The Last Will and Testament of:
(Mrs.) Mary Etta Harper

I, Mary Etta Harper, of Abbeville, in said state and County, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, desiring to make disposition of my property in case of death, do hereby make, publish and declare the following as and for my Last Will and Testament.

Item I I direct that my executors hereinafter named as soon after my death as convenient do pay all my just debts and funeral expenses.

Item II I will and bequeath to my eleven children my household and kitchen furniture and my personal goods and chattels, the same to be equally divided between them.

Item III I will and devise to my sons James Edward Harper, William H. Harper and George C. Harper, as trustees, and their successors in office, (their successors to be appointed from time to time from my surviving children) my home place in the city of Abbeville on Greenville Street in trust, however, for the following uses and purposes to wit:

In Trust to keep and hold the same as a meeting place for all of my children and as a place where any of my children with the members of their families may come when any of them so desires; to let the same to any one or more of my children or who may live in Abbeville for a home so long as they live in agreement among themselves, and in case of disagreement, then to let the same to such of my children as my said trustees or their successors in office may select, the one or ones so occupying the said premises to be responsible for all repairs on the house and other buildings, and for the insurance thereof, and for the taxes and assessments which may be levied against the same; and to hold, keep and manage the said home place until only one of my children survives then in trust for such surviving child to sell the same and divide the proceeds among my grand-children then living, the division to be made per stirpes and not per capita.

Item IV My husband has heretofore given to my daughter Sarah a lot containing one acre of land cut off from my fair ground property. My daughter, Lucia M. Prier, has purchased and paid for two lots to be cut off from the said property, but such lots have not been surveyed nor deeded to my said daughter, Lucia M. Prier. I do hereby make a division I will, devise and direct that twelve (12) lots, fifty (50) feet by one hundred (100) feet be surveyed from my fair ground property and that two of these lots be assigned to my daughter, Lucia M. Prier, on account of her purchase as aforesaid, and that the remaining lots be assigned to my children other than Sarah. And inasmuch as the lots which the other ten children will thus acquire are not of equal value with the lot owned by my daughter Sarah, I hereby direct that three disinterested persons be selected by my executors, one by my daughter Sarah, and the third to be selected by these two shall fix a value on all of the said lots without regard to any improvements which Sarah may have made on the lot heretofore deeded to her, and that my other ten children be paid such amounts in money as will equalize the gifts to them with the value of the lot heretofore deeded to Sarah.

Item V I will and direct that the remainder of my property including the same containing one hundred ten (110) acres, more or less, lying on Morris Creek near the City of Abbeville, the lot in the City of Abbeville adjoining lands of Mrs. Southern and others, and the balance of my fair ground property be sold by my executors hereinafter named, and after the payment of all debts and after equalizing the value of the lots given to my children as heretofore directed, I direct that the balance of the proceeds of the sale to be divided equally between my eleven children, the child or children of any child which may die in my lifetime to receive the parent's share.

Item VI I hereby constitute and appoint my sons, James Edward Harper, William H. Harper and George C. Harper executors of this, my Last Will and Testament, hereby giving to them, or to such of them as may qualify, as such, full power and authority to do any and every act necessary to carry this Will into effect, including the making of all necessary deeds and conveyances. And I hereby empower upon them and upon all of my children and their heirs upon in making the division and settlement between them to do so in a friendly spirit without litigation, and to that end in case of any disagreement between any of them they are directed to have reference to the decision of disinterested parties to be selected as above provided.

I, the undersigned, request my name and address to be printed in the one hundred forty first year of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by Mary Etta Harper as and for her Last Will and Testament in the presence and view of the persons at her request, and each in the presence of the other two, have them to sign of our names as attending witnesses.

In the name of God, Amen.

I, Jamie E. Nickles, of Due West, in the County and State aforesaid, do make, ordain, publish and declare the following to be my last will and testament.

Item I. I direct the payment of all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my death as may be practicable.

Item II. I hereby give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, real, personal, or mixed, wheresoever situated, whereof I may be seized or possessed, or to which I may be in any manner entitled, unto my Executors and Trustees hereinafter named, and to their heirs and assigns forever.

On Trust Nevertheless, as follows:

Item II. I further will and direct that my beloved husband, George Newton Nickles, and my daughter, Elizabeth Nickles, they or the survivor of them, shall be permitted to occupy my real estate, to enjoy the use of, and to receive the entire rents and profits from my aforesaid trust estate for and during the term or terms of their natural lives. I trust to them, and charge them with the duty of providing a home on my real estate for each of my children or grandchildren as, by reason of infirmities of infancy, may in their discretion be in need thereof, and I also charge them with the duty of using such portion of the rents and profits from my said trust estate, as they may be able to spare, for the support and relief of such of my children and grandchildren whose needs may be most urgent. That is to say, I wish my said husband and daughter to use my said property, or the rents and profits therefrom, after providing for their own needs, for the benefit and relief of such of my children and grandchildren as they may think I might or would do if living.

Item III. Upon the death of my said husband, or the death or marriage of my said daughter, Elizabeth I devise my Trustees and Executors, or Trustee and Executor, or the survivor of them, to hold said trust estate for such a period as to them may seem wise for the education and support of such of my children and grandchildren as in their judgment may be in the greatest need, paying the rents and profits therefrom for the benefit of such children or grandchildren as they may think I would do if living.

Item IV. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my son, John Mc Kee Nickles, and my daughter, Elizabeth Nickles, or the survivor of them, as the Executors and Trustees, or Executor and Trustee of this my last will and testament. Having given to my said Trustees and Executors full power and discretion in the management of my said estate, it is my will that they be not required to give any bond and that they be not required to make any accounting to any Court or individual for the rents and profits from my said estate, nor for the proceeds of sale of any of my personal property.

Item V. I hereby give to my said Executors and Trustees, or the survivor of them, or their successors, full power and authority to sell and convey any part of, or all of said trust estate, after the death of my said husband and the death or marriage of my said daughter, Elizabeth, and to deliver necessarily and proper deeds of conveyance therefor. Provided, however, that after the death of my said husband, and my said daughter Elizabeth being willing, said entire trust estate may be sold by my said Executors and Trustees, or the survivor of them, at such time and in their judgment may be wise.

Item VI. Whenever a sale of my real estate is made I desire my said Executors and Trustees, or the survivor of them, to divide the proceeds of sale into even equal parts and one portion paid over to each of my children, the child or children of any deceased child to take the part the parent would have taken if living.
