In The Name of God, Amen:

I, Permelia B. Nickles, County of Abbeville, State of South Carolina, do make, publish and declare the following, as and for, my last will and testament, hereby revoking all wills and instruments of a testamentary nature heretofore made by me.

Item (1). I direct my executor herein after named, as soon after my death as may be practicable, to pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses, and to have a suitable monument erected to mark my last resting place, which I desire to be in Long Lane Cemetery in the plot where my parents now lie buried. I direct that such payments be made out of any cash or proceeds from the sale of bonds of which I may die seized and possessed.

Item (2). I will and bequeath to my brother, William S. Gordon, and my sister, Mamie B. Jones, all of my household and kitchen furniture to be divided between them, share and share alike. I will and bequeath to my sister, Mamie B. Jones, my gold watch and my gold ring.

Item (3). I will, devise and bequeath to my brother, William S. Gordon, and his wife, Janie Gordon, and his son Harvey Gordon and to the survivors of them in fee simple, Fifty (50) acres of land, the same to be cut from southeastern portion of my farm and upon which is situated the home in which I now live, and the remainder of said tract of land, I will, devise, and bequeath to my sister, Mamie B. Jones. The frontage of each tract on the paved highway shall be in proportion to the acreage devised to each, provided, however, that the northwestern boundary of the tract devised to my said brother come not nearer than one hundred Fifty (150) Feet of the home in which I now live.

Item (4). Should cash and bonds of which I may die seized and possessed, be not sufficient to pay all of my debts and funeral expenses, and the price of a monument aforesaid, I then direct that any deficiency be assessed in equal parts against the tract of land devised to my said brother and the tract devised to my said sister.

Item (5). Any estate of which I may die seized and possessed not herein before disposed of, I will, devise and bequeath to my said

E. B. Parkinson

In view of my advanced age, which warns me that I may lie long, he called house, I desire to make this which follows below my last will and testament: -

1. All cash, bank balances, insurance, and government bonds which I have on the date of my death and after paying all outstanding obligations, burial expenses, and cost of a grave-stone shall go to my wife, Mrs. Edna R. Parkinson to use as she may please.

2. The house and lot at the corner of Bonnes and College streets I give and bequeath to my wife, Mrs. Edna R. Parkinson to occupy as her home, to rent or lease, or to sell if in the judgment of our children as well as her own that is the joint thing to do. At the death of my above mentioned wife the property, if still in her possession, shall be sold and the proceeds of sale divided equally among the immediate heirs. This authorization of sale shall, however be subject to the following limitations: -

3. (Limiting 2):- I do for use as a home, or a temporary residence while children are being educated, or for sentimental reasons, any heir shall wish to have said house and lot, he shall have a first option on the same at a price not to exceed seventy five per cent of its market value at the time; and this price shall be divided equally among the other four heirs.

4. My household ^{and kitchen} furniture shall go to Mrs. Parkinson, to keep, or sell, or divide among our children, as she may wish.

5. My library Mrs. Parkinson, after reserving for herself such volumes or sets as she desires to keep, shall allocate to our children and grandchildren in the most satisfactory way possible. Volumes and sets which cannot be satisfactorily distributed or which no one wishes, shall revert to Mrs. Parkinson to be used or disposed of at her discretion.

6. My manuscripts I leave to Mrs. Parkinson reserving the right to copy any of these as I wish or may be able.

I, Grady Sable, of Abbeville County, in the State of South Carolina, being of sound mind and memory do hereby make, ordain, and declare this to be my last will and testament.

(1) I will and direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

(2) I will all of my personal property including household goods to my beloved wife.

(3) All the rest and residue of my property including the home place, I will and devise unto my wife for life, and at her death to be sold and the proceeds of sale divided equally between my eight children, William, Robert, Jack, Edwin, Theresa Ferguson, Evelyn Key, Shelby Jean, and Philip's Ann. I will my daughter Sara Davis the sum of One Dollar, in view of the fact that she did not join with the other six of my grown children in paying off the mortgage on my home when requested to do so.

(4) If my father shall be living in my home at the time of my death or within thirty days after the date of my death, it is my will and I so direct that my Executor shall sell the home place and divide the proceeds equally between my wife and the eight children named above and excepting Sara Davis. After the death of my wife, I direct my Executor to sell all of my property at public or private sale and divide the proceeds as herein directed.

(5) I nominate and appoint as my Executor of my will, Earl M. Rice, Attorney of Anderson South Carolina, and give him full power and authority to execute titles and do everything necessary to wind up my estate in accordance with my wishes as herein expressed.
