WALTER A. McPHAIL

I, WALTER A. McPHAIL, of the City and County of Abbeville, South Carolina, do hereby make and publish this as my Last Will and Testament and hereby revoke all previous Wills and Codicils by me made.

1. I request that my wife, my Executor and my issue abide by any memorandum by me directing the disposition of this property or any part thereof.

2. If my wife, MARY F. McPHAIL, survives me, the residue of my estate shall be divided into two shares as follows:

In making the computations necessary to determine the amount of this share, values as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes shall control. My Executor may, in setting aside this share, distribute assets in cash or in kind or partly in cash and

The other share, called the FAMILY SHARE, out of which all inheritance, estate or other transfer taxes are to be paid, shall consist of the remaining portion of my estate, I give, devise and bequeath, in fee simple, to my children, WALTER A. McPHAIL, JR., JOHN MARVIN McPHAIL, JAMES WILLIAM McPHAIL and MARY McPHAIL STANDAERT, in equal shares, or their issue per stirpes if any of them do not survive me. McPHAIL, JR., JOHN MARVIN McPHAIL, JAMES WILLIAM McPHAIL and MARY McPHAIL STANDAERT, in equal shares, or their issue per stirpes if any of them do not survive me.

3. I appoint my wife, MARY F. McPHAIL, Executrix of this my Will. If, however, she shall fail to qualify or cease to act as Executrix, I appoint my sons, WALTER A. I direct neither shall be required to furnish any bond.

ARTICLE VII. The respective Trustees shall pay, to or for the benefit of their respective beneficiaries, such equal or unequal amounts of the net income and/or principal of the trust assets as from time to time the Trustee deems advisable for the proper health, education, maintenance and support of such beneficiaries, considering each beneficiary's varying needs, circumstances, abilities, and income and support from all sources known to the Trustee.

Upon each beneficiary attaining the age of twenty-five (25), if not earlier distributed within the Trustee's discretion, the Trustee shall distribute absolutely to such beneficiary his proportionate share of principal and accumulated income (if any).

If the last beneficiary in either trust shall die before receiving his final distribution, such distribution shall instead be made to such deceased beneficiary's descendants, if any, and, if none, equally to his/her brothers and sisters.

Sell and Exchange. To sell such property at either public or private sale for cash or on credit; to exchange such property, and to grant options for the purchase thereof.

Invest and Reinvest. To invest and reinvest in any property, including, but not by way of limitation, bonds, notes, debentures, mortgages, certificates of deposit, common and preferred stocks, shares or interests in investment trusts, without being limited to the class of securities in which fiduciaries are authorized by law or any rule of court to invest funds.

Termination of Trust. To terminate any Trust herein created when in the sole judgment of the Trustee, the corpus of the Trust is too small in amount to warrant the continued existence of the Trust, taking into consideration the intended purposes behind the formation of said trust.

ARTICLE X. In the event that any beneficiary under this Will or any Codicil hereto shall die under such circumstances as to render it impossible or difficult to determine whether or not he survived me, I direct that such beneficiary shall be conclusively presumed to have predeceased me and that the provisions of this Will and any Codicil hereto shall be construed and governed accordingly.

I will and direct that my personal representative may cause any debt which I owe to be carried, renewed and/or refinanced from time to time, upon such terms and with such security for its repayment as my personal representative may deem advisable.

ITEM II.

If Harvey Ethridge shall survive me, I will, devise and bequeath unto him absolutely and in fee simple all of my property, real, personal, mixed, tangible, intangible, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situate, of which I may die seized and possessed, or to which I may be entitled at my death.

ITEM III.

If Harvey Ethridge shall not survive me:

(A) I will and devise unto Phillip E. White and Sara E. White absolutely and in fee simple, share and share alike, (or to the survivor of them if one of them shall predecease me) the real estate hereinafter identified, PROVIDED, that said Phillip E. White and Sara E. White, or the survivor of them, pay unto the personal representative of my estate within one year after my death the sum of Seven Thousand Five Hundred Forty-Two and No/100 ($7,542.00) Dollars, which payment, if made, shall pass as a portion of my residuary estate according to the provisions of sub-item (B) hereinafter. Upon such timely payment, my personal representative shall execute and deliver unto said Phillip E. White and Sara E. White, or the survivor of them, a good and sufficient deed to the property hereinafter identified. If such payment is not timely made, then the said real estate, hereinafter identified, shall be sold by my personal representative and the net proceeds thereof pass as a portion of my residuary estate under sub-paragraph (B) hereinafter. Such sale may be public or private and may be at such time and in such manner and upon such terms as my personal representative deems in the interest of my estate. The real estate which is the subject of this devise is composed of two separate tracts which may be identified as follows:

1. That certain tract of land in State of South Carolina, Abbeville County, Diamond Hill Township, being shown and designated as a tract containing 37 3/4 acres on that certain plat by A. E. Thompson dated April 5, 1919, which plat is recorded in the office of the Clerk of Court for Abbeville County in Vol. 1 at page 33. A more thorough description of this tract is contained in that certain deed from James Quincy Ethridge, Kathleen E. Coats, Margie E. Boggs, and Doris E. Entrekin unto Bessie Broadwell Ethridge of record in the office of the Clerk of Court for Abbeville County in Book of Titles 102 at page 263. This tract is the second item of real estate described in said deed.
2. All that certain tract of land situate in the State of South Carolina, Abbeville County, being shown and designated as a 42.4 acre tract on that certain plat by A. E. Thompson dated December 30, 1919, LESS AND EXCEPTING that certain tract of land shown as 4.73 acres on that certain plat surveyed November 28, 1964, by J. Rivers Mabry, R.L.S., for Earle W. White. Thus the portion of the 42.4 acre tract remaining after the conveyance of the 4.73 acre tract, contains approximately 37.67 acres. The original 42.4 acre tract is more fully described as the third item in that certain deed from James Quincy Ethridge, Kathleen E. Coats, Margie E. Boggs and Doris E. Entrekin to Bessie Broadwell Ethridge of record in the office of the Clerk of Court for Abbeville County in Book of Titles 102 at page 263.

One portion to each of my children who survive me, and one portion to the issue per stirpes of each of my children (including William J. Ethridge, Jr) who predecease me, leaving issue living at the time of my death, such issue to take per stirpes the share to which their ancestor would have been entitled if living.

ITEM IV.

I nominate, constitute and appoint Doris E. Entrekina as Executrix of this my Last Will and Testament and direct that she be not required to give bond for the faithful performance of her duties as such Executrix. In executing the provisions of this Will and in lawfully administering my estate, such person as may occupy the position of the personal representative of my estate shall have the right without the need of the order of any Court:

- (D) To sell any part or all of the assets of my estate, personal and real, at public or private sale at such time and in such manner and upon such terms as my personal representative deems in the interest of my estate;
- (E) To make physical division and distribution of personal property left in common to more than one person;
- (F) To continue any investment owned by me or to sell and reinvest the proceeds and any other cash available in any investment authorized by law for fiduciaries.

(G) To reduce to cash any personal property for the purpose of making division and distribution thereof or to make distribution thereof in kind.

No person dealing with my personal representative in any manner shall be under any obligation to see to the application of any monies paid to her.

Nothing herein is intended to restrict any power or right which the said Executrix or any other personal representative of my estate would have possessed in the absence of the foregoing provisions.
