I, Louisa J. Lesley, of the State of South Carolina, and County of Abbeville, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and annulling all others by me made heretofore.

1st- I desire and direct that my body be burried in a decent and Christianlike manner, suitable to my circumstances in life.

2-I give and bequeath unto my daughter, Madge Lesley Fant, my bed room set of mahogany furniture and also my parlor set of mahogany furniture. having previously executed to her a warrantee deed to 50 acres of land, described herein, and having delivered same to her, this constitutes all I desire her to have of my estate. It is my will and desire that the 50 acres of land heretofore deeded and conveyed to my daughter Madge Lesley Fant, shall never be subject to the debts or defaults of her present or any future husband.

3- There being several small mortgages on my farm, near Abbeville, S.C., executed by me in favor of Hugh Wilson. I desire that these said mortgages be paid out of ~~my~~ lands other than that included in the 50 acres previously given to my daughter, above referred to. That is to say that it is my will and desire that my daughter Madge Lesley Fant have the above referred to 50 acres of land unincumbered and what debts, including the above mentioned mortgages, be paid out of the balance of my estate. The mortgages referred to in this item are as follows A mortgage for $500.00 on 185 acres of land in the State of South Carolina to Hugh Wilson and bounded by lands of W.E. Lesley, F.Y. Foster, J.W. Lesley and the Abbeville road and bearing date of July 30th. 1908.

~~Xxxxxx-~~
A mortgage to the same party, Hugh Wilson, on the same land for $300. and bearing date of Jan. 29th, 1913.
A mortgage to the same party, Hugh Wilson, and on the same land for $350. and bearing date of Jan. 12th, 1914.

Fourth- I give, bequeath and devise to my sons W.D. Lesley, J.W. Lesley, G.F. Lesley and J.K. Lesley the remainder of my estate real and personal and mixed, to be equally divided amongst them, after the mortgage liens above set forth are paid; It being my will and desire that said mortgages be paid by my sons, that is, out of the proceeds of sale of the property herein devised to them, if not paid during my life.

Fifth- I am endorser on various notes for my son, W.D. Lesley and also endorser on notes of my son J.W. Lesley and I desire that if I in life, or my estate after my death, should have to pay said notes (either of W.D. Lesley or J.W. Lesley) or any part thereof, then in that event the amount so paid by me, or my estate, shall be charged to that son, or sons, upon whose notes payment was made and deducted from his, or their part of the estate before the property ~~is divided~~ devised by me to them shall be turned over to them. That is, I mean to say, that whatever amount of the notes which I have endorsed for J.W. Lesley is paid by me, or my estate, is to be accounted for by him to my executors out of the property devised to him. And whatever is paid on account of my endorsement on notes endorsed for W.D. Lesley he is to account for said amount so paid to my executors out of the property devised to him.

Sixth- The property devised to my sons G.F. Lesley and J.K. Lesley is to go to them without any incumbrance except for the payments of the mortgages mentioned in item 111 of this my will, and are to be charged with any money that may have to be paid on account of my endorsements of said notes for my sons, J.W. Lesley and W.D. Lesley.

I hereby constitute and appoint my son G.F. Lesley and my daughter Madge Lesley Fant executors of this my last will and testament.

This Nov. 25th, 1915.

Mrs. Maggie J. Turner

State of South Carolina,)
 County of Abbeville,)

I, George S. Turner, of said State and County, considering the uncertainty of life, although being at this time of sound and disposing mind and memory, and being desirous of disposing of all my property, both real and personal of which I am now or may hereafter acquire, to take effect after my death. I do herewith declare that this is my will, that my wife, Maggie J. Turner, during her life, shall have the uses, benefits and accumulation of all said property and at her death said property to be divided as follows-to wit; To my daughter, Maggie P. King, I give the uses and benefits and accumulations of 35 acres of land during her lifetime, same to be cut off from lands I now own, on the upper Northern side of branch running through premises, said branch to be line, between said 35 acres same to join lands of J.R. Bowie, Parker & Reese lands up said branch to Allens lands and main body of land as far as said branch will reach. and at the death of said daughter, Maggie, said 35 acres or proceeds thereof, to be equally divided between the children of said daughter, Maggie, or any of her surviving children, should said daughter, Maggie, die without issue said land and accumulations to revert to my surviving children or child, or any of their survivors- To my daughter, Malisa Sevilla, and my son George C. I give all my remaining property, both real and personal, equally between them, should either of my children, Malisa Sevilla or George C. die without issue, such share of such deceased child to revert to the other-should both Malisa Sevilla and George C. die without issue, all of said property to revert to my daughter, Maggie P. King, upon same conditions aforesaid.

I further will that there shall be no division of said property until my youngest child shall reach his majority.

I do hereby appoint my wife, Maggie J. Turner, and L.W. Keller my executrix and executor respectively of this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal, this 21st day of Nov. 1919.
