In Upper Brook-st., Reginald-Dalrymple, infant son of the Hon. Colonel Lindsay.

At St. Thomas's, Lieut. Robert O'Brien (1838), Admiralty Agent in the Royal Mail Steam Company, aged 63, and A.D.C. to the Duke of Kent, was buried.

At Wimbledon, aged 69, Mr. James Paxton, brother of Sir Joseph Paxton, and many years confidential servant to the Duke of Saxe-Coburg.

At Bexleyheath, aged 68, William Stubble, esq.

At Hythe, aged 75, Sarah, widow of Mr. Geo. Elwyn, solicitor.

At Huntingdon, Lavinia, fourth daughter of the late William Herbert, esq.

At High Torch, near Narbeth, South Wales, aged 77, William Kessey, esq.

At Pampalst, near Cockermouth, aged 79, Thomas Knight, esq. of Pampalst and Hensley Hall, Shropshire.

At 77, at Plymouth, Priscilla Beattie, third dau. of the late Matthew Lucas, esq. of Acester.

At Acester, aged 87, Jos. Purden, esq. formerly of the firm of Mewes, Montz and Purden, Birmingham.

At Goring Vicarage, Oxon, aged 72, Pollitt Scott Stokes, esq. of Hams-place, Chelsea.

At Tunbridge Wells, aged 51, Henry Milnes Thornton, second son of the late Samuel Thornton, esq. of London.

At Aug. 17, at Ramsey, Isle of Man, aged 19, at the residence of his brother, the Rev. Robert Abercrombie, William, the only son of Mr. Robert Abercrombie, of Bungay, wine merchant.

At Alfred-pl. West Brompton, aged 64, Eliza Letitia, widow of the Rev. E. Bowler, esq. late of the Ordnance Department.

At Tilton-sq. Laleham, aged 71, Mr. James Brown, master of the London Hibernian and Guardian Societies.

Mr. William Christophsen, of Lee, Kent, and King William Street, City, third surviving son of the late Mr. William Christophsen, of Ipswich.

At Newton-by-the-Sea, aged 45, William, son of Rowland Joseph Forester, esq.

At Rothley, aged 75, William Laws, esq. of Yeadmore Castle, for more than forty years one of the commissioners of the Duchy of Northumberland.

In Somerset-st., aged 92, Charlotte Sophia, widow of the late Sir William Parsons.

Aged 73, Geo. Stanier, esq. of Worcester.

Aug. 18, at Salhouse, George Brown, esq. for many years a member of the Corporation, and formerly Chief Magistrate of that city.

At Southwell, aged 81, Benjamin Haller Candler, esq. many years Comptroller in Her Majesty's Customs.

At Richmond House, Clifton-hill, Bristol, Eliza, wife of Oliver Cothope, esq. eldest dau. of the late Adam Cumberland.

Accidentally drowned in Loch Aline, Scotland, in his 94th year. Edward Bethell Codrington, only son of Col. Codrington, Coldstream Guards.

At Great Maplestead, Essex, aged 94, Tabitha, wife of John Freeborn, esq.

At Wimbourn Minster, aged 86, Miss Mary Pryer.

At Southborough, aged 72, Francis Gudd, esq.

At Bartestaple, aged 77, John Guest, esq.

At Milford, aged 49, Mr. Joseph Loader, late of the Pavement, Finsbury.

At Hadley, Mary-Douglas, third dau. of the late Lieut.-Gen. Middelmore, C.B.

At Bath, aged 71, John Pass, esq. formerly of Boston.

At Grove House, near Edgware, aged 70, James Steer, esq. of Lincolnshire, and late of Walton Villa, Clifton, eldest brother of George Bellairs, esq. of Narborough.

At Goring Vicarage, Oxon, aged 72, Pollitt Scott Stokes, esq. of Hans-pl. Chelsea.

Aug. 19. At Plymouth, aged 62, Capt. John Jordan Arrow, R.N. (1831), on the retired list. He was a midshipman of the Kent in the expedition to Egypt, Lorn of the Jason, at the capture of the French West Indiamen, and senior of that ship at the capture of the French frigate Topaze, under the batteries of Guadaloupe; and at the taking of the Sanilas, in 1809; and in 1813 and 1814 was actively employed in the Scheldt, particularly in an attack on five French brigs, under Fort Lille, with the boats of Jason and Amphion.

At Rogate, aged 80, the Right Hon. the Dowager Lady Polwath. She was dau. of Count Brühl, for many years Saxon minister at this Court, and of Alicia Maria, Countess of Egremont.

At Tunbridge Wells, aged 31, Mary Elizabeth, dau. of Henry Mawley, esq. of Gower-st.

At Greenfield, Richard Oxford. esq. at Calcutta.

In Carlton-road, Malda-vale, Coloubon Smith, esq. late of Aux Cayes, Haiti.

At Brighton, John Wade Stratton, esq. of Dun- talk, Ireland.

At Old House, Great Horkeley, aged 81, Mrs. Withers.

At Dorking, Surrey, aged 71, Sarah Foster, widow of Heathfield Young, esq.

Aug. 20. Drowned, with two sailors, in a boat off Ventnor, aged 36, Mr. Edward A. W. Anderson, of South Audley-street, eldest son of Mr. Wright Anderson, of East Acton.

At the Fire, Kidderminster, aged 75, Harriet, relict of William Beyert, esq.

At Melton Mowbray, aged 71, Miss Frances Carr.

At Sydenham, aged 92, Susan, widow of George Chilton, esq. one of the Masters of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

At East Stowe-house, aged 70, First-Lieut. John Conchie, R.M.

At Turin, aged 23, George, second son of the late Francis Gibbes, esq. of Harewood, Yorkshire.

At Broadley, Salop, Mary-Aux, wife of J. H. Maw, esq. late of Hastings.

At Upper Harley-st., aged 76, J. P. Morley, esq. ; and on the 26th, aged 87, Horatia-Maria-Frances, his widow.

At Rumingate, aged 31, Emma, wife of the Rev. Frederick Hennell, of Harrow, and dau. of William Downes, esq. of the Hill-house, Edgbaston.

At 74, Frank Reochford, esq. of Belina-villas, Kentish-town, and Brewhall, esq. of Golden-sq.

At Newcastle, Australia, aged 80, Major Russell, formerly of the 98th regt. Major Russell was engaged with the 90th regt. in Holland, in 1799; in Egypt, in 1801; and throughout the Peninsular War, for which he obtained the medals lately issued.

At Hewstow-hill, near Liphook, Hants, aged 69, the Hon. Arthur Richard Tourner, Commander R.N. (1841), on the reserved half-pay list. He was second son of the second Earl of Winterton; entered the navy in 1789, and served 17 years abroad, all during the war. He was in the Cesar, with Sir James Saumarez, in his Algerine action, and was constantly in active service on all stations. He married in 1829 Charlotte-Fitzherbert, eldest dau. of the late George Daysh, esq. of Petworth, and has left issue a son and a daughter.

At Haalar Hospital, at the house of his brother-in-law, aged 56, Comm. James Howard Turner, Commander R.N. He entered the navy in 1811, was made a Lieut. in 1825, and for eight years commanded the Falmouth packet Ranger. His last service was on board command of the Merlin steam-packet, in the Mediterranean.

At the Celsius, Bath, Anna-Maria, relict of R. P. Western, esq.

Aug. 21. At Upper Hamilton-terrace, aged 16,