In the Name of God, Amen:

I, Mrs. Emily C. First: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid and that a suitable monument be purchased to mark my grave out of my estate as soon after my decease as conveniently may be and to that end charge my whole estate, real and personal, with the same.

Second: As I have liberally provided for my beloved sister, Mrs. Lizzie Smith, during the past several years, in order to be equitable to those of my living brothers and children of deceased brothers and sisters, I am not providing for my said sister, Mrs. Lizzie Smith, or her children, in this my last Will and Testament; and, it is my intention that they will not share in my estate. In assuming this attitude, I do not wish to show any lack of love and affection for my said sister, Mrs. Lizzie Smith, or her children, but am taking this view only for the purpose of being equitable towards the others.

Should my living brothers predecease me, it is my desire that their child or children will take the part or parts that the parent would have taken if living.

Fourth: Regarding my immediate personal effects, it is my desire, and I so will and direct, that my Executors, hereinafter named, distribute these effects among my brothers and nieces and nephews in such a way as to give them some personal remembrance of my love and affection towards them and my earthly association with them.

Fifth: I will and devise to John Claude Peerman, my nephew by marriage, and his wife, Mrs. Catharine Vermillion Peerman, my niece, the house and lot in the Town of Donalda, this house and lot being the one that I purchased from the said John Claude, and being the former home of Mrs. John Mc Dill and Mrs. Ida Mc Dill, both now deceased, in fee simple absolute.

Sixth: I nominate and appoint my nephews, Leland Vermillion of Donalda and Charlie Vermillion of Spartanburg, or the survivors of them, to be the Executors of this my last Will and Testament, giving them full authority to sell either at public or private sale and to make proper conveyances to carry into full force and effect this my last Will and Testament.
