LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF

JAMES B. EVANS

I, JAMES B. EVANS, of Abbeville County, South Carolina, do hereby make and publish this as my Last Will and Testament and hereby revoke all previous Wills and Codicils by me made.

1. I give, devise, and bequeath my entire estate, real and personal, and all property over which I shall have any power of disposition by will, whether acquired before or after the execution of this will to my son, JEFFERY WILLARD EVANS, in fee simple if he shall survive me, or, if he predeceases me then to my grandson, JEFFERY SCOTT EVANS, in fee simple.

2. I appoint my son, JEFFERY WILLARD EVANS Executor of this my will. If, however, he shall fail to qualify or cease to act as Executor, I appoint ROBERT L. HAWTHORNE, JR., Executor in his place. I direct that neither shall be required to furnish any bond.

3. I express the hope and desire that my son, JEFFERY WILLARD EVANS will adequately care for the comfort and support of my wife, MINNIE RUTH R. EVANS, during her lifetime, if she shall survive me, but I expressly declare that I do not intend to create any charge or lien on the property which I have devised and bequeathed, nor any trust in law or in equity with respect to any property.

4. I authorize my Executor to allot, assign, care for, collect, contract with respect to, convey, convert, deal with, dispose of, enter into, exchange, hold, improve, invest, lease, manage, mortgage, create security interests in, grant and exercise options with respect to, take possession of, pledge, receive, release, repair, sell, sue for, and in general, to do any and every act and thing and to enter into and carry out any and every agreement with respect to the property included in my estate which he could do if he were the absolute owner thereof, upon such terms and conditions as my Executor may deem best, and to execute and deliver any and all instruments and to do all acts which such Executor may deem proper or necessary to carry out the purposes of this will, and without the necessity of a court order.

5. The devise or bequest of any property in this will is subject to the provision, however, that the share of any such minor beneficiary shall immediately vest in such minor, but my Executor shall transfer, convey and assign such property to himself as Trustee and shall hold the property of such minor in trust for such minor during minority using so much of the income and principal of the property as my Trustee shall deem necessary to provide for the proper support, medical care and education of such minor taking into consideration to the extent my Trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of such minor, until such minor attains his or her majority, and thereupon pay the balance then remaining to such beneficiary absolutely. If such minor shall die prior to attaining majority the balance then remaining shall be paid over and distributed to such minor's estate.

6. I have in mind but make no provisions in this will for my children, other than Jeffery, because, during my lifetime I have already provided for and made gifts to my other children.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, A. P. Durham, of the County of Anderson, State of South Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, do make, ordain, publish and declare this as and for my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all wills and instruments of a testamentary nature heretofore by me made.

ITEM I.

I will and direct that my body shall be decently interred, that a suitable marker be erected to mark my grave, and all expenses therefor be paid out of my estate.

ITEM II.

I direct that my legally enforceable debts and my funeral expenses be paid as soon after my death as may be practical, and I authorize and empower my executor, in case of any claim made against my estate, to settle and discharge the same in its absolute discretion. For convenience, my executor shall be referred to herein by the third person singular.

ITEM III.

(A) I will and bequeath unto my wife, Louise Shell Durham, if she survives me, all of my right, title and interest that I may have at the time of my death in the furnishings and tangible property customarily used in our home which is our principal residence.

(b) I will and bequeath all my tangible personal property not otherwise effectively disposed of by this my Last Will and Testament in as nearly equal shares as possible to be divided between my wife, Louise Shell Durham and my daughter, Annetto Durham Kidd, such division to be made by my executors in their sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that it is my desire that my said wife be permitted her selection of one of my automobiles and that, in the discretion of my executors, my other vehicles, farm equipment and any cattle that I may have at the time of my death be sold along with any personal property not distributed hereunder and the proceeds therefrom used to pay my funeral expenses, debts and estate taxes. Any determination as to the division of property made or other action taken by my executors pursuant to the provisions of this Item shall be conclusive upon all persons interested in my estate.

(c) I will and bequeath to my Trustee as hereinafter named $3,600.00 to be invested, held and distributed in the following manner: Commencing with the date of my death my Trustee shall pay $100.00 per month to my sister, Mrs. Anne D. Arnold, for a period of thirty-six (36) months or until her death, whichever shall first occur. Payments to my sister shall not exceed the total sum of $3,600.00. If my said sister shall have predeceased me, or upon her subsequent death or the payment to or for the benefit of my said sister of $3,600.00, the remaining principal and accumulated but undistributed income shall be added to and become part of the portion of my trust hereinafter set forth in Subparagraph (b) of Item IV or to Subparagraph (b) of Item V of this my Last Will and Testament if my wife shall not be living at the date of such occurrence.

(d) I direct that the expense of packing, shipping and delivering any of my tangible personal property to a beneficiary or to such beneficiary's residence or place of business shall be paid by my executor as an administration expense of my estate.

ITEM IV.

If my wife, Louise Shell Durham, shall survive me, I will, devise and bequeath unto my Trustee hereinafter named, in Trust, a pecuniary sum which shall consist of the maximum amount which can pass free of Federal estate tax in my estate by reason of the unified credit and any state death tax credit (provided use of this credit does not

For the purpose of establishing the amount of the trust herein, the final determination, whether by agreement, litigation or otherwise, in the Federal estate tax proceeding in my estate shall be used. I recognize that it is possible no sum may be disposed of by this Item and that any sum so disposed of may be affected by the Executor in exercising certain tax election. The words "unified credit", "gross estate", "marital deduction" and "charitable deduction", shall have the same meaning as said words shall have under the provisions of the United States Internal Revenue Code applicable to my estate.

In satisfying the devise or bequest pursuant to this item, my executor is authorized to make distribution in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind, and each item of property or interest in property distributed in kind is to be valued at the date of its distribution; provided, however, that in all events such distribution shall include all property and interest in property which does not qualify for the Federal estate tax marital deduction and the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of any such property or interest in property and, to the extent practicable, (a) any property or interest in property located outside the United States of America and subject to any foreign death tax, including securities issued by, or other evidences of interest in Corporations organized outside the United States of America, or the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of any such property or interest in property and (b) any property or interest in property, including any right to receive income, which shall be eligible in any way for a tax credit or deduction because it shall be subject to both Federal income tax and the Federal estate tax under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to my estate.

My Trustee shall pay over to or use and expend the net income and principal as follows:

(a) To the extent that the trust as provided in this Item IV can be so funded, my Trustee shall set aside and hold for the benefit of my daughter, Annette Durham Kidd, the real estate constituting my farm in Abbeville County, South Carolina, and distribute the same to my daughter Annette Durham Kidd, upon her written request; provided, however, that if my said daughter shall die without having made such written request or making a specific provision therefor in her Will, said farm shall be distributed to my grandchildren in equal shares free and discharged from the trust herein.

(b) My Trustee shall hold the rest, residue and remainder of the trust assets as established pursuant to this Item IV, if any, and pay over to or expend for the benefit of my wife, my daughter and/or any one or more of my grandchildren living at the time, who as a class are beneficiaries of this trust, so much of the net income and so much of the principal as the Trustee in its sole and absolute discretion may deem necessary for the reasonable maintenance and support of my wife and the reasonable maintenance, support, welfare, comfort and education of each of the other beneficiaries, such payments being made without necessarily observing any rule or precept of equality, the said payments of income and/or principal to be made at convenient intervals during the lifetime of the beneficiaries; provided, however, that at the end of the Trustee's accounting year after the death of my wife, the principal and accrued but undistributed income of the trust as set forth in this Subparagraph (b) of this Item IV shall be held, administered, and distributed in accordance with the terms and conditions of Subparagraph (b) of Item V of this my Last Will and Testament.

ITEM V.

I will, devise and bequeath all of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal or mixed, of every kind, nature and description and wheresoever situate, of which I may die seized or possessed, or to, or in, which I may have any right, title or interest at my death, including all future interests and all property hereinabove ineffectively disposed of because of lapse or for any other reason; but excluding all property, if any, over which I may have a power of appointment, it being my intention that this residuary disposition shall not exercise any such power; all of which is hereinafter referred to as my "residuary estate".

(a) If my wife, Louise Shell Durham, shall survive me.

During my said wife's lifetime, I direct with regard to this Subparagraph (a)

(1) My Trustee shall pay over to, or apply to the benefit of, my wife all of the net income of this trust in quarterly payments or at more frequent intervals as may be directed by my said wife.

(2) My Trustee may, at any time or from time to time, pay to, or apply for the benefit of my wife, so much or all of the principal of this residuary estate trust as my

Trustee, in its sole discretion, deems necessary or desirable, for the support, maintenance, health comfort, or general welfare of my wife.

Upon the death of my wife my Trustee shall distribute my residuary estate trust as established pursuant to this Subparagraph (a):

(1) To such persons or to her estate upon such conditions, in trust or otherwise, in such manner and at such time as she appoints and directs by Will specifically referring to this power of appointment; and

(2) In default of such appointment as to any part of all thereof to add to and administer the same pursuant to the terms and conditions of Subparagraph (b) of this Item V of my Last Will and Testament.

To the extent permitted by applicable state law and the Internal Revenue Code, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, my wife may disclaim or renounce her rights and those of her estate to receive the income and principal from, together with her rights to appoint any portion or all of the principal or accrued income pursuant to the Trust in this Subparagraph (a), as she may specify in an instrument in writing deposited with my executor within nine (9) months after my death, and in such event such portion so disclaimed or renounced shall not pass under this Subparagraph (a) but instead shall pass and be governed by the provisions of Subparagraph (b) of this Item V of this my Last Will and Testament. In the event that my wife dies within nine (9) months after my death without having disclaimed any rights as described herein, the executor or administrator of my wife's estate may file a disclaimer on behalf of her and her estate by depositing an instrument of disclaimer in writing with my executor within nine (9) months after my death, and in such event such portion so disclaimed shall pass and be governed by the provisions of Subparagraph (b) of this Item V of this my Last Will and Testament.

(b) In the event that my said wife shall not survive me and/or in the event of and to the extent of disclaimer or renunciation of any portion of my estate heretofore devised or bequeathed, I will, devise and bequeath that my residuary estate trust as passed pursuant to this Subparagraph (b) of Item V of My Last Will and Testament be administered in the following manner and in and upon the following terms and conditions:

(1) In the event that my daughter, Annette Durham Kidd, shall be living at the time that any property shall pass pursuant to this Subparagraph (b) of Item V of my Last Will and Testament, the Trustee shall pay over the same free and discharged of the trust herein to my said daughter, Annette Durham Kidd.

(2) If my daughter, Annette Durham Kidd, shall not be living at the time that any property shall be added to the trust as set forth in this Subparagraph (b) of Item V of my Last Will and Testament, I direct that my Trustee shall pay over to or use and expend for the benefit of my grandchildren, who as a class are beneficiaries of this trust, so much of the net income and so much of the principal, if income be insufficient, as the Trustee in its sole and absolute discretion may deem necessary for the reasonable maintenance, support, welfare, comfort and education of each of such beneficiaries, such payments being made without necessarily observing any rule or precept of equality, the said payments of income and/or principal to be made at convenient intervals during the lifetime of the beneficiaries; provided, however, that at the end of the Trustee's accounting year after the addition of property to this trust, if any of my grandchildren have at that time attained either twenty-five (25) or thirty (30) years of age, a proportionate share of the trust fund shall be established for each of my grandchildren for the purpose of computation herein: that each of my grandchildren who shall have attained the age of twenty-five (25) years shall be entitled to one half of said grandchild's then proportionate share and each grandchild who shall have attained the age of thirty (30) years shall be entitled to such grandchild's entire then proportionate share; that at the end of my Trustee's accounting year in which each grandchild shall reach the age of twenty-five (25) years, a proportionate share of the trust fund shall be established for the purpose of computation of each such beneficiary's share of the trust fund and each such grandchild, upon reaching the age of twenty-five (25) years, shall be entitled to one half of said grandchild's then proportionate interest.

That at the close of my Trustee's accounting year when each grandchild shall reach the age of thirty (30) years, a proportionate share of the trust fund shall be established for each grandchild for the purpose of computation so as to determine such grandchild's proportionate share of the trust fund and each such grandchild, upon reaching the age of thirty (30) years, shall be then entitled to the remainder of such grandchild's proportionate share in said trust fund. It is specifically directed that the proportionate distribution for the said grandchildren may be made in cash or in kind in the absolute discretion of my said Trustee.

(3) If any of my grandchildren shall die, leaving natural or legally adopted children surviving, before such grandchild shall be entitled to receive his or her respective distribution or distributive share or shares, his or her proportion of the trust, together with all proportionate

Property and cash distributable to a minor under this Will may be distributed by my executor to such minor personally or to such minor's legal guardian, or to some other person for such minor, and the receipt of such minor, or such minor's legal guardian, or such other person, shall be a complete discharge of my executor in regard to such distribution.

I hereby authorize my executor to retain any investments which I may own at the time of my death and which, in its judgment, it is advisable so to do and to deliver the same to the residuary trustee in kind. I further authorize my executor to invest any funds at any time in its hands in such stock, bonds, securities, investments or other evidences of indebtedness as to my executor shall seem prudent, with full power and authority to purchase investments as aforesaid at a premium, and in its discretion, to deduct all or any part of such pre-

In the administration of my trust and estate established hereby, the Executor and Trustee shall have the following powers:

(a) To retain, and in its absolute discretion and for such period as to it shall seem advisable any and all investments and other properties held by me at my death without liability for any loss incurred by reason of the retention of such investment or property.

(b) To change investments and properties, and to invest and reinvest all or any part of the corpus of my estate or of any of the trusts hereby created in such securities, investments or other property including an undivided interest in any one or more common trust funds maintained by a professional Executor/Trustee as it may deem advisable and proper, irrespective of whether the same are authorized for the investment of trust funds by the laws of the State of South Carolina.

(c) To sell all or any part of the property of whatsoever kind of which I may die seized or possessed, or to or in which I may be or become in any way entitled or have any interest whatsoever or over which I may have any power of appointment, or which at any time may constitute a part of my estate or of the trusts hereby established, at such times, upon such terms, for cash or on credit, with or without security, in such manner and at such prices, either by public or private sale, as to it shall seem advisable and proper, and to execute good and sufficient deeds and bills of sale therefor.

(e) To borrow money, whether to pay taxes, exercise subscriptions, rights and options, pay assessments or to accomplish any other purpose of any nature incidental to the administration of my estate and any trust hereby established, and to pledge any securities or other property held by it as security therefor.

(f) To enforce any bonds, mortgages or other obligations or liens held hereunder; to enter into such contracts and agreements and to make such compromise or settlement of debts, claims or controversies as it may deem necessary or advisable; to submit to arbitration any matter or differences; to vote personally or by proxy any shares of stock which may at any time be held by it hereunder; and similarly to exercise by attorney any rights or pertinences to any other securities or other property at any other time held by it hereunder.

(l) To permit any person having any interest in the income of any trust created herein to occupy any real property forming part of such trust as the Trustee shall deem proper, whether rent free, or in consideration of the payment of taxes, insurance, maintenance and ordinary repairs, or otherwise.

(m) Except as otherwise directed, to make any division or distribution required under the terms of my Will or the trusts hereunder in kind or in money, or partly in kind or partly in money, and to that end to allot to any part or share such stock, securities or other property, real or personal, as to it seems proper in its absolute discretion, and its judgment as to the value of such stock, securities or other property so allotted shall be conclusive on all parties, provided, however, that the Executor/Trustee shall not be required to make physical division of the funds except when necessary for the distribution of principal but may, in its discretion, keep any trusts in one or more consolidated funds; nor shall the Executor/Trustee be required to make any provision on account of the diminution or increase in value of any securities or investments at any time constituting a part of my estate or the trusts hereby established or for depreciation in respect of any tangible property, or for the purpose of amortizing or making good any amounts paid in premiums on the purchase of securities or of any other property.

circumstances of any particular situation as to the wisest and best course to pursue, without the necessity of obtaining the consent or approval of any court, and notwithstanding that it may also be acting as an individual, or as trustee of other trusts, or as agent for other persons or corporations interested in the same matters as stockholders, directors or otherwise; and any trusts herein created have been so made in contemplation of such freedom of judgment and action.

(o) The powers herein granted to my Executor/Trustee may be exercised in whole or in part, from time to time, and shall be deemed to be supplementary to and not exclusive of the general powers of fiduciaries pursuant to law, and shall include all powers necessary to carry the same into effect. The enumeration of a specific power herein shall not be construed in any way to limit or affect the general powers herein granted. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Item, the Executor/Trustee shall not exercise any power in a manner inconsistent with the right of the beneficial enjoyment of trust property accorded to a life beneficiary of a trust under the general provisions of the law of trusts.

(p) A corporate Executor/Trustee shall be entitled to compensation in administering and distributing the Estate and Trust property according to its standard fee schedule then in effect and to reimbursement for its payment of trust expenses.

(q) Notwithstanding anything else herein to the contrary, if at any time my estate or a trust created herein shall have as an asset a policy of insurance on the life of a Trustee or Executor, such Trustee or Executor shall have no right or authority to deal with such policy of insurance. exercise all incidents of ownership. If there is not a co-executor or co-trustee, then the Trustee shall appoint a third party to deal with said policy and all incidents of ownership related thereto.

ITEM IX.

In the event that all or any part of my estate or trust shall be distributable to and vested in a minor, my Executor/Trustee is authorized and empowered, in its absolute discretion, to hold the property so distributable and vested in such minor, or any part thereof, in a separate fund for the benefit of such minor, notwithstanding that such property may consist of investments not authorized by law for trust funds, and to invest and reinvest the same, collect the income therefrom, and, during the minority of such minor to apply so much of the net income or principal thereof to the support, education and maintenance of such minor, as my Executor/Trustee shall see fit, and to accumulate, invest and reinvest the balance of the income until such minor shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years and thereupon pay over the corpus, together with any accumulated and undistributed income, to such minor. If such minor shall die before attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years, the corpus, together with any accumulated and undistributed income, shall be paid over to the estate of such minor. The authority conferred upon my Executor/Trustee by this paragraph shall be construed as a power only and shall not operate to suspend the absolute ownership of such property by such minor but to prevent the absolute vesting therein of such minor with respect to the administration of any such property which shall vest in the absolute ownership in a minor and which shall be held by the Executor/Trustee as authorized in this paragraph.

- (c) To some relative or friend for the care, support, and education of such beneficiary;
- (d) By the Executor/Trustee, using such amounts directly for such beneficiary's care, support and education.

ITEM XI.

All stocks, bonds, bank accounts, saving accounts, building and loan accounts or other similar property I may own at the time of my death in my name and/or a Joint Tenant which are in turn payable on or after my death to such survivor shall be the sole property of such survivor and my executor shall make no claim against the Joint Tenant on account thereof.
