State of South Carolina,)
 County of Abbeville,)

I, A. Foster Calvert, of said State and County, being of sound and discreet but weak in body, do make this my last will and testament.

First- I direct the executor of this my last will and testament hereinafter named to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses.

Second- I bequeath to my wife, Susan E. Calvert, all of my personal property of every kind and nature, for and during her natural life, and after her death, what remains, to be divided among my five children, share and share alike, and in case of death of either of my children before my said wife Susan, his or her share to go to his or her child or children.

Third- I direct my executor to sell my house and lot situated in the City of Abbeville, S.C., and out of the proceeds of the sale of said house and lot, one thousand dollars to be paid to my daughter, Sallie W. Coleman, and the sum of one thousand dollars to be paid to my daughter, Martha R. Nickles. The balance of the proceeds of the sale of the said house and lot to be paid to my wife, Susan, to be used by her as she desires.

Fourth- I devise to my wife, Susan, the tract of land situated in Long Grove Township, Abbeville County, containing one hundred and fifteen (115) acres, more or less, for and during her natural life, and at her death, said tract of land to be sold by executor and out of the proceeds of the sale of the said tract of land the sum of one thousand dollars to be paid to my son, Jesse L. Calvert, and the sum of one thousand dollars to be paid to my son, Geo. Eakin Calvert. I have already given to my son, Alva C. Calvert, the sum of one thousand dollars, and this will make all of my children to have been paid each the sum of one thousand dollars. The balance of the proceeds of the sale of the said tract of land of 115 acres, after paying the above two amounts, shall be divided between my five children, share and share alike, the share of any predeceased child or children to go to their child or children.

Fifth- I hereby appoint and nominate my son, George Eakin Calvert executor of this my last will and testament.

A. F. Calvert

Signed, sealed and published by the ~~EXECUTOR~~ Testator to be his last will and testament, in our presence, and we, at his request, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other have signed our names as witnesses thereto.

Personally appeared before me the undersigned officer authorized to administer oaths, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Hall, who being duly sworn, deposes and says that she is the widow of Garry H. Hall whose death was recorded on the 13th day of October, 1918.

Deponent further testifies that in the winding up of his personal affairs it has become necessary to clear up the matter of his point of residence and so enter the same beneficially to the heirs of the said Gary H. Hall.

Deponent further testifies that the family, including the deceased and their only son, Garry H. Hall, jr., have only temporarily resided in the City of Atlanta for the purpose of convenience as the said Garry H. Hall, was and has for some two or three years been a student of the Georgia School of Technology and that the temporary stay here in Atlanta was for his benefit only.

Deponent further testifies that during this period of time the said Garry H. Hall, the deceased, has continually maintained a place of residence for his family in the City of Abbeville, State of South Carolina, which was in keeping with his desire that Abbeville be considered the home for the family.

I, John W. Clinkcales of the County and State aforesaid, considering the uncertainty of life, although being at this time in good health and of sound and disposing mind and memory, and being desirous of disposing of all my property, both real and personal, of which I am now possessed, or may hereafter accumulate or acquire to take effect after my death- Do declare that it is my will-First- That all my debts be paid. Second- That my wife Eunice Bertie Clinkcales, shall have the use, benefits and proceeds of all said property during her lifetime for her own individual support and maintenance, and at her death, said property to be sold, or disposed off in a manner thought best by my executor hereafter mentioned, and the proceeds of said sale or division to be equally divided between my three children, Joe-Abner and Johnnie Mae, children of my last marriage.

It is my further will that each of my children-to wit- Ruben-Corrie-Cora-Essie-Belle-Essie-John and Lawrence, shall each receive the sum of five dollars, as his or hers entire share of my entire estate, said five dollars to be paid from the rentals of my estate the first year after my death.

It is my further will, that if either of my three children- Joe-Abner-and Johnnie Mae-die before my wife, Eunice Bertie, then the share of said deceased child or children, to revert to the survivor of the three children lastly mentioned. It is my will, that if either of three children lastly mentioned-to wit; Joe-Abner and Johnnie Mae die and leave issue, then the share of such child, shall revert equally to survivors of such deceased child. It is my further will that if neither of the three children Joe-Abner and Johnnie Mae survive my wife, Eunice Bertie, leaving no issue, then at the death of said wife, the property to revert equally to the children of my first marriage. I herewith appoint my son, Joe, to the executor of this my last will and testament-In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name & affixed my seal this 15th of Apr. 1918. John W. Clinkcales-S. L.

Last will and testament of John Samuel Agnew.

In the name of God, Amen.

I, John Samuel Agnew, of the County of Abbeville, State of South Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind, do make this my last will and testament;

Art.(1) I will that all my just debts be paid.

Art.(2) I will all of my property, both real and personal, to my wife, Lidie Coleman Agnew, during her lifetime, and at her death, that so much of my estate as remaind be divided equally between my six)6() children, namely, Clara Marie, Laura Francis, John Coleman, Jesse ~~xxxxxx~~ Sullivan Agnes Ruth and Alice Teague.

Art.(3) In case any of these children die, leaving issue, before the division of my estate, the child or children/ of the deceased child shall inherit the share the parent would have received if living.

Art.4) If the income of my estate shall not be sufficient for the comfortable support of my wife, she is hereby authorized to use so much of the corpus of my estate as may be necessary, and she is further given full power to sell all or any part of my estate, either real or personal and to make a good and sufficient title thereto, or to change any of my investments as her judgment may approve.

Art.(5) In case my wife desires to divide up my estate between the children before her death, my executors are hereby authorized and empowered to make the same division during her lifetime that they would otherwise make at her death-provided the children will bind themselves to pay her $100.(one hundred dollars) each year, during her lifetime, for her support.

Art.(6) The manner in which my estate is to be divided by my executors at the death of my wife, is left largely to their discretion-if it can be divided in kind, satisfactorily, they may use that method; otherwise, they are hereby empowered to sell at public or private sale-with or without an order of court-any or all of my estate, real and personal, and to make good and sufficient title thereto and to divide the proceeds as provided above.

Art.(7th) In the event of the division of my estate before my youngest daughter, Alice Teague, has completed her education at the womens college of Due West, I desire that an amount sufficient for that purpose, as estimated by my executors, be given her before the division of my estate be made.

Art. (8) I desire that my two sons, John Coleman and Jesse Sullivan, act as my executors, without bond.

In witness whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal this the 23rd day of December, 1918.

John Samuel Agnew.

We hereby certify that we saw the above named John Samuel Agnew, sign the above document which he declared to be his last will and testament and that we signed in his presence and the presence of each other.

I, Lucinda J. Bell, wife of Dr. J. H. Bell, of Due West, S. C., Abbeville County being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do make and ordian this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

First- I direct that all my just debts be paid.

Second-As to the rest and residue of my estate, both real and personal, with which I may be endowed at the time of my death. I give devise and bequeath the same to my two children, Jesse R. Bell and Lola E. Bell, share and share alike-the same however not to be divided or delivered to them until the death of their father, Dr. J. H. Bell, but to be kept together and manage by him, the said Dr. J. H. Bell during his natural life.

Third- Upon the death of my said husband, Dr. J. H. Bell, provided of course he should survive me, it is my will and I so direct, that all of my estate of every kind and discription shall be equally divided between my two children, Jesse R. Bell and Lola E. Bell, the child or children of any deceased child to take the ~~XXXXXX~~ part to which the parent would have been entitled if living.

Fourth- if either of my said children should die without leaving living issue, then it is my will that the survior shall take my entire estate, subject to the provisions in the second of this my will as regards to the control of the same by my husband during his life.

Fifth-I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my husband, Dr. J. H. Bell and my son, Jesse R. Bell executors of this my last will with full power to the latter, if it should become necessary in the division of my estate between my two children to sell the whole or any part of my real estate to do so and to execute valid titles to the same without any interposition of any court.

Sixth- As I have given my son, Jesse R. Bell considerable advantage over his sister in the matter of an education, it is my will and I direct that he shall perform any of the duties which may devolve upon him as executor of this my will, free of cost or expense to his said sister.

In witness whereof I have hereunto ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ set my name and affixed my seal this the first day of June, 1898.

In the name of God-amen:

I, Martha J. Tolbert, of the State of South Carolina, County of Abbeville, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do make, ordain, publish and declare the following as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills heretofore made by me.

First- I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid by my executors hereinafter named, as soon after my death as practical.

Second- I will devise and bequeath unto my son, Charles E. Tolbert and to my daughter, Mattie L. Tolbert, my home tract, containing two hundred acres, more or less, bounded on the North by G.R. Tolbert, on the East by lands of G.R. Tolbert and E.M. McCord, on the South by lands of A.M. Tolbert and Mrs. Emma P. Jones, on the West by lands of J. Red Tolbert. This tract of land has been surveyed and the plat of same is now in my possession.

Third- I will devise and bequeath unto the said Charles E. Tolbert and Mattie L. Tolbert the above tract of land upon the following condition to wit; that they do pay off, after my death, a certain mortgage debt held by Mrs. McLees on my lands, and upon the further condition that they pay my daughter, Elizabeth Mann six hundred dollars in cash.

Fourth- I will devise and bequeath unto my son, M. Luther Tolbert and unto my son, John Red Tolbert, one hundred and forty acres, more or less, bounded on the North by lands G.R. Tolbert, on the East by lands of Mattie L. Tolbert and lands of Charles E. Tolbert, on the South by lands of I.A. Keller and A. McCord-- Said tract of land has been surveyed and plated and is now in my possession.

Fifth- I will devise and bequeath my sons, John Red Tolbert and M. Luther Tolbert the above described tract of land upon the following conditions, to wit: that they pay off, after my death, a certain mortgage debt held by Furman University.

Sixth- I will devise and bequeath unto my daughter, Mrs. Emma P. Jones, twenty seven acres of land, bounded on the North by Mattie L. Tolbert and Charles E. Tolbert, On the East by public road leading from Greenwood, South Carolina, to Abbeville, South Carolina and lands of Mattie L. Tolbert and Charles E. Tolbert, On the South by lands of Mrs. Emma P. Jones and on the West by lands John Red Tolbert, to have said land free from incumbrance.

Seventh- I will devise and bequeath unto Thomas H. Tolbert, sixty acres of land, more or less; said tract of land lying east of curtail creek, and being separate from my other lands-bounded on the North by W.H. Napier, on the East by lands of R.R. Tolbert, Jr.,-On the South by lands of Teague Miller and on the West by curtail creek and lands of A.M. Tolbert and E.M. McCord, to have free from any incumbrance.

Lastly I do hereby appoint, constitute and direct that Thomas H. and M. Luther shall act as the executors of this my last will and testament, giving them full power to make all necessary conveyances and to do any every other act necessary to execute the terms of this will.

In witness whereof I have herunto signed my name and affixed my seal, this the 11th day of October, 1915.
