

- Michigan, June 5, 1864, and came to Fond du Lac in 1874. He graduated from the law class of Valparaiso College, Indiana, in 1891, was elected city attorney in 1898 and has been engaged in the practice of law here ever since.
- W. F. SEALY, clerk of the court, was born in Fond du Lac county in November, 1857, has served four years as alderman, chairman of police and fire committees, and was elected to his present position in 1910.
- WILLIAM J. SEEVE was born in Fond du Lac in 1874. He was elected sheriff of Fond du Lac county in 1908 and is at present the under-sheriff of the county.
- REUBEN SIMMONS was born near Utica, New York, about 1793, came to Green Bay, Wisconsin in 1836. In 1838 he purchased 650 acres of land in Fond du Lac county. He was one of a company of six men to open a road between Fond du Lac and Milwaukee, Fond du Lac doing part way and Milwaukee the balance. That was the first road cut through to the lake. Hitherto the settlers had been obliged to follow an Indian trail which was very obscure and often nearly obliterated. This road has since then been known as the Milwaukee road. He died Feb. 16, 1870. Lovisa Simmons, his wife, survived him until Feb. 29, 1888.
- J. A. SMITH, editor and publisher. Founder of the Commonwealth. Mr. Smith founded the Western Freeman, October 5, 1854. In September, 1856, Mr. Smith purchased the Fountain City Herald which had been established by Royal Buck Nov. 9, 1852, combining the Herald and Freeman under the new name, the Commonwealth, the first issue appearing under the new name October 15, 1856. The Commonwealth is thus the successor of the Fountain City Herald and the Western Freeman, publication having been continuous since its founding, Nov. 9, 1852. Mr. Smith was born in Brownsville, Jefferson county, N. Y., July 21, 1823, and died at Ft. Atkinson, Wis., June 23, 1892.
- O. C. STEENBERG was born in Tompkins county, New York, in 1836 and came to Fond du Lac in 1862, as principal of the Fond du Lac High school. In 1864 he was elected superintendent of the city schools and in 1871 he purchased an interest in a sash, door and blind factory, becoming sole proprietor of the same in 1877.
- FRED G. STEENBERG is proprietor of the O. C. Steenberg sash, door and blind factory, a worthy successor to his father and doing an increasing business from year to year.
- WILLIAM STEWART was born in Perthshire, Scotland, August 12, 1790. He was a British soldier and fought under Wellington in the Battle of Waterloo and was later garrisoned as a soldier at Green Bay in the year 1827. He settled in the town of Byron, Fond du Lac county in 1839, and was the first chairman of the town of Byron, serving in that capacity for five years.
- MRS. WILLIAM STEWART was born in Ireland March 28, 1800 and came to the town of Byron in 1839.
- MRS. ELIZABETH STEWART ROBERTS was born January 20, 1841. She was the first white child born in the town of Byron.
- JOHN C. STROUP was born in Middletown, Delaware county, New York, Nov. 20, 1823, and came to this county in 1846. He died June 24, 1900.
- MRS. J. C. STROUP, born in Cornwall, England, June 9, 1828, came to this county in 1844. She died Dec. 10, 1910.
- GEORGE I. SUSAN was born in Marlow, England, in 1844, came to the town of Oakfield in 1850, and dealt in agricultural machinery in the city of Fond du Lac for several years.
- D. D. SUTHERLAND, attorney-at-law, was born in Winnebago county, July 4, 1858, and came to Fond du Lac after taking a law course in Columbia College, New York City, in 1884. He has been practicing law in this city ever since.
- B. F. SWEET, sleigh and wagon works, was born in Grand Isle, county, Vt., on the 24th day of May, 1831, came to Fond du Lac in 1854, and with his brother, H. L. Sweet, established the manufacture of wagons and sleighs in 1879. He was elected mayor of the city of Fond du Lac in 1889 and re-elected in 1890.
- MRS. B. F. SWEET was born in Bridgeport, Conn., July 1, 1839, and came to Fond du Lac in 1856.