At Bevington, Isle of Wight, in his 38th year, Mr. T. J. of Hall.

At Johnstown, Laughton, aged 78, Daniel Golden, esq., formerly of the Strand, linen-draper. And, a short time ago, Dorothy, his wife. They had been married 53 years.

At his lodgings in St. Aldeate's parish, Oxford, aged 86, the Rev. John W. B., formerly of the Italian College, Deaf.

At Bath, Cot Letter, many years an inhabitant of that city, and brother to John Fawkes, M. P., of Dunster-castle. Jan. 20, the wife of Mr. Henry Milbro, vicar of New Windsor.

At Tunbridge, Isle of Wight, aged 78, John Belbam, esq.

At Leicestershire, Mr. W. B., cabinet-maker.

At 80, Mr. Cort, formerly a painter, and lately on the establishment of the Charter-house. He was suddenly taken ill on Clapham-green, and being conveyed home in a coach, expired on entering his apartment.

At Kirkby, near Stadfor, Mr. William Fisher, an opulent gentry, 40 acres.

At Woodford, Essex, Mrs. Mathew, relater of Job H. esq.

At Harley-street, the Right Hon. Lady Elizabeth Lee, daughter of Sir John Harcourt, and relater of Sir Wm. Lee, bart. At her son's, in Spa-fields, near Islington, aged 79, Mrs. Caley, of Walham-ton, Essex.

At her sister's, in Lower Seymour-street, Mrs. Sandford, relater of William H. & W., of Walton, Somersettshire, and sister of Sir Geo. Yonge, bart.

Suddenly, Mr. Lyons, many years the first bassino-typist in the orchestra of Drury-Jane Theatre.

At Great Barr, Staffords', aged 84, Mrs. Rawlin. At Corb, T. Howtz, esq.

At Bristol, Samuel Frieo, esq., I. Clarke, esq., of Waston, Norfolk.

At Green, B. of Castle, Capt. Huntington, of the Vostal frigate.

At Green, Mr. of Culcheth, Capt. M.

John Burcham, the Walsham postman. It is estimated that he had, in the course of 20 years, walked 60,115 miles.

At Bury, Mrs. Samuel, relater of Capt. M.

At Westbury, Mrs. Edmond, late of Cotesbury, etc.

Jane Anne Lyle, daughter of the late Roger L. esq. of Swanswy.

At Swanswy, the Rev. Mr. Lucas, of Swanswy.

At Lecommin, in her 76th year, Mrs. Medforth.

At Wickenham, James Dyer, esq., formerly an officer in the Army.

At Salisbury, aged 87, T. P., late of the Field-house, near Stourbridge, the wife of T. W., esq. At Market, aged 86, Tho. Colman, esq.

At Handsworth, near Birmingham, Capt. W. H., esq.

The wife of Mr. H., bookseller of Worcester.

At Newcastle, in an alias-house belonging to the Simpson family, aged 101, Mrs. Simpson. For years ago she walked to Bradley, a distance of 10 miles.

At Chats-worth, near Walsall, Wm. Stonehouse, esq. of Chats-worth.

In London, Robert Coleman, esq., formerly of Leicester.

Rev. Mr. Brown, of Rotherwichtown, Penrith-shire.

At Haldy, Berks, in his 78th year, Mr. Greenaway.

At Yarmouth, Benjamin, esq., of the late Rev. Mr. G. of St. Mary's-college.

At Bristol, Samuel Frieo, esq., I. Clarke, esq., of Waston, Norfolk.

At Green, B. of Castle, Capt. Huntington, of the Vostal frigate.