

CRADOCK TO OPEN ITS SCHOOLS TODAY

C. A. Barton, chairman of the Cradock school board, announced last night that the Cradock schools would be opened this morning at 9 o'clock. Mr. Barton stated that a large attendance is expected, and that a competent corps of teachers has been secured.

The teachers are as follows: Mrs. Nannie D. Harding, principal; Misses Elizabeth W. Hatcher, Mabel Casteen, Lillian Meiggs, Mary Phillips, Irbie Garner, Victoria Jones, Ester A. Garvin, Mary E. Bragg, and Mesdames Harold Thornton, F. IL Osborne, Nell M. Thompkins, Mae Bogart, Thompson and A. B. Sparks.

The last three are teachers in the high school.

The attendance today is expected to reach 600.
