

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., December 15 — A. B. Lowenstein, of Baltimore, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Henry Keller, this week.

J. B. Finley, of the Revenue office, has been in Washington and Baltimore on business.

Ed. Woodward was East last week on business.

C. C. Martin and wife returned from a trip to Washington and New York.

Miss Lillie Pool entertained a few friends at her home on Eighth street Saturday evening. Games, music and various other amusements were indulged in and choice refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Alice Hilliard, Ella Mayhew, Myrtle Parkhill, Ella Gooseman and Jennie Gooseman; Messrs. James Anderson, W. V. Taylor, Frank Montgomery, John Archer, Edward Mayhew, Stephen Archer and V. B. Lagitt.

Mrs. Col. Ben. Byrse and daughter, Miss Gertrude, of Charleston, are guests at Dr. T. B. Camden's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell entertained a few friends very pleasantly with whist at the Blennerhassett on Saturday evening. There were three tables, and the progressive game was played. It was given in honor of Miss Brangie, of Cumberland. Those present were Mrs. Good, Miss Brangie, Miss Nelly, Miss Walters, Messrs. Brown, G. W. Mickle of Cincinnati, R. P. Camden, J. B. Findley, E. E. Woodward, W. C. McCaughy, Will Nelly and W. B. Hiteshaw.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hill entertained a number of friends very delightfully in honor of their guest, Miss Jack Miller, of Corydon, Ind. Those present were: Mrs. William Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hill, Mrs. T. O. Cothran, Miss Bickel, and Misses Jack Miller, Lou Lillie Tracewell, Emma Tracewell, Virgie Stratton, Idonia Lytle, Clara Mayhew and Allie McKee, and Messrs. W. L. Marshall, Edward Daniels, D. O. Mainwaring, Vaa G. Morris, John Hamilton, Herman Taylor, Odell Brown, Ralph A. Deem and Mr. Warick.

The Misses Gardner entertained a few friends Monday evening at duplicate whist.

Thos. Hillsborough and son, Tom, left Wednesday for New York. They will sail on Saturday on the big Cunarder, Campea. Mr. Hillsborough will return here during February.

The Blennerhassett club will take possession of their room early next week. Whether there will be a formal opening and reception has not yet been decided.

Misses Gertrude and Ida Nelly entertained a few friends at whist, Tuesday evening, in honor of their guest, Miss Braugh, of Cumberland, Md., at their home on Ann street. The prize, a handsome embroidered picture frame, was won by Mr. Ed Pope.

Those present were: Miss Margaret Paddon and her guest, Miss Lillian Moffatt; Miss Mary Warder and Miss Nan Braugh; Messrs. Ed Pope, W. C. McCaughy, George Summers, Ed Wilson and George Gambrell.

Reuben Epstein banquetted a number of his gentlemen friends at Safford's restaurant last Tuesday evening in honor of his birthday.

Mrs. John Campbell and child, of Wheeling, are visiting at Dr. M. Campbell's.

Mrs. F. M. Dublin and Mrs. Chas. Dublin came in from Grafton Thursday night to attend to some business affairs, and returned home Friday.

Miss Pet Rowland, of Cornwallis, who has been visiting here for several weeks, has returned home.