The Last Will and Testament of:

(Mrs.) Rutha S. Lehman.

In the name of God, I, Rutha S. Lehman, of Abbeville County, South Carolina, being of sound mind, and disposing memory, fit and lawful of the uncertainty of human life, do make, ordain, publish and declare this instrument of writing as and for my last will and testament, hereby expressly revoking any and all other wills and instruments of a testamentary nature heretofore made by me.

Item I. I give and bequeath my soul to all mighty God who gave it, trusting in His infinite goodness and mercy, to receive it.

Item II. It is my desire to be buried in a Christian-like manner at such place as my executors hereinafter named shall see fit, and that a suitable monument be erected to mark my grave.

Item III. I will and direct my executors as soon after my death as possible from such moneys available and belonging to my Estate, to pay the expenses of my last illness, my funeral expenses, the expenses of erecting said monument, and all my just debts.

Item IV. I give and bequeath to my son, Solomon Lehman, the sum of Twenty-five Hundred ($2500.00) Dollars and direct my executors to pay said sum to my son as soon after my death as possible from such funds of my Estate as may be available.

Item V. I give and bequeath the sum of Fifty ($50) Dollars to my niece, Annie Dunbar of Albany, Georgia.

Item VI. I give and bequeath the sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars to my sister, Daisy S. Harby.

Item VII. My sister, Daisy S. Harby and my brother-in-law, Amley D. Harby and me the sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars, and I will and direct my executors to cancel said indebtedness, and that my said sister and brother-in-law be not required to account to my Estate for same.

Item VIII. I will and direct that my jewelry, personal effects, and household goods to be disposed of as my son, Solomon directs, as he knows my wishes with regard thereto, and will see that they are carried out.

Item IX. All of the rest and residue of my Estate, both real and personal, and wheresoever situate, I give, devise, and bequeath to my executors hereinafter named, law heirs and assigns, in trust, for the following uses and purposes, to-wit:

On trust, to hold the same, collect the income, and profits therefrom, and beginning six months from the date of my death, to pay to my son, Solomon Lehman, the sum of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars per month for such and every month while my said son shall have received my entire residuary Estate, both income and corpus, with full power in my executors and trustee to sell, transfer, or assign any and all of my residuary Estate at such time and upon such terms as she shall deem best and to re-invest the proceeds thereof, subject to the terms and limitations of this trust, in such manner as she shall deem best for the interest of my Estate.

On trust further, that should it be necessary for my son, Solomon, to incur expenses for medical treatment or hospital bills that my executors and trustee shall pay such medical expenses and hospital bills, for and on behalf of my said son, in addition to the monthly payment of fifty ($50.00) Dollars per month hereinafter provided for.

Item X. Should my son, Solomon Lehman predecease me, or die before he shall have received my entire Estate, then, and in that event, I give, devise, and bequeath all or the remaining portion of my residuary Estate to my sister, Daisy S. Harby and my niece and nephew, Joseph S. Livingston, Benjamin White, and Yarnelle W. DeLoane, share and share alike, the wife or children of a predeceased sister, or niece or nephew, to represent and take the parent's share.

Item XI. I nominate, constitute, and appoint my sister, Daisy S. Harby, of Abbeville County, South Carolina, as executrix of this my last will and testament, and request the Probate Court to appoint her as such, and hereby release her of the necessity of giving any bond.

Should, for any reason my sister, Daisy S. Harby, be prohibited from acting as executrix and trustee under this my last will and testament, it is my will and desire that the Probate Court appoint some fit and proper person as will be acceptable to my son to act as trustee and executor under this my last will and testament, and I hereby give, devise and bequeath unto said person all of the duties, powers and privileges herein granted to the said Daisy S. Harby.

My son's health is not good and he, of necessity, has to live out of the State of South Carolina, and I am of the opinion that it is to the best interest of him and my Estate for a resident of the State of South Carolina to be appointed as my executrix and my Estate to be administered in the State of South Carolina, the State of my residence.

In witness whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal this 27th day of July, 1939.

Item One: I commit my soul to the gracious God who gave it, and direct that my body shall be decently interred according to the wishes of my church, and that a suitable monument be erected to mark my grave, and that all expense incurred therefor be paid out of my estate.

Item Two: I will and direct that my executor hereinafter named, shall pay unto Dr. J. C. Hall and Dr. W. E. Pollock any money which I owe them for doctor bills, said bills to be paid out of an insurance policy which I carried on my life, of which policy my beloved wife, Margaret W. Folsene is beneficiary.

Item Three: I will, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Margaret W. Folsene for and during her natural life all property both personal and real owned by me, this provision being in lieu of all claim of dower or other interest in or to all real and personal property which I shall die seized and possessed of. My beloved wife, Margaret W. Folsene, is to have only a life estate in all properties heretofore willed, devised and bequeathed to her.

Item Four: At the death of my beloved wife, Margaret W. Folsene, all property, both real and personal of every kind and description I will, devise and bequeath unto Edwin Eugene McCallough and Mattie Pauline Brown, share and share alike.

Second: I give and bequeath to Willie David Alewine, my nephew, all of my personal property, consisting of my personal effects, household goods, should I have any, one mule and all other personal property not disposed of in the next paragraph.

Third: I give and bequeath to my nephews and niece, children of my brother, P. S. Alewine, my personal property consisting of an undivided interest in my farming tools, wagon, mowers and rakes and any other tools or farming implements used in and about the farms now or formerly owned by my brother, P. S. Alewine, and myself, these nephews and niece being Willie D. Alewine, Guy D. Alewine, Porter B. Alewine, George O. Alewine, Roy C. Alewine, Waydon B. Alewine and Mrs. Claude W. Moore, share and share alike. Should any of the above named persons be leaving child or children, I will and direct that the share or shares that would have passed to him or them be given to such respective child or children.

Fourth: As to the farming tools and implements above bequeathed, I desire to make mention of the fact that my nephew, Willie David Alewine, owns one-half interest in a cross-cut saw and a shes-cutter.

Fifth: I will and devise to my nephew, Willie David Alewine, all of my realty, consisting of fifty two (52) acres of land formerly belonging to my brother, P. S. Alewine, and me, bequeathed to me by my said brother the 20th day of September, 1935, for and during his natural life. At the death of said nephew, should he die leaving a widow and children, or solely heirs, I will and direct that the said realty be bequeathed for and during the natural life of the said widow, then, at her death, I will and direct the said realty to the widow, heirs of my said nephew per stirpes in fee simple absolute. If my said nephew should die leaving solely heirs, but no widow, I will and devise the said realty to the widow, heirs of my said nephew per stirpes in fee simple absolute. Should my said nephew die leaving a widow but no widow, I will and devise the said realty to the said widow for the remainder of her natural life; and at her death, I will and devise it to the widow, heirs of my brother, P. S. Alewine, per stirpes in fee simple absolute.

I nominate and appoint Willie David Alewine to be the executor of this my Last Will and Testament hereby giving him full power to do any and everything necessary in carrying out the terms of this my last Will and Testament.

In Witness Whereof, I hereunto set my hand and seal to this my Last Will and Testament at my home in Level Land Community, Ardeville County, State of South Carolina, this 20th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

The Last Will and Testament of:
Mable Bowen

I, Mable Bowen, of Pinhook Community, Abbeville City, County and State aforesaid, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and desiring to make such disposition of my worldly estate as I deem best, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking my and all former wills and bequests whosoever by me made.

First: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as conveniently may be and to that end charge my whole estate, real and personal, with the same, hereby directing that a suitable monument be placed to mark my grave.

Second: I give and bequest to my beloved sister, Janie Barrett, all interest in Life Insurance Policies, after payment of this amount set out in the paragraphs above, and give and bequest unto her the following personally: all furniture in my bedroom, my trunk, my sewing machine, Brown Photograph, my china cabinet, my silver, all of my cut glass, all bedding in my room, including sheets, pillow cases, quilts, blankets and spreads, my immediate personal effects, my interest in wash boiler and tubs, and a small wood pt.

Third: I give and bequest to Mable Cate Scott the following personally: one of furniture formerly belonging to Sallie Cate, my deceased sister, wardrobe with mirror and box, Sallie's china cabinet, the bedding, sheets, pillow cases, spreads, quilts and blankets in my deceased sister's (Sallie) room, the largest and best rug from the living room, the dining room table and dining room chairs, radio, and my deceased sister's (Sallie) silver.

Fourth: I will and bequest to Edward Cate the following personally: two nice rockers from the living room, an odd dresser and wardrobe in the bathroom.

Fifth: I will and bequest to David Cate one wash pt.

Sixth: I will and bequest to Melvin Cate the following personally: the dining-room sofa, the range, kitchen safe, kitchen utensils and equipment.

Seventh: I will and bequest to Thomas M. Edwards the sidewalk.

Eighth: It is my will and desire that the curtains and shades are to remain as property of the home.

Ninth: I will and direct that desks, odd chairs, odd rug, odd silver, pictures and any other personally, not hereinbefore willed and bequeathed, be divided by my Executor as she sees fit between Mable Cate Scott, Edward Cate, David Cate and Melvin Cate.

Tenth: Should one or more of the above Cate children (Mable Cate Scott, Edward Cate, David Cate and Melvin Cate) predecease me leaving child or children, it is my will and desire that such child or children be willed and bequeathed the share or shares that would have gone to such deceased parent or parents.

Should one or more of the Cate children predecease me leaving no child or children, then in that case, I will and direct that such share or shares that would have gone to the deceased person or persons, had such been living, be equally divided by my Executor as she desires among the remaining ones as set out above.

Eleventh: I give and desire to my beloved sister, Janie Barrett, all of my real estate that I may die, seized and possessed of to be hers in fee simple absolute.

Twelfth: Should my sister, Janie Barrett, predecease me leaving child or children, I will and direct that the property hereinbefore willed, devised and bequeathed, go to such child or children. Should my said sister predecease me without leaving child or children, I will and direct that the property, real and personal hereinbefore willed, devised and bequeathed to her, go to Mable Cate Scott, Edward Cate, David Cate, and Melvin Cate, share and share alike, with full provision pertaining to them and/or their children, should one or more predecease me.

I nominate and appoint Mable Cate Scott to be the executor of this my last Will and Testament, hereby giving her full power and authority to do any and everything necessary to carry into full force and effect this my last Will and Testament.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this my last Will and Testament at Abbeville, South Carolina, this 17th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine.

And at the death of my wife the said property to be equally divided amongst my children, the child or children of any deceased child to take the share which otherwise would have gone to the parent.

Item 3. I hereby constitute and appoint my wife, Jennie Cain Lalloway, sole executrix of this my last will and Testament, hereby giving her full power and authority at anytime during her life while she remains my widow to sell and dispose of any or all of my property for the purpose of reinvestment, or for the purpose, if she deems it necessary, of raising funds for the support of herself and our children or any of them, and in case of a sale for reinvestment, which she is authorized to make, the funds are to be re-invested by her in other property, real or personal, which is to be held under like limitations to the property hereby willed, and with power to receive and reinvest as often as in her judgment it is to the advantage of my estate so to do. And in case of a sale for reinvestment or for the purpose of raising money for the support of herself and my children, or any of them, I hereby authorize and empower her to execute to the purchaser or purchasers of the property sold good and sufficient title in fee simple absolute; and hereby giving and granting to my said executrix power to do any and every other act necessary to carry this my will into full force and effect.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed my seal this the 10 day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and twenty-six.

David Polickoff

In the Name of God, Amen.

I, David Polickoff, of the City of Abbeville, in the County and State aforesaid, do hereby make, publish and declare the following as and for my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and instruments of a testamentary nature heretofore made by me.

First: I will, devise and bequeath all of my property of every nature and kind, both real, personal and mixed, to my beloved wife, Ethel Rachel Polickoff for and during the term of her natural life and at her death to my children, share and share alike, the child, or children of any predeceased child of mine to take the share the parent would have taken if living.

Second: I will, and direct that my said wife during her lifetime, and that my executors after her death, continue to conduct my mercantile business as I have done during my lifetime and until my youngest child reaches the age of twenty one years. I also direct that no sale of my stock of merchandise be made in bulk and that no conveyance of any of my real estate be made except with the written consent of my executrix and executors heretofore named, or the survivors of them.

Third: After the death of my said wife, I will and direct that my executors keep my estate intact and that no division thereof be made until my youngest child reaches the age of twenty-one years, and during the minority of my youngest child my executors are hereby given full authority to continue to conduct my mercantile business, or other interest, just as I have done during my lifetime.

Fourth: Should any of my children not have reached the age of twenty one years at the time of the death of my wife, I will and direct that my executor pay all expenses of the education, maintenance and support of my children, during their minority, out of my estate, and that no sums paid in these respects be charged against any of my children in final division and settlement of my estate.

Fifth: I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my said wife, Ethel Rachel Polickoff, and my sons W. Ethel Polickoff and J. Marion Polickoff to be executors of this my last will and testament.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 7th day of July, 1932.
