I, John A. Libert, of Abbeville County, State of South Carolina, being now of sound mind, memory, and understanding do hereby declare this instrument of writing to be and contain my Last will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills or Codicils at any time heretofore made by me.

Item I. I direct my executor and executor, hereinafter named, to pay all of my just debts as soon after my death as may be practicable.

Item II. I will, devise, and bequeath unto my beloved daughter Annie Caroline Libert, to her and her heirs absolutely and forever, my tract of land known as "Summer House", consisting of approximately one hundred and seventeen (117) acres and located south of Willington, in my Carmel County, South Carolina.

Item III. I will, devise and bequeath all of my Stocks, Bonds, and Monies I may be possessed of, wherever located, unto my beloved wife Louise Dignum Libert and my beloved daughter Annie Caroline Libert share and share alike to them and their heirs forever.

Item IV. I give, devise, and bequeath unto my daughter Annie Caroline Libert, to her and her heirs forever all of my Libert Sterling Silverware consisting of and including teaspoons, spoons, forks and silver platters. Subject, however, to my wife Louise Dignum Libert retaining the possession and use thereof for and during the term of her natural life. Upon the death of my said wife the possession as well as the title to the said Silverware shall go to my said daughter, and such to my intention in this will so expressed.

Item V. I give devise and bequeath unto my daughter Annie Caroline Libert one (1) Glenlochan Dinner Ring, which contains a lock of that eminent South Carolina Statesman, John C. Calhoun's hair. The said ring to be turned over and possession thereof given to my said daughter, as and when it appears to my wife that my said daughter is capable of preserving and loving for, and appreciating the historical value thereof.
