

Obituary

Charles Henry Smith

Born: 07 Jun 1861, Rector, Flint, Hamilton Co., Illinois
Died: 07 Oct 1925, Paragould, Greene County, Arkansas

Charles Henry Smith

Paragould Soliphone Newspaper, Friday,
October 9, 1925.

Paragould, Greene County, Arkansas

Charles H. Smith Dies at Home of Daughter, aged 64 years, died last evening (Oct 8, 1925) at 9:30 p.m (on Thursday) following an illness of several months. However, he had been confined to his room only about 90 days.

Mr. Smith was a native of McLeansboro, Illinois and moved to this state 25 years ago. For a number of years he resided in the northern part of this city, but for the past few weeks had been residing with a daughter. Mrs Noah Cline on East Court Street.

Mr Smith is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Smith, three sons, Lawrence Smith, of Truman, Ark, R. L. Smith, 758 North Second street and the younger son. Earl Smith, also of this city, 3 daughters, Mrs Lilly Morgan of Route 2, Mrs Elmer May of Route 2, and Mrs Noah Cline of this City. One brother, John H. Smith of Whittinton, Ill, one sister, Mrs Susan Hunt of McLeansboro, Ill., also survive.

The funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. from the home of Mr and Mrs Noah Clyne on East Court Street. Rev J. L. Shelby, pastor of the East Side Methodist Church will officate. Interment will take place in Linwood Cemetery Oct 9, 1925.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1925.

Charles H. Smith Dies at Home of Daughter

Charles H. Smith, aged 64 years, died last evening at 9:30 o'clock following an illness of several months. However, he had been confined to his room only about ninety days.

Mr. Smith was a native of McLeansboro, Ill., and moved to this state 25 years ago. For a number of years he resided in the northern part of this city, but for the past few weeks had been residing with a daughter, Mrs. Noah Clyne, on East Court street.

Mr. Smith is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary Smith, three sons, Lawrence Smith of Truman, Ark., R. L. Smith, 759 North Second street, and the younger son, Earl Smith, also of this city, 3 daughters, Mrs. Lilly Morgan of Route 2, Mrs. Elmer May of Route 2, and Mrs. Noah Clyne of this city. One brother, John H. Smith of Whittinton, Ill., one sister, Mrs. Susan Hunt of McLeansboro, Ill., also survive.

The funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Clyne on East Court street. Rev. J. L. Shelby, pastor of the East Side Methodist church, will officiate. Interment will take place in Linwood cemetery.