Stevenson and Lawrence Brownlee Stevenson.

I am seuer. I will, devise, and bequeath the real, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, to be divided into three equal shares to be disposed of as follows:

(A) to my son, William Martin Stevenson one share thereof.

(B) to my daughter, Mary Stevenson Butts one share thereof.

(C) to my son, Calvin Grier Stevenson, one share thereof. It is my desire that the share of Calvin Grier Stevenson he invested and that only the income therefrom be used, unless in an emergency and that if it become necessary to use any part of said principal, it be done with the consent and approval of his brothers, Robert Mason Stevenson, and Lawrence Brownlee Stevenson, and that the interest of my son, Calvin Grier Stevenson, shall at his death revert to his brother William Martin Stevenson and his sister, Mary Stevenson Butts.

Lastly, I hereby constitute and appoint Ralph Eskine Stevenson, and Mary Stevenson Butts as sole executors of this my last will and testament, hereby giving to the said executors full power and authority to do any and every act necessary to carry this will into full force and effect. I desire that the executors be allowed to serve without bond.

In witness whereof, the said Robert Milton Stevenson has signed and sealed the foregoing instrument, and published and declared the same as and for his last will and testament this 20th day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred forty.

The Last Will and Testament of:

Harriet Young Todd

I, Harriet Young Todd, of said County, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make this my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all others that I have heretofore made.

Item 1. I will, bequeath, and devise all of my property, both real and personal, of whatever kind and wherever situated, to my daughter, Eleanor E. Todd, to be hers absolutely and in fee simple forever. I give this property to show my great appreciation for the services rendered and care given me during my declining years. It is not my desire to disinherit any of my children, I love them all just the same.

Item 2. I hereby make my daughter, Eleanor E. Todd, executrix of this will, and I relieve her from making any inventory of my property or appraisal, or from giving any bond, and she is required only by this will to probate the will, and she is further relieved from making any returns of her acts and doings to any court whatever.

This 1st day of March, 1933.

Harriet Young Todd (Seal)

Declared, published, signed and sealed by Harriet Young Todd, as her last will and testament, in the presence of the undersigned as witnesses, she first signing in our presence, and we then, at her special instance and request, signing in her presence and in the presence of each other.

The Last Will and Testament of:

Sally Harrison

In the name of God, Amen:

I, Sally Harrison, of the County of Abbeville, in the State of South Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do hereby make, publish and declare the following as revoking all wills and instruments of a testamentary nature heretofore made by me.

First, I will and devise to my three youngest children, to wit; Ruth Norman, Len Patterson Harrison and Naomi Harrison, share and share alike, the following described real estate; to wit:

"Ninety-Six and three-fifths (96 $\frac{3}{5}$) acres of land, more or less, situated in Poppleville County, South Carolina, and being tracts #4 and #5 of the lands of the estate of George Harrison, deceased, which said lands were conveyed to me by B. E. Hill, master, by deeds which are recorded in the Office of the Clerk of Court for Abbeville County in Dead Book #36 at pages 108 and 109."

Second: The devise of the above described premises to my three children is made in lieu of any sum, or sums, of money which I may be due either of them as their portion.

Third: I will and bequest to my four children, to wit, Ruth Norman, Len Patterson Harrison, Naomi Harrison and George Harrison all of the personal property of which I may die seized and possessed.

Fourth, I will and direct that all other real estate of which I may die seized and possessed be sold by my Executors herein named at public auction to the highest bidder on some Saturday, after due advertisement thereof, and that out of the proceeds of sale my said Executors shall first pay all of my debts and funeral expenses, and the balance of said proceeds of sale shall be divided into nine (9) equal parts and one part paid over to each of my following named children, to wit, Alice Anderson, George Harrison, Ed Harrison, Imma Carter, Ruth Norman, Naomi Harrison and Len Patterson Harrison, and one part to be divided among the children of my deceased son Henry Harrison, share and share alike.

Fifth: I hereby constitute and appoint my son Len Patterson Harrison and my daughter Naomi Harrison to be my Executors of this my last will and testament.

The Last Will and Testament of:

Sarah N. Calhoun

I know all men by these presents, that I, Sarah N. Calhoun, of the City of Atlanta, of the County of Fulton, State of Georgia, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, and as to my worldly estate, and all the property, real, personal, or mixed of which I shall die seized and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, I devise, bequest, and dispose, wholly in the manner following to wit:

First - My wife is, that should my estate, real personal, or mixed, be found to be worth at my decease the sum of Thirty Five Thousand Dollars ($35,000.00) or more, I devise and bequest, as a special bequest to my daughter, Willie N. Calhoun, the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) over and above any other provision hereinafter made to her, should my estate be found at my decease not to be worth the sum of Thirty Five Thousand ($35,000.00) then and in that event this special bequest to my daughter, Willie N. Calhoun shall be the sum of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00) as above stipulated.

Second - All the rest and residue of my estate, real personal or mixed, of which I shall die possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at my decease, I give, devise, and bequest to my three beloved daughters, Saidee C. Cohen, Floride C. Martin, and Willie N. Calhoun to be divided equally between them here and there alike.

Third - It is my purpose, and I so desire and order that my two daughters Saidee C. Cohen and Floride C. Martin shall out of the above bequest to them each severally be accountable to my estate for the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) each.

Fourth - I do nominate and appoint my said daughters Saidee C. Cohen, Floride C. Martin and Willie N. Calhoun to be the executors of this my last will and testament with full power to act without the necessity of giving any bond in the premises.

In testimony whereof, I, the said Sarah N. Calhoun have to this my last will and testament subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 7th day of Aug. 1915.

The Last Will and Testament of:
R. L. Grant

To whom it may concern:
 Know all men by these presents, that I Robert Lee Grant, declare this to be my last will and Testament, thereby repealing all other wills and codicils that I may have heretofore made. Now being in fair health and sound mind, but realizing that a man must at some time die, and wishing to make such disposition of my worldly goods as I see best, I do hereby give and bequeath to my brother, John J. Grant one third of all my property real and personal, and to my sister Mrs. Mary E. Clark, one third of my property real and personal. The remaining third to be equally divided between my niece, viz: Maudie Estelle Lutherland, and Cass Lee Yellin. But before this division is made, I will to Mollie Bowen and her child, which she claimed to be mine, Ten Dollars each, although I never lived with the said Mollie Bowen and one law. Nevertheless I was forced at gun point through a farm of marriage with said Mollie Bowen. If said Mollie Bowen or said child be dead at the time of my death, either one or both, then this money shall be paid to their heirs or assigns. I do hereby appoint my brother John J. Grant of the City of Columbia and R. J. Martin of the Town of Abbeville both of these places being in South Carolina my executors to carry out my wishes. They are to serve without bond and without pay, I having full confidence in their love integrity and ability.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath to my nieces, (Mrs.) Clara Lou Adams Winget, (Mrs.) Maude Adams DeClamps and (Mrs.) Mary Adams Ellis, all of my personalty of whatsoever nature and kind, share and share alike. Should any of these predecease me leaving child or children, I will and direct that such child or children receive the share or shares that would have gone to the parent or parents if living.

Third: I give and devise to my nephew, Ralph W. Adams, my nieces, (Mrs.) Clara Lou Winget, (Mrs.) Maude Adams DeClamps and (Mrs.) Mary Adams Ellis, and to my two sisters, (Miss) Ada Wham and (Miss) Nina Wham, all my real estate of whatsoever nature and kind and whatsoever situate in fee simple absolute, share and share alike. Should any of these predecease me leaving child or children, I will and devise to such child or children the share or shares that would have gone to the parent or parents, if living in fee simple absolute. Should either of my said sisters, (Miss) Nina Wham or (Miss) Ada Wham predecease me, I will and devise that the share that should have gone to such sister go to the survivor. Should my nephew, Ralph W. Adams predecease me without leaving child or children I will and direct that the share that should have gone to him go to his three sisters, the said (Mrs.) Clara Lou Adams Winget, (Mrs.) Maude Adams DeClamps and Mrs. Mary Adams Ellis, share and share alike.

I nominate and appoint Ralph W. Adams, to be Executor of this my last Will and Testament hereby authorizing him to sell or otherwise dispose of either at private sale or public auction as he may deem best and on such terms as he may deem wise the personalty and realty of my said estate, if

Mrs. Margaret A. Crawford

I, Mrs. Margaret A. Crawford, declare this to be my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills made by me,
First: I direct that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my death as can conveniently be done, and that a suitable marker be erected at my grave.
second: as a special bequest, I direct my Executor to pay to Dr. H. B. Dressley of Due West, Seven Hundred Dollars for the following uses and purposes: to be held and invested by said Doctor, as he in his judgment deems best, so long as my afflicted son, Roscoe M. Crawford, lives, and upon the death of my son, Roscoe M. Crawford, the said Trustee is to pay out of said sum the funeral expenses of Roscoe and erect a suitable marker to his grave; pay to himself a bill that Roscoe owes Dr. Dressley in the sum of Twenty-five Dollars; pay himself the usual Commission for acting as such Trustee; and pay over the balance of any to the State Hospital of the State of South Carolina.
Third: I direct my Executor to sell and convert into cash all my property, of every kind, and after the payment of the sums set out in paragraphs first and second above, that the residue of my estate be equally divided among my five living children, namely: J. Arthur Crawford, R. E. Crawford, Maude C. Holliday, Anne C. Holliday, Robt. Z. Harper, and the children of my deceased child, J. P. Crawford, who are to receive the share that their father would have received if living; so that my estate shall be divided into six equal parts and each child or his heirs shall share alike, per stirpes and not per capita. During my lifetime I have made certain advances to my children and it is my will that each of them be required to account to my estate for the amounts herein set out before they receive any part of my estate, to wit:

1. The heirs of my son, J. P. Crawford, are to account for advances made to their father in the sum of One Thousand and Fifty-five Dollars and three cents, with simple interest from November 1st, 1931, at the rate of six per cent per annum.
2. My son, J. Arthur Crawford, is to account for the sum of One Thousand Dollars, with simple interest from March 1st, 1932, at the rate of six per cent per annum.
3. My son, R. E. Crawford, is to account for the sum of Twelve Hundred, fifty-seven Dollars and ninety two cents, with simple interest from November 1st, 1931, at the rate of six per cent per annum.

4. My daughter, Maude C. Holliday, is to account for the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, with simple interest from January 28th, 1939, at the rate of six per cent per annum.

5. My daughter, Anne C. Holliday, is to account for the sum of Nine Hundred Dollars from January 25th, 1939, and one hundred and twenty Dollars from August 27th, 1941, at the rate of six per cent per annum.

6. My daughter, Nolie Z. Harper, is to account for the sum of Two Thousand Dollars, with simple interest from January 10th, 1932 at the rate of six per cent per annum.

The above are the correct amounts due me as of the date of this Will. Should any repayments be made to me, I will give written receipt for same; and should I make any advances before my death, I will take a promissory note for the same and direct that it be accounted for the same as the above advances.

I wish: Should any of my children or their heirs contest this Will, or refuse to account for the advances herein set out, it is my Will that he or she be cut off from any share of my estate except for the sum of One Dollar.

Fifth: I nominate and appoint Harold Major of Anderson, S.C. as Executor of this my last Will and Testament, and stipulate that he receive for his pay, for serving as my Executor the usual fees and one-half per cent on all receipts and two and one-half per cent on all disbursements and to hire. I empower my Executor to sell at public or private sale, and to convey any or all of my said property, both real and personal, as he deems best.

 nephew, Professor L. N. Balloway, of Due West, hereby giving them full power and authority to do any and every act necessary to carry this will into full force and effect.
 In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed my seal this 25 day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight.

R. B. Balloway, Sr.

Signed, Sealed, Published and Declared by R. B.
 Balloway as and for his Last Will and Testament in our presence, and we, in his presence, at his request, and each in the presence of all other two, have hereto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses.
