1. I will, devise and bequeath all of the rest and residue of my property of every kind and nature and wheresoever situate of which I die seized or possessed, or to which I may in any manner be entitled, to John Thomas Simpson, Jr., as Trustee, in trust for the following uses and purposes:

(a) To pay over or use for the benefit of my children who may survive me, all of the income or principal of said trust which, in his judgment, shall be adequate for their support, maintenance and education and for this purpose such sums may be paid over directly to the person or persons having the general custody and control of my child or children.

(b) It is my desire that my trust estate shall be paid or applied to and used for my children with greater regard being given to their needs than to an equal distribution thereof and for this purpose I authorize my Trustee, in his sole discretion, to make such unequal distributions or advancements as he, in his sole discretion, may deem proper or desirable under the circumstances then existing.

(c) When my youngest child shall have attained the age of twenty-three years or sooner dies and my next youngest child shall have attained the age of twenty-three years, this trust shall terminate and all of the property then remaining in this trust shall be delivered over to my surviving child or children, and the issue of any deceased child, per stirpes, in equal shares, free and discharged of this trust. At the termination of this trust, I give and grant to my Trustee, in his sole discretion and judgment, the right to charge to either of my children any unequal distribution or advancement or the right to disregard such unequal distribution and divide the trust fund or any accumulated income among my children or the issue of any deceased child, per stirpes, and in equal shares.

(d) If any of the funds and properties constituting a part of this trust shall vest in any person who shall be under twenty-one years of age at the time of the vesting thereof, I direct that such funds and properties so vesting shall nevertheless continue to be held in trust by my Trustee under the provisions hereof and be administered as a separate trust and that the net income therefrom or the principal thereof shall be applied in such manner and at such intervals and in such amounts as my Trustee, in his sole discretion, shall deem requisite or desirable for the suitable support and education of such person until he or she shall attain the age of twenty-one years or sooner dies, whereupon the then principal and any accumulated income of such trust shall be delivered and conveyed, discharged of the trust to such person.

(e) My Trustee shall not be required to file any periodic accounting with respect to any trust created herein with any court even though otherwise required by law, but he shall file annual accounts of receipts, disbursements and the principal held with each adult beneficiary and the guardian or person or persons having custody of each minor beneficiary.

Item V

I hereby constitute and appoint my wife, Wanda Steele Mann, as Executrix of this my last will and testament, if she survives me. If my wife predeceases me, renounces her right, or is unable to administer upon my estate, I hereby constitute and appoint John Thomas Simpson, Jr., as the Executor of this my last will and testament.

Item VI

Neither my Executrix, or her successor, nor my Trustee shall be required by any court to give any bond or other security for the faithful performance of their duties in any jurisdiction where my estate or any part thereof may be administered.

Item VII

I hereby authorize and empower my Executrix, or her successor, and my Trustee, in the exercise of their sole judgment and without order or approval of any court:

1. To continue my interest in any business, whether a proprietorship, partnership or corporation, in which I shall be engaged or interested at the time of my death and to join in making any new arrangements or agreements, including the incorporation of said business, as they may deem requisite or desirable in the continued operation thereof and specifically to employ therein capital which I shall have invested in such business at the time of my death and such additional capital as my Executrix, or her successor, or my Trustee, in the event such property shall have been distributed to my Trustee, shall from time to time deem advisable to advance out of the funds of my estate.

2. To retain any securities or other properties, real or personal, owned by me at the time of my death or subsequently acquired by my Executrix and Trustee so long as the retention thereof shall to them or their successor seem to be advisable and to the best interest of my estate.

3. To sell, exchange or convert real or personal property of any kind or nature, including any business in which I may be engaged or interested, either at public or private sale, for cash or upon credit, and upon such other terms and conditions as shall, in the sole discretion of my Executrix, be deemed to be for the best interest of my estate, but this power shall only be exercised with the consent and approval of my Trustee.

4. To execute such deeds, leases, notes, contracts, proxies, bills of sale, or other instruments, as my Executrix, or her successor, and my Trustee shall deem requisite or desirable in the business-like settlement of my estate.

cation of such minor taking into consideration to the extent my trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of such minor or of his or her parents. Such minor's property shall be paid over and distributed to such minor upon attaining age twenty-one (21) or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her estate. Whenever my trustee determines it appropriate to pay any money or benefit of any minor for whom a trust is created hereunder, then such amounts shall be paid out by my trustee in such of the following ways as my trustee deems best: (1) directly to such beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of such beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the support, medical care, and education of such beneficiary; (4) by my trustee using such amounts directly for such beneficiary's support, medical care and education. In holding any property for a minor under the provisions of this Item, my trustee shall have all of the power, discretionary or otherwise, heretofore conferred upon him as executor.

ITEM VII

If any beneficiary and I should die as a result of a common accident or calamity or otherwise under such circumstances as would render it doubtful whether the beneficiary or I died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Will that said beneficiary predeceased me, provided, however, that if my wife shall die with me as aforesaid, I direct that she shall be conclusively presumed to have survived me.
