

A Magnificent School System—The Fair—Personal Points.

Special Correspondence of the Sunday Register.

PARKERSBURG, Sept. 7.—Mr. I. N. Smith and Miss Jennie Ogden were married Tuesday night and have gone to housekeeping at Riverside.

Mr. T. J. Deem and Miss Victoria Rable, the latter one of the most popular school teachers in the county, were married Friday.

Miss Helen Buell, of Marietta, is the guest of Misses Julia and Nellie Wait.

The Parkersburg Kindergarten will open up again next Monday. Miss Mamie Byrne is at the head of the school and has made it a great success. The Kindergarten has a building of its own on Seventh street, between Market and Juliana.

The city schools will begin Monday, with City Superintendent W. M. Straus in charge, assisted by forty-five teachers, of whom six are principals. Parkersburg is justly proud of her schools. The attendance this year will be between two thousand and twenty-five hundred pupils.

The Parkersburg Seminary began last Monday, with a good attendance.

Miss Kinnie E. Smith's private school begins next Monday.

Miss Effie Brown has gone to Illinois to fill an engagement as principal of piano and harmony in a music college.

Parkersburg has a skillful and artistic taxidermist in the person of Miss Adelaide Amiss, a popular young lady, whose work was much admired at the Fair.

The Womans' Exchange is now one of the most flourishing institutions of the city. Many of the most prominent ladies in the city are members. They had a handsomely decorated lunch hall at the Fair, printed menus were used and pretty young ladies acted as waitresses.

Frank Cook, a well known young man of Parkersburg, recently married, has been taken to the asylum at Weston. Also Mrs. Joseph Phelps, of this county.

The Academy of Music has not opened yet this season. It is behind time. We are not even informed when we are to have an attraction.