition.

Died, at his residence in this district on the 4th inst. in the 74th year of his age, Maj. John CHILES. This excellent man has left the example of a well spent life, worthy of all imitation. A Sheriff of the District, and as a member of the Legislature, he filled public offices with such meekness, fidelity and integrity, as requitted the favor of his fellow citizens which bestowed it.

But it was at home in the discharge of his social and domestic duties that his unpretending usefulness was most felt and will long be missed. Kind, sincere and pure, with a clear understanding and a temper imperturbable, he pursued the right in a most gentle manner, but at the same time, gave evidence not to be mistaken of a firmness which no influence could sway to the wrong. Equality removed from party asperity and from apathy to public affairs, he was earnest and active in all his duties as a citizen, but so tolerant and forgiving that his ardent love of his country and independent maintenance of his own opinions, begot no personal strife with those who differed with him.

For more than thirty years he was a deacon in the Baptist church and humbly labored to make his conduct suitable to his professions. As Christian, citizen, neighbor, friend, master, brother, father, husband, he was virtuously eminent and in a degree far beyond what the unassuming simplicity of his deportment might suggest to those who did not know him intimately.

With his good constitution and temperate habits he enjoyed full health uninterrupted til near the end. By a second marriage he left five young children, some too young to have profited by his lessons, or even to have personal remembrance of him; but his good works will remain to bear testimony of his worth, while it must be a consolation to his widow and elder children to treasure in their memories.

Died, on Saturday the 10th inst. near Abbeville, Mary Jane, daughter of John and Margarette WIER, in the 21st year of her age. She had but recently attached herself to the Presbyterian Church, Upper Long Cane.

In her death, she was cut down in the morning of life. This afflicting thought brings sadness and melancholy home to the hearts of the many who loved her, and who will never more on earth behold her cheerful face, nor hear again her welcome voice.

The Church mingles her grief with this afflicted and bereaved family who by this dispensation, have had another sorrow added to their cup of bitter water, called before to drink in the death of another beloved daughter.

Shortly before her death when she was about to pass over to Jordan, she said to her father that she had once thought that fears and tears would both harrass her when she came to die; but not now, not so, she was not afraid to die. No doubt, that then she leaned on Jesus for repose and found it. O, her parents have hope and a good hope in her death, carrying to their bosoms the sweetness of sanctified religion. "There is no sweetness like it."

"One family, we dwell in Him,

One church above, beneath;

though now divided by the stream,

The narrow stream of death."

At a meeting of Clinton Lodge, Abbeville district of Ancient Free Masons of the State of South Carolina, held at Masonic Hall on Saturday the 11th inst., the following Resolution was unanimously adopted and ordered to be published in The Banner:

Resolved, that the thanks of the brethren of Clinton Lodge be tendered to Mr. Amity BAILEY, for his handsome gift of a Masonic Symbolic Chart and a Silver mounted Sword; presented to the Lodge through his son, our worthy brother, E.S. BAILEY. W. Hill, Sec. pro tem. July 22, 1846
