ITEM III

A. If my wife, Emmie Sullivan Maxwell, survives me, I direct my Executor to set aside a portion of all the rest, residue, and remainder of my property and estate, both real and personal, of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situated, of which I shall die seized or possessed or of which I shall be entitled to dispose of at the time of my death, equal to one-half (1/2) of the value of my adjusted gross estate (gross taxable estate less funeral and administration expenses, claims and debts, and estate or inheritance taxes) as finally determined for Federal estate tax purposes, less the value of all interests in property, if any, which pass or have passed to my wife under other provisions of this Will or otherwise than this Will, but only to the extent that such interests are for the purposes of the Federal estate tax included in determining my gross taxable estate and allowed as a marital deduction. All values shall be those finally determined for Federal estate tax purposes. In setting aside the said portion of my estate, my Executor is authorized to do so in money or in kind, or partly in money and partly in kind, with all values to be those finally determined for Federal estate tax purposes. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, my Executor shall set aside in said portion assets, including cash, fairly representative, on the date or dates of distribution, of appreciation or depreciation in the value of all property then available for distribution to the said portion to be set aside herein.

B. I give, devise, and bequeath the said portion of my estate so set aside as hereinabove provided to my Trustee hereinafter named, in trust, NEVERTHELESS, to hold, manage, invest and reinvest the same, to collect the income, and to pay over the net income, in monthly or quarterly installments, to my wife, Emmie Sullivan Maxwell, for and during the term of her natural life.

C. Upon the death of my said wife, the entire amount, including income, if any, remaining in said trust shall be distributed to such person or persons, or to the estate of my said wife, free from all trusts created hereunder, in such manner and in such proportions as my said wife may designate and appoint in and by her Last Will and Testament.

D. My trustee is authorized to have sole and absolute discretion at any time and from time to time to disburse to my said wife from the corpus of the trust such amounts as may be deemed advisable by said trustee to provide adequately for her maintenance, support, welfare and comfort. In determining the amounts of corpus to be so disbursed, if any, my trustee shall take into consideration any other income which my said wife may have from any other source, but not her capital resources, and my trustee's discretion shall be conclusive as to the advisability of any such disbursement and shall not be subject to judicial review.

E. In the event that my said wife shall fail to exercise the Power of Appointment herein granted to her, or to the extent that she shall not effectively exercise the Power, then, in either event, I will, bequeath, and devise the entire remaining amount thereof, including income, unto my daughter, Ruth Maxwell Norman, absolutely in fee or, if my said daughter is not living, then to her child or children, share and share alike.

F. Should my wife predecease me, then this Item III shall be inoperative, and I give, bequeath, and devise all of said trust to my daughter, Ruth Maxwell Norman, absolutely in fee, or if my said daughter is not living, then to her child or children, share and share alike.

ITEM IV

I direct that my Executor pay out of my residuary estate, without apportionment, all estate, inheritance and succession taxes imposed by the Government of the United States, or any state or territory thereof, or by any foreign government or political subdivision thereof, in respect of all property required to be included in my gross estate for estate or like tax purposes by any of such governments, whether the property passes under this Will or otherwise, without contribution by any recipient of any such property. The term "residuary estate" as used herein means the remainder of my estate after the payment of all death, funeral and administration expenses, specific bequests and devises, and after setting aside the "Marital Deduction" trust for the benefit of my wife as set out in the foregoing Item III of my Will.

ITEM V

A. Should my wife, Emmie Sullivan Maxwell, survive me, I give, bequeath, and devise all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, of every kind and nature whatsoever, herein termed my "Residuary Estate", unto my Trustee hereinafter named, IN TRUST, NEVERTHELESS, to hold, manage, invest, and reinvest the same, to collect the income therefrom, and to pay over the net income, in monthly or quarterly installments to my wife, Emmie Sullivan Maxwell, for and during the term of her natural life.

B. Upon the death of my said wife, my trustee shall pay and convey all the said trust estate of every kind and in his hands to my daughter, Ruth Maxwell Norman, absolutely and free from said trust, or if my said daughter is not living, then to her child or children, share and share alike.

C. My trustee is authorized to have sole and absolute discretion at any time and from time to time to disburse to my said wife from the corpus of the trust such amounts as may be deemed advisable by said trustee to provide adequately for her maintenance, support, welfare and comfort. In determining the amounts of corpus to be so disbursed, if any, my trustee shall take into consideration any other income which my said wife may have from any other source, but not her capital resources, and my trustee's discretion shall be conclusive as to the advisability of any such disbursement and shall not be subject to judicial review.

D. Should my wife predecease me, then this Item V shall be inoperative, and I give, bequeath, and devise all of said trust to my daughter, Ruth Maxwell Norman, absolutely in fee, or if my said daughter is not living, then to her child or children, share and share alike.

ITEM VI

Anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, if, at the termination of any trust created under this Will, all or a portion of the principal of such trust shall vest in absolute ownership in a minor or minors, or, if any part of my estate shall vest in absolute ownership in a minor or minors, I authorize and empower my trustee, in its discretion, to hold the property so vested in such minor, or any part thereof, in a separate fund for the benefit of such minor, notwithstanding that such property may consist of investments not authorized by law for trust funds, and to invest and reinvest the same, collect the income therefrom, and, during the minority of such minor, to apply so much of the principal and so much of the net income thereof to the support, education, and maintenance of such minor, as my Trustee shall see fit, and to accumulate, invest, and reinvest the balance of such income until such minor shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years, and thereupon to pay over the principal, together with any accumulated and undistributed income, to such minor, and, if such minor shall die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, the principal, together with any accumulated and undistributed income, shall be paid over to the estate of such minor. The authority conferred upon my Trustee by this Item shall be construed as a power only, and shall not operate to suspend the absolute ownership of such property by such minor or to prevent the absolute vesting thereof in such minor. With respect to the administration of any such property which shall vest in absolute ownership in a minor, and which shall be held by my trustee as herein authorized, my trustee shall have all the powers vested in it under the provisions of Item IX of this Will; and it shall be entitled to commissions at the rates payable to testamentary trustees.

ITEM VII

In the event that my wife, Emmie Sullivan Maxwell, and I shall die in a common accident or disaster or under such circumstances that it is difficult or impracticable to determine who survived the other, then I direct that for the purposes of this Will my wife shall be determined to have survived me.

ITEM VIII

For the purposes of settling my estate and carrying out the provisions of this Will and Testament, I hereby authorize and empower my Executor to sell and convey any part or all of my estate, at public auction or private sale, without court order, and on such terms as my Executor, in its uncontrolled discretion, may deem advisable, for the best interests of my estate, and to execute such instruments as may be necessary and proper to effectuate such purposes.

ITEM IX

In the administration of my estate and trusts and powers hereby established or created, my Executor and Trustee shall have the power to invest and reinvest the said trust funds and shall have full power and authority in its sole and absolute discretion to hold, retain, possess, manage, control, sell, convey, assign, transfer, mortgage, exchange, improve and lease (for any lawful period even though such period may extend beyond the duration of the administration of the estate or of the trust) the whole or any part of my property, real and personal, at any time held by it hereunder, for such prices and upon such terms and conditions as to my Executor and Trustee may seem advisable and shall have full power and authority in its sole and absolute discretion to hold, acquire, and retain any of the property coming into its hands or acquired by it in any manner hereunder in the same form of investment as that in which it was received or acquired by my trustee, although it may not be of the character of investments permitted by law to trustees.

My Executor and Trustee in its discretion may apportion between principal and income any money or other property coming into its possession, as well as any expenditures which in its opinion should be apportioned, notwithstanding the legal rules which might otherwise apply.

My Executor and/or my Trustee, in making investments and reinvestments shall not be limited to securities of the character permitted for the investment of trust funds by the laws of South Carolina but instead shall have power in its discretion, at any time, and from time to time, to invest in, and to purchase and hold for investment, such securities, including common and preferred stocks, mutual investment funds, or other property, as it, in its absolute and uncontrolled discretion, shall deem advisable, and from time to time to alter and vary any investments at any time made or held.

My Executor and Trustee shall have full power and authority to make, execute, and deliver any and all such instruments in writing as shall be necessary or proper to carry out any disposition whatever of any trust property; to carry in the name of its nominee or nominees, securities or other property requiring or permitting of registration.

ITEM X

No person dealing with my Executor or my Trustee shall be bound to see to the application or disposition of cash or other property transferred to my Executor or Trustee, or to inquire into the authority for or propriety of any action by my Executor or Trustee.

ITEM XI

I hereby nominate, constitute, and appoint The County Bank as Executor and Trustee under this my Last Will and Testament, and I direct that no bond or undertaking shall be required of it in any court, place, or jurisdiction for the faithful performance of its duties as Executor or Trustee.

WILL

I, Paul N. Hagan, of Abbeville County, South Carolina, declare this to be my Will, and I revoke any prior wills and codicils made by me. This Will is in four parts. Part 1 defines certain terms used in the rest of the instrument. Part 2 contains the provisions which deal with the disposition of my estate. Part 3 names the persons or institutions who will administer my estate, and Part 4 sets forth certain provisions governing that administration.

PART 1 - DEFINITIONS

1.1 Gender. The masculine gender shall be deemed to include the feminine and the neuter as the context may require.

1.2 Number. The singular shall be deemed to include the plural as the context may require.

1.3 Fiduciary. The term "Fiduciary" is used collectively and includes my Executor and any Trustee named hereunder. Where the term "Executor" or "Trustee" is used, it is used advisedly and to the exclusion of the other.

1.4 Tangible Personal Property. The term "Tangible Personal Property" includes all of my clothing, jewelry, personal effects, automobiles and all other tangible personal property, including any insurance thereon, except cash on hand, gold or silver coins or bullion, and any tangible personal property customarily used in any business or farming operation in which I shall be engaged or interested at the time of my death. That term also excludes all of the furniture, furnishings and household goods located in my residence, these articles being the property of my spouse.

1.5 Spouse. The term "spouse" shall mean my wife, Nell G. Hagan.

PART 2 - DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

2.1 Payment of Debts and Expenses. I direct that my funeral expenses, the costs of administering my estate and all legal debts allowed as claims against my estate be paid out of the general funds of my estate.

2.2 Payment of Taxes. I direct that all estate, inheritance or other taxes imposed by reason of my death (but excluding any taxes imposed on generation-skipping transfers under the federal tax law) upon property passing under or outside this Will be paid out of that portion of my residuary estate which is not included in the share qualifying for the marital deduction.

2.3 Bequest of Tangible Personal Property. All of my Tangible Personal Property I give to my spouse, if living at my death; and if not, to my surviving children in shares of approximately equal value. In event of any disagreement in division, my Executor shall have power to make final and conclusive division. My Executor may deliver any or all of such property to any minor entitled thereto; provided, however if, in the sole discretion of my Executor, it shall not be practicable to distribute all or any part of the foregoing property to such minor or to store it until such minor reaches majority, then my Executor may sell the same and add the proceeds to the residue of my estate to be distributed as hereinafter provided. Any expenses incurred in protecting, delivering or selling such property shall be paid from my residuary estate as an administrative expense.

2.4 Residue. If my spouse survives me, the residue of my estate shall be divided into two shares as follows:

One share, called the MARITAL SHARE, shall be an amount which, together with the total of any other amounts allowed as a marital deduction in the federal estate tax proceeding relating to my estate, shall equal the maximum allowable marital deduction; provided that this amount shall be reduced by an amount, if any, needed to increase my taxable estate to the largest amount which, after allowing for the unified credit against the federal estate tax and any other allowable credits, will result in no federal estate tax being imposed on my estate. In computing the maximum allowable marital deduction for purposes of the preceding sentence, all transfers as to which I am the "deemed transferor", under Chapter 13 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, shall be disregarded.

In making the computations necessary to determine the amount of this share, values as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes shall control. My Executor may, in setting aside this share, distribute assets in cash or in kind or partly in cash and partly in kind, using values determined as of the date of distribution. No asset shall be allocated to this share if it does not qualify for the marital deduction. To the extent possible, no asset should be so allocated if it would constitute income in respect of a decedent (as that term is utilized in Section 691 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended) when received by any beneficiary. To the extent possible, at least Twenty Thousand ($20,000) Dollars of life insurance proceeds other than proceeds of life insurance received under any qualified pension or profit sharing plan shall be allocated to this Share.

The other share, called the FAMILY SHARE, out of which all inheritance, estate or other transfer taxes are to be paid, shall consist of the remaining portion of my estate. However, in the event my spouse predeceases me, the entire residue of my estate shall constitute the FAMILY SHARE.

2.5 Marital Share. The MARITAL SHARE shall be held as the MARITAL TRUST on the following terms and conditions:

A. Payments to My Spouse. My Trustee shall pay the entire net income from this trust in at least quarter-annual installments to or for the benefit of my spouse and may pay to or for the benefit of my spouse amounts of the principal in the Trustee's discretion.

B. Spouse's Power of Appointment. Upon the death of my spouse, my Trustee shall pay any undistributed income to her estate, and the entire remaining principal of this MARITAL TRUST, as it may then exist, shall be paid as my spouse may, by a will in which specific reference is made to this power, direct and appoint, including the right to appoint in trust or to her estate. In default of such appointment, principal in an amount sufficient to pay all death taxes occasioned by the inclusion of this trust in the taxable estate of my spouse shall be paid directly to the taxing authorities upon receipt of written notice from her executor or administrator, and all of the principal not so appointed or thus paid shall be added to and consolidated with the FAMILY TRUST and held, managed, administered and distributed as an integral part thereof. The Trustee is authorized to rely, and is relieved of liability in so relying, upon any instrument admitted to probate in common or solemn form as the will of my spouse.

2.6 Family Share. The FAMILY SHARE shall be held as the FAMILY TRUST on the following terms and conditions:

A. Distribution Before Division. At any time after my death, my Trustee, in its discretion, may distribute to or for the benefit of my spouse, my children and my grandchildren amounts of the income and principal of this trust, bearing in mind that my primary concern is for the welfare of my spouse and my secondary concern is for my children. To the extent practical, no distribution of principal should be made to my spouse from this trust until the principal of the MARITAL TRUST is exhausted. Any income not so distributed shall, at least annually, be added to principal and become a part thereof.

B. Separate Trusts. Upon the death of my spouse, my Trustee shall add all undistributed income to principal and then divide that sum into a sufficient number of equal shares to create one share for each child of mine who is then living and one share for the then living descendants (collectively) of each child of mine who is then deceased. Each such share shall then be held and managed as a separate trust by my Trustee and distributions shall be made as follows:

1. Share for Child. Each such share created for a child of mine shall be paid over and distributed to such child outright, free of trust.

2. Share for Descendants. Each such share created for the descendants of a deceased child of mine shall be paid over and distributed to the descendants of such deceased child, per stirpes, subject to the provisions hereinafter made for trusts during minority.

PART 3 - FIDUCIARIES

3.1 Executors. I appoint Judy H. Bryson and Paul G. Hagan as Executors under this Will, to serve without bond. If either individual for any reason fails to qualify or ceases to act, then the other shall act as sole Executor.

3.2 Trustees. I appoint Judy H. Bryson and Paul G. Hagan as Trustees under this Will, to serve without bond. If either individual for any reason fails to qualify or ceases to act, then the other shall act as sole Trustee.

PART 4 - ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

4.1 Powers. My Fiduciary shall have, in addition to those powers conferred by law or otherwise, the following discretionary powers, whether or not personally interested in the exercise of any such powers. The term Fiduciary shall include any person or corporation administering my estate and the trust under this will:

A. To sell at public or private sale and to exchange or partition all or any part of the property held by it as fiduciary, without order or license from any court, and to execute any and all deeds and other instruments necessary or appropriate therefor, with or without covenants, warranties and representations.

B. On any division or distribution of any estate property, to make the same in cash or in kind or partly in each, and to exercise the powers provided for in this Article after the termination of my estate until the same is fully distributed.

C. To settle by compromise, arbitration or otherwise any and all claims and demands in favor of or against or in any way relating to my estate, upon such terms as my Fiduciary deems advisable, including inheritance taxes on present or future interests, and any controversy as to the interpretation of this will or the administration of my estate.

D. To pay any expenses involved in the delivery of any article of tangible personal property and to charge the same as an expense of administration.

E. To administer, invest, and reinvest the trust fund in any property, including real and personal property, stocks, bonds, and other securities, investment companies and common trust funds (without the necessity of notice to beneficiaries), in any state or jurisdiction, and whether or not of a kind or in a proportion ordinarily considered suitable for trust investments. To make secured or unsecured loans and, with respect to mortgages and other security held by the trust, to modify the terms thereof, to release partially, to foreclose and to purchase at foreclosure sales. To permit all or any part of the trust property to be held in the custody of a banking institution or brokerage house.

F. To participate in any reorganization, recapitalization, merger or similar transaction; to give proxies or powers of attorney with or without power of substitution for voting upon any shares or certificates of interest belonging to the trust.

G. To carry stock certificates and other property of the trust in the form of street certificates or in the name of a nominee or any person, including the Trustee, or in any other form, without disclosing the existence of any trust.

4.2 Trustee Discretion. Wherever in this will my Trustee is given authority to pay to or apply for a beneficiary amounts of income and principal in my Trustee's discretion, such discretion, unless otherwise specifically limited, is considered to mean amounts deemed necessary or advisable for such beneficiary's maintenance, education (including preparatory, technical, collegiate and/or graduate), support, comfort and general welfare; provided, however, that no Trustee shall participate in the exercise of any discretionary power over income or principal, or in any consideration of the exercise thereof, if such trustee is or could be a beneficiary of such discretionary power.

4.3 Trustee Accountings. My Trustee shall not be required to file any periodic inventory or accounting with respect to any trust created herein with any court, even though otherwise required by law, but it shall file annual accounts of receipts and disbursements of cash and principal held with each adult beneficiary and the guardian or person having custody of each minor beneficiary.

4.4 Trust During Minority. Whenever any part of the principal of any trust created hereunder shall become distributable to a person who is then under the age of twenty-one (21), hereafter called a minor, as his absolute property, my Trustee, in its discretion, may withhold distribution of such property and invest and reinvest the same, collect the income therefrom and, during the minority of such minor, apply amounts of the net income or principal for the benefit of such minor without the intervention of any guardian and accumulate, invest and reinvest the balance of such income, if any, until such minor attains the age of twenty-one (21) years and, thereupon, shall pay over to him the unexpended principal and income so withheld. If such minor dies before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, all such principal and income shall be paid over to the estate of such minor. The authority conferred upon my Trustee by this paragraph shall not operate to suspend or prevent the absolute vesting of any property in such minor. With respect to the administration of any such property, my Trustee shall have all the powers, authority and discretion vested in it under the provisions of this Will.

4.5 Special Termination. Any trust still in existence on the day twenty-one (21) years after the death of the last to die of all the beneficiaries herein named or described who are living at the date of my death shall terminate and be paid to those persons then entitled to the income therefrom, and in default thereof, to the persons who would be the Final Beneficiaries under PART 2 of this Will.

4.6 Survivorship. Any beneficiary other than my spouse who shall not be living thirty days after my death shall be deemed to have predeceased me. If the order of death of my spouse and myself cannot be established by proof, my spouse shall be deemed to have survived me.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have signed my name and set my seal to this my Will on this day, Oct 31, 1978.
