The Last Will and Testament of:

William A. Harris

I, William A. Harris, of Abbeville, in said State and County, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and desiring to make disposition of all of my property in case of death, do hereby make public and declare the following as and for my Last Will and Testament, to wit:

Item I: I direct my executor, hereinafter named, as soon after my death as practicable, to pay all of my just debts.

Item II: After the payment of my debts, I will, devise and bequeath the rest, residue and remainder of my property, real, personal and mixed, to my wife, Mrs. Maude Beckman Harris, in fee simple.

Item III: I hereby constitute and appoint my said wife, Mrs. Maude Beckman Harris, sole executor of this, my last will and testament, with full power to her to do any and every act necessary to carry this, my will, into effect, and without giving bond as such executor.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and affixed my seal this 7th day of January, A.D. 1938.

Wm William A. Harris (L.S.)

Signed, Sealed, Published and Declared by William A. Harris as and for his Last Will and Testament in our presence, and we, in his presence, at his request, and each of us in the presence of the other two, have hereunto signed our names as attesting witnesses thereto.

The Last Will and Testament of:

Henry C. Young

I, Henry C. Young, being of sound and disposing mind and memory do hereby make, publish and declare this my last will and testament hereby revoking all instruments of a testamentary nature by me heretofore made:

1st. I direct that my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

2nd. I own an undivided interest in certain family lands in Abbeville County, I give and devise said interest unto my sister, Leticia Young, and my brother, Carlos L. Young, for and during the term of their remaining natural lives and for the remaining natural life of the survivor of them, together with a similar life estate in all furniture and equipment of the dwelling house constituting a part of said real estate necessarily or conveniently used in the operation of said house as a place of residence by my said sister and brother or either of them.

3rd. I give and bequeath all, moneys, stocks, bonds, notes, proceeds of insurance policies and other cash assets of like nature constituting a portion of my personal estate to my sister Leticia Young, for and during the course of her natural life provided however she shall have the right in her absolute discretion to use any part or all the corpus of this gift for her own needs and comfortable maintenance, any portion of this bequest not consumed by my said sister to pass as a portion of my residuary estate.

4th I give, devise and bequeath any portions not herein above disposed of and the remainder in the lands and personal property disposed of under the terms of paragraph two hereof to be divided per capita amongst the children of Robert Lee Young, Thomas Coleman Young, Marian Julian Young, and J. B. Young, my predeceased brothers. Should my surviving brother be survived by children said children shall share per capita with my other nieces and nephews. In the event any of my nieces and nephews may have or shall predecease me survived by children I desire that the share their parent would have taken if living be divided per stirpes amongst the lineal descendants of said nephew or niece. My residuary estate shall include therein all property of which I may have the power of disposition by way of will.

The Last Will and Testament of:

Marshall M. Stone

I, Marshall M. Stone, of Donalds in said County and State, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding and desiring to make disposition of my property in case of death do hereby make, publish, and declare the following as, and for my last will and testament.

Item 1: I direct that all my just debts, and funeral expenses be paid by the Executor hereinafter named.

Item 2: I will and bequeath all my personal property such as all live stock, all farm implements, all household property to my loving, devoted, and true faithful wife, Ada McKinney Stone who has so cheerfully, willingly and tenderly me and our dear mother through so many illnesses which so often claimed her attention through long days and sleepless nights and not only the fevered brow and aching bed made easy, but all hearts made happy by her happy manner and her beautiful personality, and our hearts were filled with joy because of her earnest prayers to God for us. She has not only rendered this great service but has ever been ready to assist with financial affairs.

Item 3: I will and bequeath to my brothers and sisters, namely William Sumner Stone, Herman Livingston Stone, Bessie Agnew Stone and Delora Stone Bunt, the sum of ($1.00) one Dollar each.

Item 4: I will and devise to my wife Ada McKinney Stone, the tract of land in Donalds Township, Abbeville County in said State containing eighty and one half (80 1/2) acres.

In case my mother, Marion C. Stone, survives me, I request my wife, Ada McKinney Stone, to continue
