In the Name of God, Amen,

I Miraw J. Justin, resident of the City of Abbeville, And State aforesaid, being of Sound and disposing Memory and Understanding do make, Publish and declare the following to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills by me heretofore made,

1st I direct that all my debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my death as practicable by my executor,

2nd I give and bequeath my large Seal ring to my grand son John C. Bradley, Son of Mr. Bradley, not to be given to him, however, until he attains the age of fifteen years - Should he die before that time it is to be given to his brother, Hugh W. Bradley when he reaches that age, 3rd I give and bequeath my plain ring to my grand daughter Blanch Gory, daughter of Judge Eugene B. Gory, 4th I give and bequeath my gold watch to my grand son, William W. Bradley, 5th I give and devise my house and lot and the vacant lot adjoining, located on Gory Street in the City of Abbeville, to my daughter, Eloiza Gory, wife of Judge E. B. Gory for and during her natural life, and at her death to my grand children, the children of my daughter, Mablee Justin Bradley, wife of Mr. W. Bradley, in equal shares,

6 It is my will, and I so direct, that my executor hereinafter named, shall sell, either at private or public sale, as he may think ^{best} ^{for the} best interest of all concerned my house & lot on Magazine Street in the City of Abbeville, and out of the proceeds thereof the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars to be given to my little grand daughter, Mablee Justin Bradley, daughter of Mr. W. and Mablee J. Bradley - this I do in order to equalize her with my other grandchildren - she not having been given any thing under Grand Mother Justin's Will.

7. I further will and direct that a note which I gave my son Walter Justin for one hundred dollars, be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said house and lot - Also that the sum of four hundred dollars of said proceeds be held by my executor and the same be applied, as the necessity arises, in giving to my grand son - W^m. W. Bradley a dental education - Provided he may be desirous of taking such a course,

8. Should my said grand son not choose to take such a course, then it is my will and I so direct, that the entire balance of the proceeds of said house & lot, after the payment of the bequest to my grand daughter, Mabelle Justin Bradley of One hundred and fifty dollars and the note held by my son Walter for one hundred dollars, be equally divided among all my grand children, Children of W W and Mabelle J. Bradley; but in case my said grand son should elect to take such a course, then it is my will that the remainder of the proceeds of the sale of said house & lot, after deducting the amounts to be paid my grand daughter Mabelle Justin Bradley and my son Walter Justin and the four hundred dollars for the purpose above stated, be equally divided among the children of W W and Mabelle J. Bradley - Not however, including William W. in such division.

9th It is my desire that the guardian of my grand children invest the portions falling to them, including the one hundred and fifty dollars which I have given to my little grand daughter Mabelle, out of the proceeds of the sale of my Magazine Hill house & lot be invested for their benefit, respending, in the mortgage held by the executor of my deceased wife's estate on the house & lot owned by daughter

In the name of God, Amen;
 State of South Carolina,

I Rosk C. Winkler of the town of Williamston, County of Anderson, and State of South Carolina, do hereby make, publish and ordain the following as and for my last will and testament,

1st, I will that all my just debts and funeral expense be paid in full.

2nd, I will that my Executors to be hereinafter named, do pay the sum of four hundred and eighty and thirteen one hundredths dollars to my son Cornelius L. Winkler, and the sum of four hundred and eighty and thirteen one hundredths dollars for my daughter, Caroline W. Bristow, formerly Caroline A. Winkler, with interest on said sums from the date of my death, these sums of money are given to my said son and daughter, in accordance with the provisions of the last will and testament of my deceased sister, Amanda L. Beckmeyer, which was given me a legacy for life, and on my death the amount of said was to go absolutely to my said son and daughter.

3rd I give to the four infant children of my deceased son, Porter B. Winkler, namely, Rosa Annie Winkler, Leslie Powrie Winkler, Porter King Winkler and Edmir Theodore Winkler, each the sum of two hundred dollars. The said sums are to be paid by my executors to my son-in-law, Louis J. Bristow, as trustee for said infants, and the said Bristow is authorized and empowered to invest the said sums of money in whatever manner he may deem safe and proper. My said executor in paying said monies to said Bristow shall require him to execute no bond or other obligation for the proper discharge of his duties as said trustee, but shall simply take the receipt of said Bristow for said money - The interest on said money is to be used in such manner as the trustee may determine for the Support of said infants until each one reaches the age of eighteen years, and as each child arrives at the age of eighteen years, the said sum of two hundred dollars shall be paid by said Bristol to such child - Should any of my four grand children die before reaching the age of eighteen years, his or her share of said legacy shall be divided equally among and paid to the survivors of said grand children, as they each reach the age of eighteen years.

4 To my daughter, Caroline N. Bristol, I give all the books, furniture and other personal effects now owned by me, and situated in my house at Summerville, South Carolina.

5 To my five children, namely, Cornelius L. Winkler, Alexander M. Winkler, Caroline N. Bristol B. Pussley Winkler and Hugh A. Winkler, I give, devise and bequeath all the real, residue and remainder of my property, whether real or personal, now owned by me, or which I may hereafter acquire, to be equally divided between them share and share alike - Should any of my said children predecease me, the share to which he or she would have been entitled hereunder, is hereby given to the issue of such deceased child; but if said child should die without issue, then his or her share shall be equally divided among my surviving children and the children of my deceased son Porter, mentioned in Paragraph three of this will; that is to say, each of my surviving children, mentioned in this Paragraph of my will, shall have one portion and said four grand children one portion of the share of such deceased child, the one one portion going to my said four grand children is to be paid to the said Louis J. Bristol on the same terms, as are set forth in paragraph three of this will.

6 I hereby appoint my son Cornelius L. Winkler, as the sole Executor of this my last will and testament, and authorized and empower him as such Executor to convert my entire estate, which I now own, or may hereafter acquire, into cash, as soon as he can with advantage, do so after my death, and to collect all that Francis New my husband and James New, who is my adopted son, shall have all that tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the County of Abbeville and the State of aforesaid, containing fifty acres, more or less, and bounded by lands of J. J. Britt, Walter Collier, J. A. Dellashaw and others, of which I am now the sole owner. It is my request that the said Francis New and James New shall have the right to sell the said fifty acres of land and equally divide the proceeds between themselves after my doctor bills and burial expenses shall have been paid from said sales. And it is further my last will and request that if the said Francis New and James New should rather keep and equally divide the said land between themselves after they have paid all my doctor bills and funeral expenses, they shall have the right to do so. And it is further my request that James New shall act as my executor to this will.
