COUNTY OF GREENWOOD)

I, EDDIE MOSS, a resident of and domiciled in the County of Greenwood, State of South Carolina, hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament.

I T E M I.

I hereby revoke all other Wills and Codicils at any time heretofore made by me.

I T E M I I.

I direct that all my just debts, obligations and funeral expenses be paid by my Executrices as early as may be practical after my death, from any such funds or property left by me as my Executrices may deem advisable to appropriate for such purposes; however I direct that my Executrices may cause any debt to be carried, renewed and refinanced from time to time upon such terms and with such securities for its repayment as my Executrices may deem advisable taking into consideration the best interest of the beneficiaries hereunder. I further authorize my Executrices to settle and discharge any claims against my estate in their absolute discretion and to plead the Statute of Limitations whenever applicable.

I T E M I I I.

If my wife Helen Moss shall survive me, I give and bequeath to her all my tangible personal property, and also all my intangible personal property of every kind, including but not limited to cash, savings accounts, certificates and bank deposits, absolutely and forever.

I T E M I V.

Our daughter Alma White, currently of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, has agreed with me and my wife that if either or both of us should decide that we desire and need care and attention, Alma White, and such of her family as she desires, will move to the home of my wife and me and be available to render care to us from such request until our deaths respectively, and we have assured her that, in such event, my Will shall devise to Alma a tract of land including our home, such area now being bounded by a road on one side of a rectangle, and another road on the side opposite the first mentioned road, and on the other two sides by a tree line and on the opposite a parallel line equal distance from our home as the line of trees is on the opposite but parallel line. This last described line is in the direction of lands now owned by Jack Norman. It is my intention to mark the four corners by iron stakes.

If such request is made of my daughter Alma White, and she fulfills the resident care and attention, then the home and curtilage (being that rectangular area generally described above) shall upon my death belong to Alma, her heirs and assigns. If for any reason such request is not made, or for any reason performance does not occur, then the same home area lot shall on my death go to all my children equally and per stirpes.

If I should predecease my wife Helen, then, and in that event the land devise provided above to our daughter Alma shall for and during my wife's life be charged and burdened with the right in my wife Helen to jointly occupy such house with Alma and her family.

I T E M V.

I hereby give and devise, subject to the life estate reserved below, the remainder of my tract of land in the Verdery Section of Greenwood County of about fifty (50) acres to my ten (10) children, per stirpes, exclusive of Alma, who is otherwise provided for. If Alma does not qualify for inheritance of such house and rectangular tract described above, then, and in that event, Alma shall inherit as one of my eleven (11) children equally per stirpes, and the entire tract shall in such event pass under this Item to all eleven (11) children equally per stirpes. As to all of such tract, exclusive of the rectangular area where the house is located, I give and devise a life interest in the same to my wife Helen with the right in her during her lifetime, in her sole judgment, to market such of the growing trees thereon, whether for pulpwood or timber.

I T E M V I.

FMP 3
~~If any~~ of my said children should become beneficiaries under this Will, and at the time of my death should be deceased, leaving child or children surviving, then the child or children of such deceased child shall receive the share the parent would have received under this Will, if living. If any of my said children should become beneficiaries hereunder, and at the time of my death should be deceased, without leaving child or children surviving, then the share of such deceased child shall go to my surviving child or children, in equal shares, the child or children of any deceased child to take the share the parent would have received under this Will, if living, in equal shares, share and share alike.

I T E M V I I.

If at the time of my death, any of my grandchildren should become beneficiaries under this Will and has not become Twenty-One (21) years of age, then I direct that his or her share be held by my Trustees hereinafter named as Trustees for said grandchild, without bond, and with full and complete power and authority to hold, use, manage, lease, rent, invest, reinvest, sell, exchange, mortgage and deal with the trust property in such manner as the Trustees may deem advisable and for the best interest of the beneficiary. In the management and investment of the trust property, I specifically provide that the Trustees shall use their best judgment and discretion, free from any and all restrictions or requirements of law as to the management and investment of trust funds. I further provide that any person or concern dealing with my said Trustees shall be under no obligation to see to the proper application of the trust property. I specifically authorize said Trustee to use the income from the trust property for the use and benefit of the beneficiaries, and to the extent they deem essential, so much of the corpus from time to time as may be reasonably required for the care, support, education and other necessity of the beneficiaries. When each beneficiary becomes Twenty-One (21) years of age, his or her trust shall terminate, and the property remaining at that time shall be turned over to him or her in fee simple, free of all trusts and restrictions. I specifically relieve my Trustees of the necessity of filing detailed accounting of their acts as Trustees with any Court.

I T E M V I I I.

I name and appoint my wife, Helen Moss, my daughter Isola Alexander, and my daughter Gladys Yvonne Belcher Executrices and Trustees without bond, and with full and complete power and authority to do any and all things which they may deem necessary, desirable or proper in the management of my estate, with the right to sell any of my property at public or private sale, without order of the Court, and on such terms and conditions as they may deem advisable, and to execute such instruments as may be proper or desirable in connection therewith, with full authority to carry out any contract I have made.
