

Did your ancestor ever walked through, breathed in, dreamed about, or lived around Fort Smith, Arkansas—especially around 1870-1900? If so, take a look at the Fort Smith Criminal Case files? It is easier now than ever before!

You think your ancestor is not a criminal???

Just take a look at these records!

They are chock full of every day stand-up citizens being arrested or charged with a violation of some sort or another that just might not have been handed down through family history!
