Copy of a letter from "His Electoral Highness" Maximilian Emanuel of Bavaria [1] to the King of Spain. His advice from France confirms the report that the enemy are making great preparations on the frontiers of Catalonia and Navarre; he offers four battalions of infantry and six squadrons of dragoons, making, with the officers, 3,800 men, being in fact, all the men he has there at disposal. They could easily be sent to the ports of Bisara, and employed as the King should direct. Spanish, with French translation. [S.P. Dom., King William's Chest 16, No. 153.]

Sir William Trumbull to the Lords of the Treasury, transmitting the petition of Mr. Thomas Row. The King is pleased to recom pense the petitioner for his service, and directs that you confer upon him some employment that you may judge proper for him. [S.P. Dom., Entry Book 99, p. 360.]

Proceedings upon the petition of James DeLise, Humphrey Radberme and Thomas Brooking, merchants. The petitioners were owners of a ship called the Delly Frigate, John Shepard master, which they sent on a voyage to Newfoundland, where she was taken by the French, and sent to Rochelle. On her voyage she was forced upon the coast of Galicia, and during a violent storm the captors set the English prisoners at liberty, and delivered the ship up to them. They sailed her into Carinio with English colours and English matrosses. They pray the King's letters to the King of Spain in their favour, for restoration of the ship and cargo. Referred to Sir Charles Hedges, judge of the High Court of Admiralty. [Ibid. 238, p. 104.]

Proceedings upon the petition of Edward Salsbury, praying a writ of error on a judgment in the Common Pleas obtained against him and one John Eastwood by Marmaduke Prector. Allowed. [Ibid., p. 106.]

Passes for James Poyard, Henry House, Richard Malher, Thomas Wood, merchants, and Anthony Hollander, a servant, to go to Spain; for Francis Scrivery [1], Albert Dave, his wife and a child, to go to Holland; for Paul Leithenzer, a Dutchman, ditto; and for John Barnes, John Badly, his wife and three children, ditto. [Ibid. 227, p. 16.]

Commissions for Mr. Samuel Foster to be captain of the company whereof Captain Thomas Brent, deceased, was captain, in Col. Harry Mordaunt's regiment of foot [Ibid. 197, p. 281]; for John Christian de Blair to be lieutenant of Captain Hugh Dawes' company in the same regiment [Ibid. 167, p. 292]; and for Charles Harwicke, gent., to be ensign that company whereof Major Edward Norton is captain in the same regiment. [Ibid. 189, p. 226.]
